

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-03-26

Generals around the world not just American as they all work together, American, Russian, Chinese on Saturday 21st declared martial law between them, with no apparent plan to enforce it or act upon it. They were all reminded that they would not be in control of it. What kind of martial law? in America it would have meant UN and FEMA goons arresting and shooting Americans is what.

The Blackrock group are putting heat on government they raised a total of $62B between them to buy up America and sell to Chinese consortium not the Government for $2T, what is the figure of the stimulus bill? $2T seeing the picture now?

Tuesday Democrats tried to renew contract for fed...failed. Trying to create the digital dollar, that failed and now marshal plan in the stimulus bill. The $500B within that bill was for the Fed to bail out the banks and liquidate things.

Kim arranged for a deal with the US Govt for $2.5T for a range of things that we have covered in previous shows, and told Mr. Trump how to deliver it. Funds were transferred plus the 2% Trust fee separate, that fee is paid by the Trust for administrative costs, and we waited and waited and the hacking blocks went on and so funds were not released and were all pulled back.

There is no stimulus plan without The Trust, there is no virus relief checks, there is no Universal Basic packages, all of the X billions or trillions proposals on tv or media are all total bs, no matter who says it. none, zip nada once you all grasp and understand that as a fact, then we can quit the bs and the fear based nonsense.

Word on the back channels is they are planning to close all banks in 10 days time to rectify the changes made to the front side of the system and put it back to them controlling it again, further proof of what we have already achieved. The time estimate for banks being closed is 5 weeks, or early May, probably leading up to another of their fake ceremonies or moon based cycles.

Drake outed himself with that mass arrest and martial law plan, like Keenan did when he read out that speech in May 2016, Keenans speech was an Asian Faction document that was sent to American govt as a threat a few weeks earlier, and I had read it 5/6 weeks previous to Keenan. The only groups who are pushing for martial law is Rothschild's and Black Sun groups, but we counteracted that as Kim is the top rank of security clearance and so would be in charge of martial law, and we would have won then. They both pulled back when they found out about Kim as lead role, neither Trump or govt people want martial law only clowns and their fake white hats. Drake being aware of that plan which is now confirmed as a Black Sun group, aligned to his links to OTO and Hermetic Golden Dawn groups, confirms he is in league with the Black Sun organization. Black Sun wants martial law, arrests, banks to go down, markets to go down the last 3 all sounds so nice and great to a largely naive alt media outside of this show, but they will replace it not for the people, but a worse version than currently. The only group at the top level fighting for humanity is Kim, The Trust and I, that is it, no White Hats, No Alliance, No SSP, no mass meditation groups, No 144K Yahweh followers either all are fake supporting cast for the dark elements, in a groundhog day style stage play. I wish people would listen more and come to their own conclusions. Alt media is now either corrupt and or dysfunctional at 99% now and I hope people are starting to see it for themselves.

Alt media is becoming the intel why? because as I have been saying since 2014 it is corrupt, people no different on all levels, outside of this group I have not observed, witnessed or been told of one revolutionary style act of going against the system, all complied with the fake virus narrative, whether it is an exercise or not, the people complied. No plans, a load of flip flopping show hosts, fear, fear and more fear, and lets all stay in our homes and keep the 6 foot social distancing rules, lets be nice puppets social distancing is social engineering of the public, if it works once they will repeat it with greater measures, do not overlook the fact they stated 6 feet distance, same distance as people are buried, it is metaphorical and all in your face. Alt media idiots are running around thinking it is 2014 again and many complied, dont believe me? OPPT was mentioned, Drake mass arrests, NESARA happening, GESARA happening, 800 numbers happening, Universal Basic Income happening, do you know what that is really for? stay stupid, do nothing and be a nice slave program, whilst we replace you with robots, once completed, we get deleted - fact, mass meditations are kumbaya style events that never fixed anything in the 60's and won't now, they are encoded with misdirect as no one understands the seeding within that practice, the virus bs has all the hallmark of the fears surrounding Jade Helm, did anyone notice that? no too busy focusing on bs by and large, even some within our own group. Do you want to know why they have closed down industry and put more people into debt, poverty and strife? so they keep hold of all of the remaining funds, work it out. They have just cancelled thousands of peoples jobs and we complied? for a virus that has killed 10500 which is less than the small town I live in, 1 town out of 33k in America alone, in of 1 state of 50, in one country of 209, on one continent of 7 for a virus that only kills pre conditioned people, if we are to believe their official version, yet where is their proof, does anyone ask? no they only ask me or Kim for proof, virus my arse, they are the fucking virus do you not see that yet? We have allowed them to take our jobs, lifestyles and freedoms away in giant ponzi scheme of bs'ery Half of those companies are not going to recover, you do realize that don't you. All the gains made by the people and they and alt media all jumped to their tune and we are set back again years in terms of energy vibration. Not one alt media has spoken of the energy vibration aspect, what THI and other people and groups were doing was combining their psi fields into a greater cause, the people have allowed them to take that off them, and reduce them to babbling, flip flopping, doubting, fear based and lost children running around with zero direction, motivation and drive. This whole exercise has proven people will by and large rely on their govt to tell them what to do, when and why, and the evidence of the so called awake groups shows me, they are no different in overview. Alt media is supposed to stand against tyranny, injustice and overarching bureaucracy and with one move the majority outside of this group all jumped like puppets bar a handful of real revolutionaries, can you not see they are marching us into the pit. Only this group has said do not comply, do the conga and stick social distancing up their ass, if we are going to achieve what we set out to do, more have to show some real backbone, real patriots, real militia, real awake people all sacrificing for the greater good, not jumping out at the first opportunity and playing hide and seek on social media, yes you Randy Maugans, weak flip flopping is not the order of the day, it requires many leaders to stand up and fight, it requires a focus, a direction, a commitment and an inner strength, putting yourself on the line for the greater good, in a fight that is not just for you and your family now, but for the future of our whole species. Keep this piece in context and combine it with the information that follows, these are judgement days and you have to decide for yourselves what your and our path is, sovereignty or perpetual slavery. Choose wisely.
