

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-02-01

Where do we start with this show, I struggled until yesterday to come up with a name for it, a plethora of topics, that circle around and then tie back in, new ponderings, new info and all connected in with dots. This in some parts will be a rollercoaster of emotions and will be triggering on a very deep level, churning up memories and traumas of the past, to heal in the now, reactions will be tested and because of that we are going to something new for our show. WATER MUSIC Before we start this show I want all listeners to briefly and quickly get into their own quiet space mode, like pre mediation mode, this is because this show will trigger heavy and deep emotions, a plethora of new information for many of you, and will bring up a rollercoaster of emotions, the beginning of the show will not point to what comes later in the show, now you are ready I want you all to do a breathing exercise, and do it for 9 breathes. Breathe in deeply through the nostrils, hold for a count of 3 and exhale through the mouth not the nose, for 9 breathes, starting now. CHEVALIER DE SANGREAL I was pondering the other day which generally comes to major realizations, Kim was told to wait two weeks for something, and her reaction was wells the fargo is this two weeks all about, why is everything two weeks? Of course it was made into a meme in alt media circles by Drake and his 2 weeks predictions, zero of which came true, but it will one day. My own research has led me to believe 2 weeks is a brain entrainment program activated by MK ultra style programming via Langley, Montauk and several other so called research locations, plus in Institutions, colleges, universities or schools. It is mentioned several times in movies, shows and theater, and like all the cat memes it makes no sense as to why something would be repeated so often, unless you begin to see it as a program. Like the series They Live with commands of obey, buy, consume, sleep, stay asleep, watch tv are all brain entrainment tactics implemented on the people to ensure compliance with their programs, ran on and against us, whilst we slept as a collective, they lived at our expense, harvesting and looshing our energy, and we as a collective complied. But there was a small group on this planet they couldn't control and brain entrain, it is a fact that 15% cannot be controlled on this planet, maybe those 15% are different, real different as we may find out within this show. Those people were also covered in a series called The Divergent's, set in a futuristic dystopia where society is divided into five factions, that each represent a different virtue, teenagers have to decide if they want to stay in their faction or switch to another, for the rest of their lives. The classic lines they always roll out in these type of disclosure shows is, it is set in a futuristic setting, just like technology, there is nothing futurist about it, it is the now and the past. Notice they threw in the 5 factions oh my, and where have we heard that in greater detail before? all hidden in plain sight, but to the blind people who have eyes and don't use them, it largely becomes lost in the fog of distraction programs. The character Tris Prior makes a choice that surprises everyone in the show, then Tris and her fellow faction-members have to live through a highly competitive initiation process, to live out the choice they have made. This is to put all people into boxes based on the profiling of all of us, that program starts in kindergarten, it then went into overdrive on the alt media platform. The masses answered all the meme based questionnaires on there, that oblivious to them ended up in an extensive file on each and every person, which is then calculated by their AI machines via algorithms, so then you can all neatly be placed into boxes, as I have said consistently, we have done their jobs for them by not thinking enough. They must undergo extreme physical and intense psychological tests, that transform them all, yes they are programmed and brain entrainment to all fit nicely into their preselected boxes, that is MK Ultra in your face. They run counter programs to make the masses disorientated, frustrated, angry and off balance, which then enables them to control you more, and disappointingly, although not entirely surprising given we were all educated, not taught, the people complied with every request. But Tris has a secret that she is Divergent, or I would say a 15%, which means she doesn't fit into any one group, that would be known on this show as an oops. If anyone knew, it would mean a certain death, as she discovers a growing conflict that threatens to unravel her seemingly peaceful society, this secret might help her save the people she loves, or it might destroy her. This is the world Kim and I and some of you listening tonight live in, there are very few that don't fit in their boxes, and those people become heavily targeted, particularly those who go against the official narrative and write our history and not theirs. Fewer people still, will not sacrifice their lives for the greater good of the all, for a mission that is certainly not beneficial to the individual carrying it out, as not only will you be targeted by the system, but the very people you are trying to save, all safely ensconced in their boxes also, they will attack you with glee and willful abandon. All of you will have witnessed that in our own group, never mind further afield, it plots and creates families into break ups, loved one and friends also, as the more truth you spit out, the more tightly knit the box people becomes, a massive divide and conquer program that reaches into every aspect of society, including those institutions said to be for our benefit, when clearly they are not. THI and other shows like Randy's are in essence taking many of you out of your own boxes and back into the real world, their whole world and boxes are based are pure fantasy and illusion, of creating worlds within worlds. As the series Westworld described, based on a film in 1973 of the same name, and yet again it is described as a futuristic world, like I keep saying once you see the pattern, it always repeats, and the reason behind that will become prevalent later in the show, but also it is in the description of that series. The story takes place in Westworld, a fictional, technologically advanced Wild-West-themed amusement park, populated by android known as "hosts". The park caters to high-paying "guests", who may indulge their wildest fantasies within the park, without fear of retaliation from the hosts, who are prevented by their programming from harming humans. Perhaps it should be renamed from Westworld to West Gate world, and it will make a whole heap more sense to regular THI listeners, the park is populated by bots, sound familiar? known as hosts, which is a vessel possession based term, sound even more familiar? maybe the 15% figure connects some dots for you now, if not it will later. The Park caters for the high paying guests, yes the elite playground, but it is not an individual park, it is this whole planet, they play in the park without fear of retaliation, because the hosts are prevented from doing harm due to? their programming, are you seeing the picture now? They went further with their amusement of taking the piss out of the people, all those movies or series just mentioned were all put out, to take the piss out of the oblivious stupefied humans, the masses thought it was for their own entertainment, wrong thinking, it was for their entertainment.

They then added another set of movies for their own hilarity and your "entertainment" called The Hunger Games, taken from the aptly named book called the Mockingjay, which tells of the mocking jay becoming a symbol of hope and rebellions, but it is far from the real meaning, and another piss take, it's real meaning and term is called the Mockingbird. So who was the original Mockingbird? this could well be a reference to Thoth and his Pleiadian crew of usurpers, as they were Avian, and have mocked our actions and thoughts ever since, the word thoughts originated from the name Thoth, our thoughts manipulated via mind control and pro pagan da, but there is a more modern method of that, it's called MK Ultra. I pondered on the term why MK, it does not stand for mark, as the description on the internet of it will not state what MK means, one has to wonder if it is M for Marduk and K for Kali Ma, or given they like to mirror things backwards, perhaps MK is KM and Kali Ma backwards? So, what was the other mind manipulation and pro pagan da program linked to the Mocking jay? all in the words for those that see, Project Mockingbird which is a CIA program that began in the early 1950s or so they say, and was tasked with manipulating news media for propaganda purposes, it also funded several student, cultural organizations and magazines as front organizations. Lets look at the description of that show, The Hunger Games trilogy takes place in an unspecified future time, in the dystopian, post-apocalyptic nation of Panem, located in North America. Yet again they mention of it as the future, that is spell casting so you don't think of the past or now, when if you look closely it has already happened. Panem derives from the Latin phrase panem et circenses, panem means bread, bread could be the loaf, but also means money, perhaps the next paragraph will make that clear of which is the correct meaning, but the other part of that phrase means circus. Oh my the scary clowns and the children's night time visitation fear program, the clown realm was after the wolf realm in your dream time state, perhaps now people will understand why they are labeled clowns, which I am glad to see that memetics reverse back on them, as it has caught on in the alt media. I am told some of the top brass don't like that term being used against them, well there are always some good people in any organization, those that are trying to help the people, that term does not apply, if your not, you deserve that title for failing the people. The country consists of a wealthy (bread) Capitol city, located in the Rocky Mountains, surrounded by twelve (originally thirteen) poorer districts ruled by the Capitol, yet again another reference to the twelve plus one we have covered in several shows, and perhaps a reference to the massively developed and populated city underneath Denver, or the several off world entities housed underneath them mountains. The word capitol derives from the Roman temple to Jupiter and subsequently Zeus, change one letter and we are at capital and we are back to money again.

Is it Capitol or the real meaning the Capital, the head city where they harvest the capital, you have to think of yourselves in terms of harvesting, why do you think Social Services is now called Human Resources? because you are the resource is why. Resource in terms of capital, resource in terms of cattle, and a cattle term stock placed upon you and traded, what we are trying to achieve here, is not resource in terms of being a commodity, but re which means regarding followed by Source, and so in regards to Source, so that is another memetic reversed back on them. The Capitol is lavishly rich and technologically advanced, but the districts are in varying states of poverty, just like Rome, City Of London and DC then, the trilogy's narrator and protagonist Katniss Everdeen, lives in District 12, the poorest region of Panem, located in the Appalachia, where people regularly die of starvation. As punishment for a past rebellion against the Capitol (called the "Dark Days"), which could well be a reference to the Nights of Svarog, in which District 13 (12+1) was supposedly destroyed, one boy and one girl from each of the twelve remaining districts, between the ages of 12 and 18, are selected by lottery to compete in an annual pageant called the Hunger Games. The Games are a televised event in which the participants, called "tributes", tributes is likely in reference to the American income tax system, you are not paying income tax, you are paying a voluntary tribute to The Crown, the children are then forced to fight to the death in a dangerous public arena, so the children who die are a tribute, which is a sacrifice to the Capitol. The winning tribute and his/her home district are then rewarded with food, supplies, and riches, the purposes of the Hunger Games are to provide entertainment for the Capitol, seducement program, now do you see the comparisons? and also to remind the districts of the Capitol's power, and lack of remorse, forgetfulness, and forgiveness for the failed rebellion of the current competitors' ancestors. District 2 was known as Masonry, well I never, and designated as the peacekeepers, which is the same name used for the UN, peacekeepers my ass, self serving jackasses at best, demonic satanic's at worst, District 1 was known as luxury, yes like their cities below our feet, full of luxury all at our expense. The series was very popular due to your programming, why do I say that? but it was a great series Thomas, yes if you don't think enough, remember the term on this show, where I said fact is fiction and fiction is fact? Lets ponder on that and think of the concept of the show, a game where they get the children to fight each other to the death, all to get food or supplies for their district, it is on a par with medals for killing people, is it not? yet too few see it for what it is. But it's only a show Thomas, yes but look around you and see, it's already happened and is happening, for the average African, Indian and some Middle Eastern children this is their reality now, America and the western world is not that far behind, as more and more fighting each other for scraps of food, money or existence, this is not fiction, that is fact. Just because you have the 5 basics in life, should not mean we have to ignore those that don't, we have ignored them is another fact, and this show and group is about alerting you to not only the cabal crimes, but the people crimes of not caring enough for others, it is not a one sided dance. But because the favorite keeps winning, which is the focus distraction aspect of the show, you forget all the children that have been killed for her to continue, whilst Katniss the pretty one, again a focused distraction for the viewer is hailed as the hero, and love won through with her partner, but since when has gaining love been achieved, by killing the competitors off? all very Greek and Roman gods stuff that to me. The question at this point is, how many of you watched the show and focused on the hero winning? and how many focused on those who died? be honest, the former for most, and that is down to the programming. Now here comes the holy shit part, with thousands of children going missing globally each year, and some of you have heard of the human hunting parties the elites do to us, for those new, yes you heard that right, human hunting parties, what if a real Hunger Games was going on under our feet, for their entertainment, with children stolen from the surface? Far fetched? you decide, the fact that it is a possibility should alarm everyone, and it is certainly not beyond the probability of these psychopaths, that put this stuff out, is it? Children killing each other off for food and supplies, ponder on that whole concept, is that normal? is that life? The gist of that series is the Elites lived a life of luxury in their capital, at our expense, and their entertainment was watching us all fight each other and kill each other off, sound familiar? if not by now, you need a reality check of where you are at, because you are still in the world of illusion and delusion with that thinking and mindset.

Then we come to the deeper levels of programming on a public based level and the Harry Potter series, that binds all children and adults into the dark arts of witchcraft and magic. So called average children are attending a witchcraft and wizardry school, that never happens in their world, those going into those schools and practices are carefully selected based on profiling, but they can't resist a stab at the so called lower people can they? the school was called Hogwarts, which means pig sty. They wound through the mystical realms and devious arts, with such enlightening titles as The Order of the Phoenix, said to stop Voldemort they re-activated The Order of the Phoenix. The Order of the Phoenix is a secret society, which works from Sirius Black's dark family home to defeat Voldemort, so they re-activated the Hebrewic Phoenix which is the Bennu bird, and also reference to the Dark Destroyer to kill the Voldemort, Voldemort is the archenemy of Harry Potter, who according to a prophecy has the power to vanquish the Dark Lord. For those that remember the FRWL 8 trilogy that last sentence will have deeper meaning now. The Dark Lord may well be Anu, this is further enhanced with Voldemort using the aptly named Draco Malfoy, who arranges transportation of Death Eaters into Hogwarts by a pair of Vanishing Cabinets. The death eaters are the Djinns, vanishing cabinets likely with mirrors are the portals, all very Alice in wonderland and the looking glass technology to me. This show is not a war of the people against the Dark, but the gods war, of controlling everything for themselves. This is what is playing out here now, with Rothschild's and Order of the Black Sun taking each other out not to help the people, but be the King of everything, remember the system always creates a counterpart, so you think by removing the one group, it's all finished, no the counterpart steps in, and it's new boss same as the old boss. We have characters like Aslan (which means lion in Turkish) is the creator of Narnia, he symbolizes Jesus Christ and the power of good it is said, but I thought Jesus was the shepherd or the lamb? a lion looking after sheep never ends too well does it? Then we have Queen Jadis, the White Witch who has ruled Narnia for 100 years, represents the power of Satan or evil in the world, the White Witch represents Satan, neither white or black witchcraft is good for this planet, but using the reverse spell casting of white witches are Satan or evil? The Urs/Rus and Aryan people had white wizards called Volkhvs, they were there as knowledge based peoples, and to defend against the dark skinned black magicians operating here back then, but they were destroyed or fled during the fall of the closest moon, and it was a while before they returned with the knowledge and the teachings. But during that time, around 40K years ago new humans were seeded here and arrived suddenly according to mainstream science opinion in the form of the yellow, red and black races to establish domain again, before the return of the White Race. People may ask why a white person or narrator of the book would do that, why make the white out to be evil, well there is a few things to that, Rowling may not be aware of The great White race as they were called, although not all in that race were actually white, so it is not a color of the skin type group. But what I suspect is, the sub gray race are using these plots to defeat the return of the White race, who will operate in the right way of working for soul development, the fallen elite white and the sub gray, like some of their dark predecessor gods, are not interested in soul development and wish to cheat, not only on soul development by using external tech also. But they also have spent hundreds of thousands of years trying to cheat death, looking for immortality potions, not so they can stay alive, because after death you are reborn anyway, but to cheat Source and carry on their harvesting programs. J. K Rowling is one of those elites, friends with the pedophile Gordon Brown and supported Obama and Hillary for the White House, she is not some ordinary book writer that got lucky, in their world to reach those levels you have to be a part of their system. Then you have the name of the next book Potter and the half blood Prince, is it a reference to the last male parent, the Dark Prince that Anna Von Reitz suggested that Kim should work with? oh my, anyway he is dead now and so that is mute. That book was followed by Deathly Hallows, which is the same as Halloween, and means all hail the dead, calling in of the deathly, which is the dead, to do the dirty deeds for the Order, yes that is what Halloween is all about, whilst you parade about in masks and decorate or eat pumpkins, the elites are doing rituals to call in the dead, and are using the children doing spell casts to do so. Hey kids this is all good harmless fun, lets call in the dead from the spirit world, lets play dark arts games, use black or white magic makes no difference, to do spell casts on people, and lets make a cleverly disguised children's book onto and into films, and promote them as something good for the world to see, create theme parks for it, with the majority people oblivious to the dark, sinister and evil intentions behind it. Are you seeing the picture now? the last two mentioned was Hunger Games and Harry Potter using the children for their entertainment, using the children to promote their programs, just like the Nazi youth and Tomorrow belongs to me, just like Greta Thunberg to promote their latest fear and capital harvesting program, remember we are the capital, a human resource, that they think is for their usage and benefits, as they see fit. Don't believe me, explain why 900K children in America go missing permanently every year. Wake up and see the fact, not the fiction, reality is all around you once you "see", and once you "see" a whole new world comes into view, and yes it's ugly, as whilst you all slept, they played their game, whilst you ignored it, they played their game, thankfully whilst many rested in their slumber, there was a few who didn't and fought back, and now it is our time to play our game, not theirs. GAMES WITHOUT FRONTIERS

But there is another element to this invoked by Crowley and all other occultist programs including witchcraft, light or dark that really makes no difference, in fact there is no difference, they have told you this is several shows Lost Girl and Once upon a time in particular, all magic comes with a price, they didn't say all black magic comes with a price did they? no all of it, which means all, and this is our problem, they are obligated to tell us what they are doing to us, and we have ignored it. New age cults, ritualistic festivals held by the elites, the Hebrew program, top clown level meetings and all meetings with the former Trustee where all held on or applied to the cycles of the moon. Religious cultures are wrapped into it, look at the Muslim crescent it is the moon with a star, is what they say now and they colored it, but the original was a black sun and the moon, Mohammad said that Yahweh the god lived where? the moon, why would the supposed god live on a bloody moon? think and think different. Yahweh and Lilith are both represented by the moon, both connected to Hebrew Annunaki and subsequently the Draco. You have a new moon and full moon at regular intervals that is essentially every 14.5 days now, it was 14 days, but the distances between Earth and the Moon have increased, so the 1/2 moon cycle is every two weeks, two weeks is a moon cycle period, and a heads up to the occult practices of the dark forces, and their programming division. The moon is a hollowed out object with a drive capacity, and was placed in geostationary orbit here a long time back by the Draco with technology, technology that is not advanced, it's ancient, it only appears advanced to us as we have been denied access to it by the control system. That technology more times than not, was not created by ET's or NT's but by organic humans based here and on other worlds, the idea that they are more advanced than us because of technology is another myth, and a re-enforcement spell cast of the limitation and reductionism program ran on us. For an example of that thinking, look no further than Kim, The Trust and the Quantum system, some clowns on this planet talk of Quantum Systems, we action it, not talk it. Why do you think a human was put in place to run a system that spans the Multiverse? not a planet, not a solar system, not a Galaxy and not just this Universe, but the Multiverse. This came after several other groups had ran it and used it for greed and power, all of them failed. These tasks and positions were denied to this type of human for a reason, not all human and humanoids are the same, but this soul/spirit combined with this vessel, is potentially the most advanced species, and we are the closest species to Source. That then created the envy and harvesting program, as the dark perpetuated everywhere and corrupted, but they cannot corrupt certain individuals, no matter how much they try. Don't for one second think the ET's are more advanced than us in a normal setting, they appear advanced because they reduced us, but also we allowed them to by being lazy. The example of being lazy can be garnered by what is in or takes place in your own kitchen, food used to be prepared by the person, it was nurtured and cared for, and that essence was then retained within the cooking and then consumed at meal times. Now everything is done by machines, blenders, choppers, dicers, pre-packaged, pre-prepared and then the worst aspect, irradiated in a microwave, and people burble on about the dangers of 5G? So in the kitchen alone, we have allowed technology to replace our own direct life force energy, to engage with the food we eat, ponder on that for a second, and now take it out of the kitchen and apply it to the rest of your interactions in life. Seeing the pattern now? the technology is not for our entertainment or convenience, it is replacing us, and pushing forward the clowns Transhumanism program, which is essentially going back a full circle, of the fake gods seeking their immortality potion, it was potion back then, now it is technology based machines. We have our own inherent technology if we work on the self, but that is too time consuming some people will say, and yet many will waste endless hours arguing over points of view on topics that don't or won't affect your lives, like theater based politics, flat earth, chemtrails, moon is natural or not or 5G, what happened with 1, 2, 3 or 4G? There is a reason why humans were sought after and used as trade to the off world, hello Swissindo, they were one of those traders, more so if those humans were white, why? because they are the most creative being in this Universe or elsewhere is why, and people can say that is a bit racist, but not when it is a fact it's not. You can choose to ignore the fact that most wars involved the white race in the last 110 years, that decimated their populous, or face facts that the white race here is being systematically decimated and reduced mentally, physically and emotionally on a massive scale. We heard on Thursday of the dark forces and magicians only attacking one color, and that was from 110K down to 13K years ago, once you "see", it is no different now, in our current time period. As an example of our capabilities, if a new planet arrived close to Earth and it was tasked to colonize it, and you placed humans on one side of that planet and the Draco on the other side, after 10-12K years humans will have advanced it, to the technological level that we have now, the Draco would reach the same stage in 120K years, so they used us to create, ponder on that, while you burble on about being little me. A natural moon would not have a rotational pattern that only shows one side of it facing the planet. Harvesting and witchcraft practices are and were also done on a moon based cycle, and then you have the ultimate in f'ery, the female menstruation cycle matches up with the moon cycles as well, here is a quote from female health site, Ovulation happens at around day 14 if you have a 28-day cycle — right in the middle of your menstrual cycle, oops. Day 14 is two weeks, which is half of the full cycle of 28 days which is two weeks later, seeing the picture now? People will ask why and how that happened in that precise cycle, well my take on it is similar to the Solomon issue of binding the demons to Earth for 3000 years, I believe the Kali Ma which is Lilith bound all females to the moon, not the Earth or Solar cycle. This in esoteric terms cuts off the solar and planetary being who were symbiotic to each other, and were there for their harmonic resonance to apply to the all, and so anti life, inorganic life flourished. This is why we had a raft of fake solar beings like Ra, Jesus (was the son not the sun) Vishnu, Krishna and several others, the sun which is male, cannot flourish without the female planetary being, and vice versa, they were in past times called The Logos, the divine wisdom manifested into the creation. Look at it in terms of 1 on 1 and with one, the logos were the one on one, and with the one, which is Source, the original solar being was replaced with fakes, and so half of the Logos fell, but what happened to the other half? This brings in the Saturn/Moon matrix into play, and the negative based frequencies that system operated for many thousands of years, until it was permanently damaged and declared not operable back in August and September 2015. The Moon fell first, the Saturn being Set followed shortly after, around the time the alt media reported the hexagon shape that appeared on the top of Saturn, that was the physical sign of the fall of that planet out of the darks hands, the main fall of the actual Matrix here was late November 2015. So we have all females here trapped in with lunar cycles, lunar which is where the term lunatic originates from, because of the negative based frequencies that applied there, but there is a much deeper issue with this than saying females are in synch and subsequently varying degrees of lunacy, although it does has an amusing value to it, from a male perspective. During these full moon cycles the crime and murder rate rises exponentially, that cannot be explained by modern analysts as they are restricted in their research, but also lack the hidden knowledge that would support rational explanations. The female has a tendency to get very tetchy, irritable and at times a bit psychotic during these cycles, this is due to the frequencies the females are bound to, via the moon, and this raises very big and deep questions that will disturb many, but it has to be said, to then correct and heal it. What if the females are bound to the moon, what are the implications of that? what are the consequences of that also? well the implications are, if you are bound to the moon, it means that the female form is not bound to the Earth, and more importantly, neither is the planetary Mother, oops. Before half of our listeners go ballistic or reject that out of hand, lets look deeper into the evidence to support that, remember this is not a male female divide and conquer narrative, if one falls, we both do. The moon they say is connected to the Earth by a magnetic pull, but is that pull magnetic or the Matrix frequency base creating the pull? For visual effects, do you remember a child's game where an adult would pick up their child by both arms, and then swing the child around in circles, whilst the adult pivoted in the same spot, but the child always faces the adult, the child does not swing on a flat plane it wobbles up and down depending on the speed of the adult spinning, this in effect is the same motion and pull the moon has on the Earth, except it should be the other way round, the moon should wobble not the Earth. How can a small moon pull on a larger planet? does Saturn 70 plus moons pull Saturn out of synch? We only have one moon imagine the wobbling over 70 would do, same with Jupiter or Mars, it makes no sense and goes against the laws of physics the mainstream puts out, as science tells us a planet pulls a moon into it's gravitational field effect, but they are essentially telling us that our moon does the opposite, what utter bollox that is. We are told if the moon is not there we would go out of synch, and would lose the ebb and flow of the tides, the tide or tides, funny word that and so lets look deeper for some possible clues. Old English tid is a "point or portion of time, due time, period, season; feast-day, canonical hour," so what we can deduce from that is, tide is time that runs for a period or is it period, as in menstrual cycle? It is a season and feast day which are the harvesting and ritual days we are all familiar with now, then in comes the church aspect and the canonical hour, which is a church appointed portion time of day for an office of devotion. From Proto-Germanic *tīdi- "division of time" (source also of Old Saxon tid, Dutch tijd, Old High German zit, German Zeit "time"), from PIE *di-ti- "division, division of time," suffixed form of root *da- "to divide." So what can we garner from the most important aspect of the relation between the moon and the Earth is, the tide, which is a division of time, runs on cycles and or seasons, the same as the moon cycles, and the last part it means to divide, divide what you may ask? the female from the planet is what, with the male solar being replaced, the female and in particular the Logos, was divided by time on a cyclical basis and bound to a false creation. Tides are also described as the rise and fall, yes that is what they represent in an overview thinking processing, those who rose and those who fell. I mentioned the German version Zeit, alt media will be familiar more with Zeitgeist which means spirit of the ages or spirit of the times, Zeit is time geist is spirit/ghost/ghoul or Djinn. Are there any visual signs of things changing for this section of the show? yes, the Earth is moving, Earth is expanding, Earth is stretching waiting for the return of something, what is wobbling now as a visual is the moon. SLEEPING SATELLITE

The largely fake scripture books told us man fell, but man is woman also in terms of an Earth based description, the term man, also describes male and female, so man is not a single archetype based statement. Lets look at the ultimate in human limitation and reduction programs shall we, known as religion, not one religion but all of them, designed to get humans to go external and not internal. The church says man fell, but if you look closer and past their statement, it was the female who fell, or in reality was taken hostage by the Dark forces and bound to the moon. The church talks of the holy trinity which is 1 on 1 and with 1, that will become clearer later as to why I said that, they state it is the father, the son and the ghost or spirit, and too few ask where is the mother or the daughter? Why would the church leave out the Mother? the mother who incubates and produces new life, they then go onto explaining the quite frankly ridiculous conspiracy theory of the immaculate conception, to describe introducing certain so called gods and or teachers that came here, it's jackassery levels of stupidity. Even in the Garden of Eden tale, it was Eve (who is Lilith) who fell, but Adam was cast out with her, like I said earlier if one falls so does the other. So the question remains why does the church leave out the female on Earth, and some will point to the fact this is a patriarch based planet as to why, which is odd when 9 of last 10 Parents were females, to those new The Parents were the 2nd level of the control system, least two levels above the Illuminati, and most leaders of the covens, the 3rd level of control system, were all females, renders that opinion mute. The reason is, the females in essence, physical and spirit based form are not ground to or of this planet is why, and explains why the female archetype is drastically out of balance here, they are lost, but on a sub conscious level you all know this, but many cannot bring it to the fore due to the trauma it causes. So, is there evidence to support the fact that females know this on a sub conscious basis level, yes, the reaction to my piece in late 2018 said it all, on Feminism, I was expecting some flak for that piece, and was delighted to be proven wrong, that piece generated more emails, private messages and chats than any other piece I have done before or since. 90% of the responses were from females, not one disagreed with the content I stated in that piece, which in essence was a critique piece on all the females, not just one or a group, and what that told me, they know deep down their form has fallen from what it was, and what it should be. If you recognize the problem, you can then provide the solution to fix it. This is why many males are embracing or over embracing their female aspect to bring it back to the balance, and why the male archetype of provider and protector has been eroded, more so in our lifetime, than previous epochs of time. A long time back most of the planetary beings in this solar system were females, select males were connected more as solar beings than planetary beings. The female planetary beings were given a choice during the intense wars in the past, stay with the planet or leave, and several of them chose to abandon their planets and went elsewhere, that in Source based terms is a sacrilege, to abandon your own creation, and this probably explains why we were told the Goddesses as we would call them now, are banned from this creation, and not allowed to help or interfere with the restoration process, that was largely caused by their ilk, it was not only females that caused the fall, it was fake male gods playing dickswinging games with the Universe. I will repeat again for hard of hearing, this is not a male or female finger pointing blame exercise, if one falls regardless of which one, we both fall, it's that simple, male gods and some solar beings were no better, they were seduced by the power factor and control systems, the fall out of which, we are still experiencing and enduring to this day. It is a fact that females, were not the only ones affected by the moon cycles either, dismissed as myth in many books and shows, that was lost and rendered into fiction, as they wrote their story not ours, but the other being affected by it was the wolf, and subsequently the wolf man. Yes, the wolf man is real, in the past, although a variant of them still roams our planet and known as the Sasquatch, and is still spoken of in tribal people circles of the animal totem, humans and animals in the past had a far greater connection than today. Today it seems is all about an engineered creation that was not inherent to this planet, but was introduced here to change things not for the betterment, but the opposite, that is the domesticated cat, there is a reason why it is said the dog is mans best friend, it used to be the wolf, until that species fell and ended up as the first realm in the astral layer trap. There were several animal totems not just the wolf, horses, dragons, eagles, the proper cat which are the large ones with round pupils not lizard eyes, bats, bears and some others, and I will touch on them more soon, but what is an animal totem and what is or was it for? A totem is a spirit being, sacred object, or symbol of a tribe, clan, family or individual, some Native American tribe's tradition states that each person is connected with up to nine different animals, that will accompany him or her through life, acting as guides. Different animal guides, also called spirit guides and/or power animals, come in and out of our lives depending on the direction that we are headed, and the tasks that need to be completed along our journey. These tribe's beliefs further explain that a totem animal is one that is with you for life, both in the physical and spiritual world. Though people may identify with different animal guides throughout their lifetimes, it is this one totem animal that acts as the main guardian spirit, with this one animal, a connection is shared, either through an interest in the animal, characteristics, dreams, or other interactions. Essentially these animals were our spirit guides, and can also be described in the past, in a modern day term, the higher self. This was all before the collapse of certain species, and the fake constructed world of the astral realm was created, not only to enhance the fall of man, but other species here as well. The wolf fell, the trolls fell, the trolls conned or controlled, the fae or fairies in particular fell, some of the trees fell, the cat fell into spell casts and why elites all have them on their family badges, the dragons fell spectacularly and they were replaced with hybrid creations operating for and by the dark forces. So why did so many of the creational based beings fall? They all fell for the seducement of power, greed and control by using magic, which is a fake technology, instead of working on themselves and using their abilities, this is why I tell you all, once you gain your abilities, maximum personal responsibility is required, or you will lose them far quicker than you gained them, and subsequently fall dramatically. So why do so few have these abilities you may ask, it's simple too few work on themselves and too few exhibit personal responsibility, seeking others be it governments, gods or ET's to save them is why, and that is a fact, no matter how harsh it sounds. A line used in the series Lost girl which if you get past the overtly sexual elements in that show, tells you all about the dark side of magic, even if you are a light warrior, and how all the old spirit guides fell, that line said "the gods introduced magic to enable the destruction of humans" oops. There was another species in the past that humans were directly connected to and also interbred with, the elves, their fall was steep also, and morphed into the dark elves, of which the epitome is, the entity known as Batman. For some who can bilocate and engage in certain missions, you may have encountered that entity for real. It appears in many situations whereby certain targeted people are raped, male and female, tortured and abused, that entity was using cloaking technology so that even some who could "see" in those realms, were blind to what was taking place, that is now known as mirror tech, and once that illusion was shattered, those problems that affected those people largely went away. The Astral rape although experienced in the physical via the cords, is a very real event, but society or quack doctors or educated psychologists, most of which don't know their ass from their elbows, will tell you that you are nuts and need a mental evaluation, the irony is it is they who require mental evaluation, and in some cases whether they are human or not. Their ridiculous diagnosis tells the patient it requires mind altering and brain controlling drugs, or be institutionalized for your audacity to report the truth, which their tiny minds can't comprehend, but then again the medical system is controlled by them. Yes astral rape is real, ask anyone who had one on one sessions with Simon Parkes and were raped, at least 6 that I know of, not whilst he was physically there, but his bilocation abilities, and yes he blamed Anu his alleged father, but that was a cop out. I know his frequency and he knows mine, which is why after initially agreeing to come on our show, he declined, his abilities may work on many, but not me. These type of rapes also took place in the ET group behind the Cosmic Voice show also, Sunfire was regularly raped, Chloe also, plus four other females and one male, whilst the female leader of that group ignored the problem, others chose to fix it, and the main protagonist was the Dark Elf, known as Batman. Batman is not a super hero at all, the bat was an animal totem in the past that fell, and there is a reason New York is called Gotham, and a reason why New York is a cesspool of dark, satanic and anti human programs, there is a reason that is the place for the often repeated born in and born to, just connect the dots. At this point we come to a conundrum, was it the chicken or the egg? who fell first, and what caused the runaway train of separation of mother, spirit, animals and totems, the case can be argued, it is a combination of things as such magic and seducement being part of it, before I give my answer I will remind people of a piece I did in February 2018. Where I asked the question of why every species that comes to this planet becomes corrupted, damaged or evil, and I asked the question the conundrum poses, is something wrong with the planet and subsequently Mother Earth? some didn't like that question or suggestion being posed, which is understandable, as it is a traumatic realization if it is true. I also posed the question of grounding with bare feet if the earth is corrupted, again that wasn't popular, largely due to the new age program, which regular listeners to this show, will now realize was another seducement and distraction program, for those who moved away from the church. Why did they all fall? because they were looking for their Mother is why, the Earth lost their mother and was bound to the Moon along with all the other females, the caring nurturing aspect was gone and replaced with dog eat dog nasty competitive streaks which is the worst aspects of the male, and evolved into both archetypes. This is what we are correcting now, and it is about restoring the balance, it is not a coincidence that the two people involved at the top of the Trust is a male and female, both of which have the opposite archetypes in balance within the one vessel, that balance of male and female within the one vessel, has to be spread far and wide on this planet to not only enable healing, but end the dark and the imbalance of the planet and it's living beings. Ending the dualistic archetype of patriarchy and matriarchy, neither of which worked in the past, and won't in the future either, for those pushing for matriarchy now, we had it in the past and was quite possibly the worst epoch of time ever on this planet, so quit that divisive shit, we are 1 on 1 and with the 1. One on one is us, one is not defined as an individual male or female but a combined one on one, the with the 1 has long been forgotten on this planet, which is all down to one program called religion, that one is Source. When one on one combine, the trinity kicks in and Source is restored, or returned as an integral part of your life, the duality then becomes the triality, and the real heart center and the love frequency kicks in. Men, unless you embrace your female aspect, you will never gain the heart center, yes society predictably labels anything that is beneficial into demeaning terms, a typical tactic to pull you back into the old system, and you will be called wuss, sissy, hen pecked or weak, all re-enforced by parents from a young age who repeat memes all passed down by the programmers of the system. Real men don't cry they would say, wrong real mean do cry and it is not sissy, girly or some other demeaning name either, it is actually a real strength, not a weakness. Men are told to be tough, don't cry and exhibit manly strengths and have six packs, people with external body strengths via muscles and toning, belies a lack of strength and subsequent weakness from within, it is another mask, toughness real toughness is internal fortitude, not external fortitude. WE MOVE AS ONE

So back to the two weeks we started with and Kim asking what is this two weeks shit, so I checked the lunar cycles to see if the 2 weeks from then fitted in, with another of their lunar cycles of full or new moon, anyway it didn't, which is a pointer for us, and a sign of progression. Upon checking the lunar cycles I then spotted something else on the lunar graphic called lunation, that started with 1200, 1201, 1202 and went up to 1212, then everything opened up and like I was viewing a giant library and all the books in one go, all at the same time. Why would it start with 1200? and not 1201 for the 12 months of the year? because the 1200 is the hidden one, remember I have been pondering on what is 12+1 for many years, until I made sense with it, well this is another example of that. 13 moon cycles, but one is hidden with 00, there are 12+1 months one is hidden, there are 12+1 zodiacs and one is hidden, there are 12+1 Earth chakras but the one is hidden, which is in Russia, coincidence? I think not, but these missing elements, but they are not missing to those of the dark intent, and if you are moon worshipping you are operating with dark intent, whether knowingly or not, full confirmation of that will be garnered in the rest of this piece. The 12 with 00 could also be a pointer to Rahu and Ketu I am pondering, but that is for another day. A popular new age and alt media program is astrology, there is always some special alignment with Jupiter, Pluto etc and mentions of retrogrades, which means going backwards, or looping, sound familiar with the 13k year loop program? The fact that so many in new age post a popular meme of it thinking it is unity, it is not, it is a closed loop system, the mobius loop is the figure 8 on it's side, it is a closed system that goes retrograde, a real system would have an open gate at the end for expansion, so the 8 should be a 9, which is the number of completion, one could also call it ascension. So many galaxies viewed online or through telescopes are closed circles including our own, which means they all fell into the loop, those that haven't or are opening which ours is, will have a circle and a spiral arm going away from the circle, just like the figure 9. A closed loop is a stagnation program, because if you leave anything in the same system over time it degrades or using their terms retrogrades. Personally for me astrology doesn't work because there is a key component missing, there is a missing constellation and month, so the 13 is condensed into 12 and so the whole topic then becomes distorted, how can you make alignments that contains 13 components but is only calculated and condensed into the 12? it distorts everything and makes all alignments, only with Ur anus only if you ask me. This is why all those planetary alignments and predictions posed on the alt media don't work, it can't possibly work with a component missing, the hidden aspect is always the key, it's like the cabal the hand you do see is a problem, but it is not THE problem, that is the hidden hand. The number zero is a more recent creation, it was not part of the original numbers, it couldn't be because zero is nothing and has an inorganic numerical value in essence, 1 and forward is an organic number and has a numerical value. Zero is a description of the singularity, the void, the nothingness or dark matter, but I am going to state here and now there is no such thing as dark matter, it has and contains nothing they say, because dark cannot create because it contains nothing to be creative with, so it can only destroy, only the light can create matter, like Source. This is what those jackasses in The Order of the Black Sun don't get, you were all created by the light, as only the light can create, dark twist an existing creation into a devolution spiral, closed loops and anti life and subsequently anti matter, which is why the anti matter particle is destructive, it turns everything into nothing, zero. In a toroidal system, which is shaped like the egg timer, in the center there is the singularity, also called the void where nothing exists, but if light creates, it pulls from and or enters into the void, and uses their abilities to manifest, something out of nothing can then be produced. This happens in the birth of a child, two creational beings combine and create a new living creation, and this is where it gets heavy or heavier into life and creation, a woman can be seen as the zero as that is the same shape as the vagina, and man the figure one and also the same genital shape as the number one, the one enters the zero and creates another 0 or 1, but this then begs the great questions is, how can the zero create? how can the nothing which is inorganic create something which is organic? Lets go round the conundrum a bit shall we, we are told man fell, but what if it was the woman who fell, of which there are a few examples of the human females mixing with the gods, the goddesses being banned from this creation altogether according to the Council, for the almighty mess they made here in the past, this is not necessarily a male or female issue in the comparative sense, because if one falls, both do, they are symbiotic, despite what the satanic geneticists say, we need each other for wholeness. But there is another example of how the female fell mentioned earlier, which is why this multi faceted piece will eventually all tie in, the moon bounding of females into the moon cycle, energies and frequencies, which was then enhanced by the Saturn/Moon matrix frequency based program, and created lunatics, it tells you what it is, it's all in the word luna means moon, tic means parasite, so the moon and those attached or bound to it, becomes parasitic, a virus that spreads amongst the populous. Which explains why during the female period they tend to go a bit squirrely, to put it mildly, why? because on a frequency based level all females here, were not connected or grounded to Mother Earth, but were some time in the past bound to the inorganic creation of the moon. The Earth is an organic creation which has numerical value of one, the moon is inorganic and a false creation and so has a numerical value of 0, the moon is feminine based, and so subsequently it was the female who fell from creation or the organic model, far more so on a psychological, frequency and esoteric level, than a physical based level, although it has bled through into physical as my Feminist piece attested to. In the past there were androgynous beings, which is a combined male and female in the same vessel, which is now symbolic of a modern being achieving masculine and feminine balance within, not external. Over the past 30-40 years we have spoken of the rapid decline of western women in particular, away from the feminine archetype ideals, into many of the worst forms of the masculine archetype, to counter that imbalance it has caused many of the masculine type to over compensate on their feminine aspects, which is why so many men have lost their protector or warrior aspects. So given there was a single being with both male and female traits, and that was divided into separate components, originally the creation aspects of making a new baby was a 1 to 1 creation, not the 1-0 creation as described earlier. Right lets go deeper again 0 and 1 are the binary figures used for the inorganic creation known as the computer, which is a machine and inorganic which means it is a 0, it requires the 1 the organic to input into it, to bring it to life, or something resembling life, but it's not life is it, it is not consciousness and wasn't created by the organic 1 on 1, but 1 on 0, which is how the birth cycle went after females were bound to the inorganic moon. Binaries which means duo, and also to bind, they bound the duo to the half and half creational aspect of inorganic and organic life, and to remove that bind and duo, it requires it to go back to the original which was trinary, which is 1 on 1 and with 1, male and female organic creations mixing with Source organic creator of all life, we are all part of the same number, as we are all part of Source. In the Matrix it mentions of becoming the One, and because our world is based in a comparative mindset not cooperative mindset, our minds think Neo is the one, as in the one and the only, but to get an understanding of this piece you have to ponder on Neo not being the single digit number, but the one being the all. The all that is connected to the one, we are all the one, and to make that connection make a little more sense, what happens when a new creation is born, it is called a newborn child and subsequently called neo natal, so when you are born, you are the neo, now you just have to start acting like it, you are the one and you are the all. When you do the sexual act that leads to the new creation, it is started by the one, which is the male, the female then combines it with herself and makes it grow, but how, is what most don't get or think deep enough on. The first sign of a new creation starts with a single cell, some politicians, military and agency goons never go beyond that single cell it seems, but I digress, the cell then divides into two, but for a brief moment in time, the single cell actually disappears completely, it vanishes into thin air, that is a scientific fact, except science cannot explain it, except to call it an anomaly, well it's not an anomaly at all. So where does the cell go if it vanishes? essentially a different time and space, Levashov stated it was another dimension, possibly the 4th, but I believe in the here and now, that cell goes back to Source to provide the spark of creation, which then returns as two cells in the physical, it then repeats two go missing and 4 return, 4 go missing and 8 return. That I believe is the natural organic creation, the 1 and the 1 with the 1, the original trinity and trinary creation of life, which the church and their off world satanic counterparts took away, now this about to go deeper again. So, with 1 on 1 with the 1 being the original creation, where does the 0 and 1 fit in, the answer is it didn't, as binary is an, in part, inorganic false creation, binary is the machine remember, so what does all this mean? What it means is the spark of creation was done or provided by something else, with man or woman fallen the 0 replaced the creational aspect of creating life, so if Source was the one, what is the zero?

the void of the dark, the nothingness and the dark matter of creation, and here is something to ponder on, what if the cells didn't disappear to the Source, but to the void? What if as the females who are bound to that inorganic moon, is actually where the cells disappeared to? absorbing the machine like frequencies of the Saturn/Moon Matrix based in dark energies. What are the implications of that taking place? well, life would be half organic and half inorganic, and would make the organic appear inorganic machine like, almost robotic would it not? A creational being that is now open to being programmed by the machine, like the inorganic element of the zero matter. COLLECTIVE SOUL - SHINE

I guess at this point heads are exploding a bit, the possibilities, the probabilities and a wells the fargo style thinking, and that is understandable and something I pondered heavily on writing this, where to go with this and how to conclude this piece. So here goes lets go deeper again, we have heard much about bots, synths and clones, which are all inorganic creations, and then we have the smoky beings, known as djinns which are also inorganic and the host possession capabilities those entities have, due to abuse of the vessel via magic, excess alcohol, excessive or darker aspects of sexual practices, spiritual practices abuse like peyote or ayahuasca, and also drug abuse, either pharmaceutical, hard or soft drugs. Which is described in some cases as being recreational drugs, but you miss the word play on that, they are not re-creational, replaced re with wreck, and they wreck creational beings drugs, are you getting the picture now? This is why they deleted the phonetics style word teachings, some will say re and creational and some will pronounce rec reational, words are vibrations, they have frequencies, which is the frequency memory based codes that are easier to recognize, if you use phonetics some of the children will get the hidden meanings and frequencies, so now they tell you to repeat their phonetic they want you to hear and repeat. Drugs wreck creational beings oh my, still want to light up spliffs? be my guest I am not here to tell you what to do, I am here to teach the hidden dangers of it, your own free will decides which path you take, but enlightenment is not achieved by drugs, far from it, it wrecks creational beings. Djinnns were used by the dark in a bad spiral down also into the abyss, they have become the harvesting center for extinct beings, all of which was caused by the fallen and dark forces, and the re-incarnation loop trap also, their memory wipe technology, wiped the people into bots like a hard drive, and returned them in new bodies to continue the harvesting. Eventually if you keep doing that to organic beings, after each successive memory wipe and returned to lower vibrational time/space and also lower vibrational families, that species erodes away, it is a devolution. Remember the old cassette recorders and cassettes, if you keep copying on the same tape, the recording becomes less and less clear, it degenerates, bit like the Bubba group really, the same happened to humans here over many thousands of years, the organic was mutating into the inorganic, by mimicking the machine, essentially many became bots. This is where the 15% comes in again, 15% can't be programmed, these are the higher based souls who came to rescue this planet and it's living creatures, this also explains why too few people will awaken, they are too damaged and too far into the inorganic bot frequency of the machine. Yes, you can give them lots of evidence, facts or proof, they won't listen, they can listen but they won't hear, they have eyes but they don't see, again it is evidence of a programmed entity, that only has a small RAM space, and very few bites of data all recorded for them to repeat back, anything outside of their programmed package is rejected. What happens if you bombard them with information, it then goes system overload and they shut down on you, all very like a computer is it not? Djinnns were created by Source as a teaching course for new or developing beings, they operated for the light in a dark capacity, the dark teaches us our best lessons, they always did, but those lessons went unheeded as you could gain shiny things, trinkets, titles and pieces of paper or gold by playing with them. The object was not to play with them, but observe them and learn the lessons, most immersed themselves in the lesson and forgot there was a lesson, as they essentially became and morphed into the zero, and subsequently inorganic creation, that copies the machine. Our education, governments, media and in particular the Church all tells you to copy and repeat the narrative, never question it, and just like the so called chosen ones operating under the banner of being Jewish, don't ever question anything we do or have done, follow the program we have given you and question nothing, that is a program of stagnation and anti life. Life is always about questioning, without it you will never learn, and will remain at child levels of learning, and this is why our species is a child based Universal species, we have not reached adulthood in sufficient numbers, that is a fact whether people like that statement or not. So how was this all achieved? Dark force elements over several millions of years removed us from the time and space we are in, one of the seven primary matters, that has the ability and capacity to create organic life, the G matter was removed, our GNA was removed, don't go looking for references to GNA on the internet, scientists will not know it either, you will not find it anywhere outside of this host or this show. Organic life cannot prevail anywhere in space, the 7 key components of a region of space have to be prevalent, for life to then form, if the G matter is removed from that region of space, or the planetary system is moved which maybe the key pointer, it then enables the possibility of creating inorganic life, and subsequently the first stage to cutting organic beings, within that region of space off directly from Source. You see inorganic life and machines do not need Source as their guide and frequency connection, they operate outside of source and become their own separate creation, but they need organic beings to input and feed off, and keep their false creation going, this is why the Astral realm was created, the astral realm is essentially a giant farm of cannibals, we are and in some cases were that food source. These fake shamans wont tell you that, lets all visit to cannibal farm where you will be fed off, by extinct and predator harvesting beings, that is where most humans go when doing ayahuasca and peyote. More so if you are of the white race, there is a reason it affects the white race more than the color races, it is genetic memory, and why they react violently sick to that potion, it is a low vibrational plant, that brings not enlightenment, but endarkenment. This then leads to the next stage, the fall of the organic beings into the machine, they then replaced Source with false gods and Lords, and run a program on the organic and inorganic beings, to solidify the internal disconnect and seek outside of themselves, then the false creation gods has hold of you, that program is religion. This then brought in Matrix programs, humans being placed in sleeping pods oblivious they are or were in them, whilst they reset everything in accordance with inorganic life, you have all heard of the dream within the dream, that is describing the sleeping pods. Then the holographic overlay which was not a real holograph, but the appearance of such, you can view it yourselves by drawing an equal wave across the page, starting with the wave going up from bottom left of the page, then at the same height as the upwave on the first wave, on the left hand of the page and draw a wave going down and if drawn correctly, you will have a series of wave intersections, turn your page 90 degrees and you will see a series of loops or figure 8's, which is the mobius loop I spoke of earlier. Essentially they copied the same frequency one was organic and one was inorganic and overlaid it, if you overlay a photograph you end up with a holograph, it is not real, it is illusion, but the perception in 3d terms is it is real, because your eyes can see it, but deeper thinking on it then reveals the illusion, seeing is not always believing as they say. With man fallen here, in came the new god or gods like the Abraxans, a humanoid being that are far worse than the Draco will ever be, they used, abused and lied to the Draco, for evidence of that watch Jupiter Ascending, it's all there including the essence harvesting program done by the reptiles. The Draco attempted to create us in their image, they did not create us at all, they wanted to recreate us after the deluge, man in their image, their creation Adam and Eve as it is known, failed. Moses, Noah and most other biblical figures were their creations or species, they all carried the mark of the nephilim, which was scaly skin not all over but in patches, like the Melchizedeks, another of their creations, so why was it only in part? because they were part human and part reptile is why. Pondering on this led me to another stunning revelation that has yet to be confirmed, and here it is, what if Draco didn't make us, but humans made them? oops So, how would that take place? long before humans were here, and also all the time humans have been here, the raptor beings were always prevalent, even after the event of the dinosaurs being wiped out, that rocking throwing dinosaur event was done by the Abraxans and some elements of the Alduzanni, who are also humanoid. That event then wiped out the food source of the original Draco, who where here at that time, most of which were not the royal Draco because they have wings, look at the Sumerian hieroglyphs for evidence of them, these entities have been mistaken as angels, they were far from it, from my own personal experience. What if there was a Draco 2.0 who were created in our image, with a mixture of raptor which existed here before, and also had the DNA and genetics to stay here, not all species have those genetics, and so not all species can come or be here, particularly on the surface. Below our feet there is 4 and 5D and different compositions of air to breathe, not all species can breathe oxygen, high doses of it is a death sentence for some of them beings, which is why they built special underground bases with vents pumping the air they can breathe. So, the Raptor DNA and human DNA genetics, either this human version or the Abraxans and then created the hybrid version of Draco, that could operate in and on Earth? but they always had to be covered as they all carry in varying degrees the scaly skin. This then explains the variants in not only human genetics, but also the reptile genetics of which the domesticated cats contains the latter, how else can you explain why RH- human mothers require an injection to prevent the mother destroying her own baby? Why would a mothers body attack their own creation? it makes no sense, but the underlying questions to that conundrum is, how did the doctors know that was a fact? given statistical analysis is more based in the last 25-30 years, and also how did they know what injection to give the mother to prevent it? There is no evidence of previous discovery of the RH- baby rejection or the trials of differing drugs to combat it, someone or something knew and provided the information to counteract it, those discoveries and subsequent counteractions to it, takes several decades of analysis and statistical data collection, but with this issue the problem was known and the antidote delivered almost instantaneously, does that make any sense?

The battle for this planet rages on between the light and the dark, the URS and the Kosheys, and the last real attempt to reclaim it was around 5000K years ago, which ended with the real biblical exodus not out of Egypt, but into Egypt of the exiled Kali Ma peoples and the sub gray race now known as Jews, but as Jesus said, "I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich) and the slander of those, who say that they are Jews and are not, but they are a synagogue of Satan", this sub gray race is who the books was referencing or writing on behalf of, is what Jesus was referring to. Having covered who are the URS in early FRWL series and again on Thursday, we need not in this show cover again who they are, but perhaps people need to know who or what were the races here, before we proceed what was undertaken here. The races were put in colors, which is not to be taken in today's modern racial terms, of which all get far too easily offended by everything, but these were the races and the colors were predominantly their skin tones, but not 100% so. The Great Race – white; Great Dragon – yellow; Fiery Snake – red; both Dragon and the Serpent races were the former controllers of what is now known as The Trust, both of them failed, and it now is in the hands of The Rus and the Great Race. Gloomy Heathland – black; these are the Kali Ma peoples, Pekelny World – gray. and this is the sub gray race we speak of, sub in this case does not mean lesser although one could argue that point, sub means hybrid in relation to that group. Lets look closely at the word Pekelny shall we, Pekelny derives from the Slav word peklo, which means hell, it also in other languages means pitch, tar and so the term pitch black is derived from it, the URS described the skin color of pitch black in reference to the Kali Ma peoples. Pekel ny sounds interesting when split that way, it becomes more interesting is that Pekel is a Jewish name, Pekel NY born in and born to again oh my - pekell means hell NY is New York, New York is hell cohen cidence?

A new plan was formulated outside of here, and those people were then seeded here, to hopefully awaken to their part of the plan and then carry it out, those new but very old souls started coming in here around late 1950-1960 onward give or take a couple of years. This was counteracted by Dark forces and their tech, and many of those early souls were placed into abusive and destructive families, designed to hamper their progress and not conducive to their awakening, the plans in case people ask were not in written or reading form, they were contained within their own DNA, which you have to switch on, or get a certain show host to trigger it. This was the re-introduction of higher soul developed organic beings, brought in for two reasons, prevent the Dark Forces destroying this world completely before 2012, then following the end of their Looking Glass technology in the same year, whereby they lost the advantage of seeing ahead of time, then removing their ancient techs like the AI, the Matrix, Saturn/Moon based frequencies, re-incarnation loop tech, mobius loop traps and the memory wipe tech, and various other things during this time period and lifetime. WHAT'S THIS LIFE FOR

The introduction of the organic souls in here, also brought about the rise in technology of the clones to counteract the plan of the Light forces, that became largely a side issue as more prevalent things were required. Each successive decade since 1960 brought in improved conditions for the organic souls, but also brought in a heightened increase in countermeasures, to block those from awakening and remembering their role in the plan. The 1960's brought into new age program, free love which is not free at all and the devastating drug program, 1970's just enhanced it and 1980's saw a marked increase in music frequencies being destroyed, to again tip the balance in their favor. 1990's brought in the tech to further take away the souls from their mission, and distraction based tech and items were introduced, which included fear programs called news no longer at 6 and 10pm, but all day every day, in an attempt to control the narrative. From 2000 onwards souls started coming in with more developed soul growth, and also extra strands of DNA switched on, designed to expand out across the globe, and interact on a sub - conscious level with all organic human souls, they were curtailed again with the think tank created dis ease called ADHD. There is no such thing as ADHD, they are diagnosing higher end children with it, to stifle their abilities and frequencies they resonate at, with yet again drugs, like Ritalin which is a poison and also brain inhibitor, it is also a common factor of school shootings as well, most who did that were on Ritalin, so clearly it has a psychotic effect, those with higher levels psychosis are rendered obsolete in developing on a soul or DNA level. Because of the looking glass tech, they started the ADHD program and Ritalin in early 1980's, by 1985 there were 500K children diagnosed with it, 14 years later in 1999 it was 7M. In America alone there was 6.1M children in 2016 diagnosed with it, why America targeted more than other countries, because it is the final battle field in this war of light and dark. A 43% increase since 2003, 11% of all American children are now diagnosed with this fake dis ease, 400k of which are under the age of 5. Male children are 350% more likely to be diagnosed with it than females, which is suggestive of the earlier piece that they already had control of the females with the moon binding. To prepare more for this increase and with the year 2000 looming, the dark forces think tanks went into over drive, with mental health hospitals and Institutes going up, and staffed faster than normal hospitals, Langley predictable applied most of the grants and funding for this, and then the seducement kicked in, you are not going to like this. In 1991, eligibility rules for federal education grants were changed to provide schools with, $400 in annual grant money for each child the school diagnosed with ADHD. That same year the Department of Education, which was created in part by the Military as covered in FRWL 7, formally recognized ADHD as a handicap, and directed all state education officers to establish procedures to screen and identify ADHD children, and provide them with special education and psychological services, as a result, the number of ADD/ADHD cases soared again. With more than half of those 7,000,000 children also prescribed Ritalin, the stock-market value of its manufacturer, the Swiss pharmaceutical company Novartis, has also soared, ah the so called neutral Swiss again, neutral my arse, Rothschild's psychotic playground is what it is. Now that company and others are working to introduce a host of new drugs into the classroom, including Prozac and Luvox, which has just been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for pediatric use, FDA like WHO are both rogue bodies, but the industry is looking to even greater growth, as pre-school toddlers are being targeted by the pill brigade. The use of psychotropic drugs, like anti-depressants and stimulants, in 2-to-4-year olds doubled or even tripled between 1991 and 1995, the federal trough has been very good to the pharmaceutical industry, as well. Ritalin is known to cause cardiac arrhythmia, tachy-cardia and hypertension, which is ironic as hypertension is one the original symptoms is it not? but it also like cocaine, causes the brain to shrink. So if ADHD is a fake dis ease what are the causes of the symptoms and hyperactivity these children display? science, doctors or psychologists will not tell you this as A: they haven't got a clue or B: they are aware but like the monetary kickbacks or C: they are aware and are part of the cover up. The symptoms are because the frequency here is so low in comparison from where they came, they have great difficulty adjusting to the frequency here which is stifling, mainly because of the background noise here, as they came from a place with harmonic frequencies and relaxation based background noise. What those children experience is, the equivalent of a teacher scratching her nails down a chalkboard all day every day, it's irritating and goes right through you, and this is why they are noisy to drown out that sound, and run wild and become erratic to keep busy to avoid the background noise. Those children go quiet when around higher vibrational people and energies, they go from boisterous to complete calm, I have witnessed it myself when helping a few families with that fake dis ease, once they reach puberty it becomes easier for them to manage the symptoms, and then one just hopes they have not been too damaged by the medications. Ritalin is damaging these children and the dark forces know too well what they are doing, if you know someone with ADHD and they are medicated, please stop them medicating that child, medicating is poisoning the child and destroying the extra developed child's brain.

Why did these more developed souls come in here from late 50's 1960's onwards? It was part of a mission that was to save the people in here and also destroy the system, dark forces and their technology to boot. This could not be achieved from the outside of here, and could only be done from the inside, previous external fixing made things worse it seems, in essence and in an amusing sense of irony, these developed souls entered here like a virus and attacked the host from within. It became clear this mission was not about saving the all, and turned into a rescue mission and then into a salvage mission, as the full truth of what took place here became all too clear, and of great disappointment, but despite that, they pushed on. The 15% mentioned earlier? these are your 15% organic souls, organic souls will not be tricked by their zeros and ones game, we are 1 on 1 and with 1, that is surrounded by programmed bots called Smiths, engaging them becomes an exercise in low vibration, they are machines, you cannot reason with machines, recognizing that fact is a key to understanding what is and has gone on here. They are called Smiths is it is the most common Western name, then they tell you to keep in touch with another of the common names Jones, all keep up with the Jones's now, err that'll be no. Tech of theirs rendered obsolete has made a big difference here, more than can be realized, even by most of our listeners, it laid the path for where we are today, like I said Event 1 was, we are all still alive, an achievement in and of itself, but without MSM telling you that, it becomes a mute point for many. What other reasons did they come here for? to raise the frequency, and be ready for the wave and return of Source based energies, without all the previous work done, those energies would not have been as beneficial, it would have overwhelmed people and sent them spiraling into chaos. Some will argue that has taken place when you look all around you, and yes that is true, our members were warned of it's coming and many of you took it on board, or you would all be like those around you as well. The path had to be cleared for the return of the G cloud and G matter, many of you have been experiencing this yourselves since we played the note on a show 3 years back now, that cloud is of ultimate benefit to those who did their work and you are organic, those not will suffer, the frequency is too high for them to handle, but their struggle and suffering will be short. I did a riddle recently and tested my own theory that the inorganic veil was collapsing, and could I witness where the veil is at, yes I did it it's at 9k feet and falling, but as above, so below and so is rising at 9k below our feet also. As it pushes up and presses down, this will cause a compression point, a bulge of the planet if you will, and increase stress on the plates, mountains and volcanoes, this is the expansion the planet is experiencing and potentially your GPS may not be as accurate as you thought. The planet is shifting as many airports have found out, runways built and pointed to magnetic north are now off center due to this shift. So, we had organic higher developed souls pave the way and prepare for the full return of organic life here, and the planets restoration to organic life, that will have consequences for the inorganic's that are left here, phasing and shifting will increase. DISAPPEAR

I recently said a statement to one of our members, which is an odd statement until you ponder on it, I said, the message was in the words, not the destination, and the follow up was, the deeper you go, the further you travel. So what does all that mean? well it can mean several things, but lets ponder on a few, words have frequencies and you have to combine them to get the message across, you will not arrive at your destination without combining the frequencies, those that make statements without compiling the required frequencies are at the destination, but they have no idea how they got there or why, they are lost at sea. The deeper you go the further you travel, is about you, you go deeper into you and you will travel further than you can imagine, but you have to combine the frequencies and grasp them, then retain them like a muscle memory to arrive at your destination. This is your journey, it is not mine or anyone else's, but your journey only. The journey was long, it was arduous, brutal and traumatic as we traveled through the crossroads, pondered the forked path, went down the left path and fell to walk the right path, we became aware of the hidden side street cul de sacs that looped back to the left path, and it is a testimony to how far many of us have come, in what is a blink of an eye in terms of time. The key to it all, is not you fighting the system in a direct way, society teaches you to do that, you fight the self to change the system, mastery of the self weakens the system, the system relies on you to feed it, why keep doing that? The alt media talks of the zero point energy, and we need machines to create and harvest it, typical limitation program, but there is no zero, until you create it, zero is just a point of reference of inorganic value, until you create something with it, and then it has an organic numerical value, dark can't do that, only the light. Like an artist with a blank piece of paper, people will say it is just a blank piece of paper, like they say there is nothing in the zero point or the singularity, why is there nothing there? because it was waiting for your input, you are that artist, you are that creator, you are that energy, and the zero energy is a dormant space and canvass for you to produce from. Remember the term out of the nothing came the all, the all is you and the nothing is your creative playground, get and be creative. For Source Sakes. CAN YOU TAKE ME HIGHER
