CLOSE ENCOUNTERS - 2001 SPACE ODYSSEY Having gone through Part 1 covering the background, organization, who is who, which groups were created directly out of these events, we continue in Part 2 with some of the interactions between the Majestic 12 investigators and the EBE (extra terrestrial biological entity) who was under their custodianship for the best part of twelve months from 1948 to 1949. By August 1949, the EBE was returned to his people in an arranged meeting and left this Earth with some questions answered, but a whole lot more unanswered. This exchange that follows tell us a lot about us, that has very revealing answers in relation to the people and this planet. It is sad and damaging in equal measure that this exchange was not released in full to the public, before this document was released in very small circles back in 2016-2017 time, and even to this day, 72 years after the events, the public by and large remains ignorant that A: we are not alone and B: aliens of many varieties exist and C: they have visited us here regularly over 10's of thousands of years and in some cases longer. The cover up of it all and the reasons why, will be revealed in this show in greater depth near the end of this fully transcribed official document in my summary, it goes way deeper than most people think. It is the public's chance to take a peak into much of this world, the majority of which is hidden from us all, it will elate many particularly in the UFO and Alternative media circles, it will raise concerns to some and it will bother, scare and create fear for others. People always ask for proof, well this is it and is 100% bonafide. This is your disclosure in a nutshell and will be accompanied by background and knowledge from myself and a music extravaganza to accompany and support the narrative, so get your popcorn read and yourself in balance as the magical carpet ride of disclosure sails around the world, in a real and meaningful manner. I can think of no better song to launch us into this and a personal favorite of mine and a poignant reminder and memory of my then 3 year old grandchild said to me one day, when are me and you going back to the stars grandad? STARGAZER

These are the condensed conversations with the Aztec New Mexico Extraterrestrial Biological entities from April 1948 to March 1949. The following conversations were held over an eleven month interval between various investigators, labeled as INT: and the Aztec EBE. They are reduced from many hours of recorded debriefing, and are included here to give the reader a degree of insight into the character and the personality of the subject. These statements are not intended to provide complete answers to questions. All transcripts of the debriefing and the original tape recordings of the same, are available through special request, with the proper clearance from the CIA office of counterintelligence or the MAJICOPS, with code "DIGGER COMMAND", and reference "PROJECT AQUARIUS". These maybe secured through the EXCOMCONNET liaison office at the Pentagon's Joint Strategic Objectives Staff Division, in the National Defense sections. The irony of calling it Project Aquarius which was later rolled out into another diversion program created by Blavatsky, Steiner, Crowley and others, called the New Age. A replacement religion all carefully crafted into spirituality, all of which I expose in from Russia with Love Part 8a through 8c, the real term for that program if truth be told is New World Age religion, one world religion as formulated within the UN documents surrounding Agenda 21 or 30.

This next portion covers the portions of interactions between Majestic 12 and the EBE that was covered in this Ultra Top Secret report back in January of 1989, and taken from interactions from 1948 and 1949. INT: What shall we call you, what is your name in your native language? EBE: Oh! know even that isn't easy for me, because you will not get the phonetic pronunciations correct without practice. I am not able to write it down for you, because we do not use an alphabetic language that I could translate to English easily. INT: Why don't you try it out on us anyway? EBE: Of course, Sethious or Setimus or Seck the mous will do, that is the first of 4 names I am known by, in our written language. This would be shown by a single graphic symbol that would explain my entire lineage. INT: Why is your language so different from ours? EBE: Why is yours so different from the Egyptian of thirty centuries ago? Forgive me, but that is not a simple problem. The group I belong to, gave up any identification with any one planet or it's culture, before your people learned to make fire. There were once thousands of languages, both oral and written in our many civilizations. It become important to use symbols to represent whole words, and even concepts that all of us held in common. Soon your culture will do the same with public signboards at first. Travel and intercommunications of many peoples will always cause this to happen. (sadly those symbols were adapted and the cabal and their secret agencies and societies used it to full effect against us, but now many are unraveling them and it will be part of their downfall) INT: Why are you here? EBE: Specifically to bring you these children, and we like trees. INT: Would you mind expanding on that? EBE: Certainly in what direction? You see, we would hate to see you blow up such a pretty little planet, to ruin so many nice trees (remember this was at the time and with the back drop of dropping and testing atomic weapons) If you only knew how hard it is to make a tree from scratch. People are easy, they follow naturally, but not without trees, of course. Green things must be respected above all else except children, and are very much alike. INT: What are the intentions of your government by sending you here? Who sent you and why? If this isn't your first time, evidence by your familiarity with English, why haven't there been any official contacts made? EBE: (sigh) in reverse order, What? and be strung up from one of those beautiful trees? Why? because you sent us an invitation we could not resist, for our own curiosity, as well as safety. We sent ourselves, or I volunteered - take your pick. We have no government, we outlawed it, or rather we outgrew it. I suppose you can not outlaw a thing without laws, and those require governments, do they not? INT: I don't understand (all too predictable they don't understand, none critical or future thinking was a problem within those circles as far back as 1947 it seems) EBE: I know that, try laughing. You will not understand, but you will feel better about your ignorance. INT: But that is not good enough, make me understand EBE: It will have to suffice, one can not teach until a student wants to learn, how good do you want us to be? I will not harm you. We will not harm you or interfere anymore than you want us to. We are only here to offer what you asked for in a manner we know you will accept, and you did ask us to come and visit. INT: When? Who sent for you? Who invited you? EBE: Almost fifty of your years ago, you sent us signals, you were looking for us, and you scared us with a signal you should not have been capable of sending. So we answered, but you didn't understand our answer then, just as you don't now. We do our best to please others, when you didn't respond to our message to you, and you did not come for a visit, we felt that we really ought to stop by and see how you were doing. It has been a long time, and it was the neighborly thing to do of course, besides it was right on our way to another destination, your world I mean. INT: You've been here before? EBE: I know, we were surprised that you had forgotten us. INT: I don't see how we could forget you, are you serious? EBE: very seldom, but yes your culture which now dominates this civilization, did forget us. Actually, your people seem to have undergone a period of history in which you were so afraid of old truths, that you erased them in favor of religious fantasy. (and there you have it in a nutshell, and what this show has stated all along about religion, it was a tool and an experiment that worked against us. The afraid of old truths rings a bell also, humanity chose to not remember at a reset in the past and essentially took the city of light pills, mentioned in the series The 100. Humanity of the past did not want to remember the past wars and traumas and chose to forget or have them erased, and this has had a devastating effect on our development, that continues to this day. People on this planet live for the lie, they won't face or can't handle the truth by and large, even when it hits them in the face, many vehemently defend the lie, that is child like behavior in overview, and we have to learn to becomes adults and accept reality.) Some of your people remembered us orally in their legends, such as those who speak the Kahuall, Narragansect or Athepassan dialects. They lived where we last visited, but the high point of their cultures is long passed. (Most of those languages were spoken in Alaska, NW Canada, and around the four corners area of SW America, in particular the Ute lands.) (The line just stated above will ring a massive alarm bell for this planet, and something I have warned about in several shows, and something those people who follow our show have great difficulty with. Actually, your people seem to have undergone a period of history in which you were so afraid of old truths, that you erased them in favor of religious fantasy. Like I have repeatedly said, that program has caused humans so much damage over time, and denied us important knowledge, including the knowledge of other species from other planets, in case the humans work out, their gods in their books, were ET's all along.) INT: I have never heard of them EBE: It is not surprising, your history shows that the conqueror seldom preserves any history of their victims. I speak of the natives in this land mass, those called Indians, mostly on your Eastern and Southern borders, and in the ribbon of land that connects yours to the southern continent. Navaho's, Aztecs, Incas, The Oimec's and Toltec cultures These were all greater than your own civilization at a time when you were burning witches and killing their cats, which brought a plague that killed millions of your ancestors. Of course, you drove them mad and destroyed them with venereal diseases and smallpox, those you didn't slaughter for their gold. INT: Oh EBE: And your social pundits speculate and joke about why we don't land in front of your nations capitol building and shake hands? We are different, not insane. INT: But we have changed, western civilization is now the leader in this world for freedom and humanity. (oh dear, do they seriously believe that fantasy act) EBE: Two things, first we believe that, or we wouldn't be here now. Also, tell that to the millions of Hebrews your western civilization has destroyed in the past decade, or the millions of Negro families whose sons died to stop the madman Hitler, but who does not have plumbing in their homes as we speak. Yes, you make progress, that is hopeful for you, but emotionally you are very different from us. Not primitive, that label would be pure egotism on our parts, but you are very different and frightening to us. We are trying to learn to overcome those differences, before your runaway technology thrusts you upon us without choice. INT: We have no space travel capability, how could we harm you? EBE: In our terms, you are very close to that point. Do you have small children? Yes? Well, they will grow up in a world where space travel is taken for granted, and before they make you a grandfather, earthmen will be in space. INT: All right, so you have been visiting us for some time, I have no choice but to accept that, even though I'd love some proof. (ah the proof, proof is only garnered by those who wish to see it, many don't and that is a fact. Where they believe man only started 6000 years ago because the church told you so, but then believe hunter gathers built the pyramids within 500 years of life starting, and they call us conspiracy theorists?) But you still didn't tell me who sent you the message from Earth, that brought you here. EBE: Funny you should connect those two subjects, If you dig in a place I will show to you on any world map, you will find your proof. Unfortunately, I am now in the wrong country for this, but others of my people will instruct the proper government to dig there, if you don't mind. You see, in a remote part of the nation you call Yugoslavia, we visited and helped the people there to build a very advance culture over seven thousand years ago, it will be found. (or they can send in the Us Military and NATO and bomb all the evidence to smithereens, like they did in Iraq, Afghanistan and Syria, all to protect the church narrative) But there is a beautiful mystery in the fact that, the person who sent us your first message forty nine years ago in 1899, did come from this nation originally. His transmission was sent from near here however, in the state you call Colorado. INT: Can you tell us his name? Are there any other proofs of your earlier visits? EBE: Thousands of proofs, if you look around. The scientist I spoke of was an electrical researcher named Nikola Tesla. You are old enough to have heard of him, when he was still alive. You know, I just thought of a very good puzzle for someone of you to solve, on an island you named the Isle of Pines in your Pacific Ocean, you will find what is left of a concrete landing platform, we built there one hundred and fifteen centuries ago, 11500 year ago. You cannot miss finding that, since the footings we put down still cover many acres. Look for those if you would like to, no culture on your planet could have built them at that time. It would be fun for me if you ever locate them, because my great grandfather helped to pour the mortar for them. (There is the evidence that many of our oldest structures were built by extra terrestrials not humans per se, the biggest lie in that field is in Egypt) INT: What? How long do your people live? EBE: Somewhat too long, I think at times, we have built up our age somewhat. It would vary, but I was alive when your whole continent was practically a question mark on the sea charts. INT: What about these babies we found with you? Are they human? What are we supposed to do with them? EBE: Raise them of course, as I would have done, certainly they are human, perhaps moreso depending on whose definition we use. You are too far away from understanding the whole science of bio-engineering yet for this to be sensible, but just accept that we have sown the seeds of a rich harvest for your culture, and this will continue. They are only children, but raise them well please, because the care of children is one of the few things we do not laugh about. (That last statement has so many connotations it would boggle the mind, the very fact they are bringing babies here to be brought up should send DNA and biologists running for cover. The missing link of man, has never been found, because as this show has stated many here in the past and perhaps now, it did not come from here. There is evidence that on certain levels are corroborated that the yellow, red and black races arrived here 40K years ago, some suggest a seeding program, others that I am aware of were refugees from various wars of the past, some of which were from Tiamat. Evidence in the Rus Vedic texts suggests the white race were here 640K years ago. How can science carry on lying to the people and making up the ridiculous conspiracy theory of humanity all started from two people, Adam and Eve. The real Eve was Lilith, she who stole children and his linked to the moon, she was half human and half snake, and so a chimera, also known as the Kali Ma, the dark mother. If we are to believe the official narrative, for a start that would make us all a product of incest, and the key factor is we would all have the same blood group, shared DNA and all be the same color skin, this is not the case and makes mockery of the official stance of those science groups. One only has to look with an open mind as to why a Rhesus Neg mother would reject her own child in the womb, how did science work that out so quickly? and how did they know what to put into the injection to stop the mother from doing so? Statistical analysis was not like the endless figures we get now, or the accessible databases, most records were kept on cards and had to be sorted through over many years to determine a pattern, and even then the average injection or vaccines has to be found, with testing that takes over a decade, and yet this was made available in the 1960's, clearly an external input was made into this, and not from here also. Another aspect of this seeding babies here is the psychological damage done to that child, who or where are that child's parents? where did they come from? where is home? Why do so many in our own group feel like they don't belong here or never came from here? that is also represented in many other groups and peoples around the world. Why put them people through that level of trauma? To those that do remember, where is their help with this matter? who do you speak to? the psychologist? as that is a one way trip to the nut house, due to their sheer ignorance of these wider matters, and the complicity of the governments and agency clowns to cover it up. Those people who remember fragments or otherwise, to them this lifetime is a jail sentence, and equivalent to a transgendered person knowing they are in the wrong body. Pardon the pun, but everything appears alien to them, people who refuse to believe what they see, because the government told them it is all a lie. The question remains is, who made the government or the church the bastions of truth and proof? because neither of them are and both are in on it for their own agendas, the control and the abuse of the people, no matter which government or indeed which church, all are lying to us and have done since the day you were born or brought here) INT: If you say so, but such a trip has no purpose in our way of seeing things. EBE:

Of course not, that is why we do what we do. Listen now, because this could go on forever if you don't. We are at home wherever we park our craft, it is huge by any standards you could apply, we are concerned because this area of space, is one we cross regularly as a simple matter of course, like your campers who vacation at the same place every year. Suddenly, we find our camping site threatened by bears, but bears are protected, you are not suppose to hurt them, so you must tame them or give up the whole vacation. Do you see that although you are a long way from travel to other stars, by our standards, you will be over running the whole area by the next time our children pass by here. Do you see why it is vital, unless you destroy yourselves first, for us to tame you now, before you come to us? Would you let savage headhunters roam the streets of a city, without sending them to school first? (This is where I have an issue that still rankles today in relation to the Universal Council, they talk about us destroying ourselves, but it was their element of off world beings who by and large gave humans the tech and capabilities to destroy this planet in the first place. It was their ilk who have destroyed this planet several times in the past, with their star wars battles, it was they who destroyed the two moons we had in the sky previously, they who introduce the Saturn/Moon Matrix and also the frankly ridiculous experiment known as CERN. It was they who have engaged the greed, egotistical and arrogant entities that operate this planet called governments, military and agencies, and by and large ignored all dialogue with the average human, unless they were of use, generally for scientific purposes like extracting DNA, blood, organs and our babies. It was they who traded us as pieces of meat to fight their wars and they who used us for food. So a little bit of balance was and is required here, when discussing who is to blame, blaming humans for everything is the remit of the Draco, ain't that right Shane?) We cannot interfere with you anymore than you could interfere with bears in your parks. Some day we would rather you join us, visited our worlds where we do make camp, and joined us on our long voyage of discovery, or not. It is your destiny as long as you do not try and alter ours. Try and grow into our perspective, and all the illogic you question, will seem very reasonable, it is a matter of scale. Centuries instead of decades, some day you will be like us and you will see. Some new, short lived species will think you are a crazy metaphysical paradox too, and you will have to learn to treat them gently as children, without letting your egos get in the way. INT: But with your science, you could make any world your own personal paradise, why live in space ships? EBE: Yes, and with our weapons we could take what we want as well, but why have one world when you can see them all? You all covet land, a very old idea and only natural when the supply is limited. Just try to accept we are in paradise when we are seeing something new. Our god is change and our religion is understanding.

Searching for truth is our greatest social challenge and purpose. When you build up your age, this will become as clear to you as why you must breathe air. (when humanity grasps those last few lines we will be on our way to real progression, denied to us by fake gods and their progression blocking program called religion) INT: It sounds like yours is the ideal perfect world EBE: No, when you have more years, filling them profitably is a real problem, and the trouble with being a loving species, is that you want to prove it by making more of your kind with a partner of love. Of course this must be closely regulated in a culture such as ours, and so relationships of an intimate nature are difficult to leave to one's heart. INT: You speak of the heart being the seat of emotions, this is a concept we use on Earth, but we know it to be a sort of romantic fiction. Why does an advanced race like yours maintain such a notion? (the heart is romantic fiction indeed, what a bunch of jackasses, and humanity wonders why we are not progressing? with jackasses like these taking charge and making decisions for us, we will never progress beyond children. That has to stop and why we need to build The Peoples Club for and by the people, so we have a voice and say, because we are the voice is why.) THE VOICE

EBE: Well, I used that particular expression for your benefit, but why do you object to romance? Your species is driven by little else except romantic vision, why not yours as well? Certainly our way of life must seem romantic to you? it does to us. We write poems and express ourselves with works of art just as you do. Many of the greatest works of construction on your world were inspired by a joyful effort of our people and yours, in your distant past. We leave these wherever we go, and you romantic creatures have tried for many generations to explain why such huge monuments to human engineering, were ever built in the first place. Why, they were built to express the joy of living, of course! And the great sense of satisfaction our people have gotten from working side by side with yours, has been one of our biggest joys in life. That is another reason for our being here. Surely even a small child can understand such joy? INT: You keep talking about a message for us, Can you define that a little more (the message is stop being children and grow up, yet 72 years later we still see no evidence of that in their circles) EBE: We simply are, we have no deeper purpose than to be. We do not wish direct contact with your people, you would reject us in your present frame of mind. So we seek to be accepted at the lowest level possible, and hence the broadest one possible. (never a true word spoken in jest, we seek to be accepted at the lowest level possible, what he is referring to is the government, the lowest level possible, and yet we the people honor and obey them like some demi gods of the past. Yes he is right, many of our peoples would reject them due to the fear based programs ran on radio, television and movies) That is a cultural myth, we seek to be the next Santa Claus to put it bluntly. This must come to your people, from your people. The understanding will be given you by the widened perceptive skills of these children we are bringing you. (So what he is saying here is and a confirmation, they started bringing in here children with extra strands of DNA and higher soul development to teach the world how to progress. And what did the jackasses do, declared them all ADHD a fictional disorder and poisoned them with their pills and vaccines or declared them insane and or targeted them with their MK Ultra experiments, and league with off world entities.) For your sakes, this must not come from political or religious leaders. (Exactly my point, we must build and provide an alternatives to those harvesters of life force energy, both of them like he said represent the lowest level possible.) It must flow evenly throughout all common cultures of the Earth. (and that is where the TPC can come in, a large body of people spread globally operating in need not greed, caring and sharing, cooperative that operates in peace, when can all play a role in building this for the future) The message is not that we are here, but that each of you can control where you are going, be like us, or different, as you choose. But you choose, not your political leaders who believe that only a tiny percent of the elites can rule wisely over their masses, or those who spread fear of death in order to enrich their lives through religion. (another confirmation right there, " those who spread fear of death in order to enrich their lives through religion", does that sound remotely like a program we should be following? The evidence against that organization stacks up by the day, and yet people who live in fear and lies wish to continue to propagate it? It has brought us nothing but illusion, death and trauma, because deep inside you all lies all your answers, it was never external of you, just like the real god, Source.) Knowledge is only good when spread like seeds from which wisdom might grow, and faith has purpose of, when it is not created of fear. With faith in the wisdom of truth, and in each other, your world will come to ours soon enough. Our hope is to be able to receive you as friends and equals when you arrive. That is our message, you must do the work for yourselves, If you do, you will keep all the rewards. (That last message is again a confirmation of this show, stop following the fear, whether connected to religion or otherwise, we must do the work that can be a heads up to shadow and inner work, but also applies to ending the savior program, the savior was always us, nothing more and nothing less, time to take responsibility me thinks.)

UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECTS DOCUMENT PREPARED FOR ENTRY LEVEL MAJESTIC 12 In any attempt to properly assess the situation as it relates to the issue of national security, or the risk of cultural upheaval, it is important to take full advantage of hindsight and historical perspective. It is both an interesting footnote in history, and a key point of reference that, the human race itself is directly responsible for it's being contacted in this century, by beings from other worlds. Through dialogs with representatives of these alien pilots of the flying disc craft, we have learned that our own scientific curiosity led to the visitations, which have been ongoing throughout this century. In 1899, the Yugoslavia electrical scientist, Nikola Tesla, most noted for his introduction of alternating current to electrical power transmissions, and for a laboratory device named after him, the Tesla Coil, embarked on a fortes of researches that have made this the saucer century. Tesla had long proposed that it was possible to directly broadcast pure electrical energies at a distance, without loss of power and without wires. By 1899, and with the aid of government and scientific backing, Tesla had chose a site near Colorado Springs, Colorado to conduct a massive and never repeated experiment. Nikola Tesla's purpose was to gather the Earth's own magnetic field, and to use the Earth as a huge transmitter to send signals to outer space, in an attempt to contact whoever might be living there. Tesla had no idea that the specific type of power he had generated was coursing through space and caused great havoc many light years away. Modern science has all but forgotten Tesla's work. (No modern science did not forget Tesla's work at all, but was hidden away and repressed by the same controlling psychopaths that created this document in the first place. The Ford Foundation who threatened Carnegie University of withdrawing their funding due to, "creating too many Tesla's" and was so successful in dumbing down scientists, the system of control rolled it out into all American schools, with devastating effect. So much so that, not only do America rely on imported goods heavily, but also all highly imported skillsets as well, because we produce little to none of our own, and the ones that do end up in agency based programs.) The sorts of energies and magnetic waves he was working with, were never fully defined or explained, and almost all of his original designs are lost or were destroyed by their creator in his later years. (yet more lies and misdirection, those that know, know exactly where they are, and who minds them) But it is now obvious that this single action by a scientific outlaw generating serious concerns among the other intelligences in the near reaches of our galaxy. Although others have attempted to use radio waves to broadcast messages into outer space, none used the energies that Tesla did. We have now determined by discussion with the extraterrestrials who have contacted this government since 1947, that the type of power Tesla used is a very important form of energy. It has apparently been largely overlooked by modern electrical engineers and physicists, although certain information gathered by the CIA, indicates a strong program of research of this type inside the Soviet Union. (Another example of the fear porn based rhetoric coming out of Langley and the CIA, ooh the Russians may have it, neglecting to tell the public they have been working directly hand in hand with the KGB 1 & 2 since 1940's minimum) According to the alien sources we have debriefed, Tesla's work was a technical fluke, at least one hundred years ahead of it's time. (So if it was a technical fluke, it wasn't and was a hundred years ahead of time, why hasn't that technology been developed publically since, of what is now 121 years further on?) Development of these energy fields will only logically occur after we have fully understood laser beam devices. (they knew this in the 1940's) The extraterrestrials have reportedly been visiting and regularly monitoring, the progress of life on Earth for thousands of our years, and they were very concerned about this odd signal we sent coursing through space. Among other things, it seems that the energy waves can disturb the process of biology, alter weather patterns and damage ozone levels in whatever planetary atmosphere they might encounter. (so it damages ozone levels, interesting given the vast ozone holes and we were all going to die again back in the 1980's and 1990's, who caused that? EBE's sending messages to us? if so where are they? Lets not forget most of the ozone holes on this planet was caused by NASA) Evidently, Tesla was sending huge amounts of an unknown form of energy into space along with his intended signals, but was unable to detect these due to the fact that instruments for their measurement, did not and do not now exist. The extraterrestrial intelligence attempted to respond to his transmissions in a form of binary code, that they routinely use for long range communications (evidently these energies act instantly at a distance and are not limited to the speed of light) and ask that he cease sending. Of course, Tesla had no way of understanding the message he received back from space. Fortunately, the anger of the local residents at the side effects of his research, forced him to shut down the Colorado Springs experiments in the same year he began them. (that is a lie also, he was shut down by the controlling agents and abetted by the born in and born to people, bankers and the OSS style groups.) This, then, was the actual start of the so called flying saucer age in our times. (again factually incorrect there have been reports of these craft in every millenia going back tens of thousands of years) As it become clear that our people were on the verge of an explosion of technical progress, the extraterrestrial intelligence decided on a long term program of carefully calculated and seemingly random contact, with the eventual goal of raising our awareness of our place in the galactic community. With the advent of the Atomic Age, this program was escalated to include eventual diplomatic contact with many of Earth's government. (yes because nuclear and hydrogen based weapons frequencies manifests in their world's as well is why, not to mention how many differing species were below the main US testing centers as well) The same approach of staging apparent accidental contact, was chosen for it's low psychological impact on the human race. (yes it had a low impact on the many, but high impact on many other peoples lives, and had a major psychological effect on those who controlled the information, details and evidence of such, they all went psychotic) This was the situation in the case of the United States of America, in reference to the Roswell and Aztec New Mexico incidents. The problem with direct contact was stated early in our relationship by one of the EBE's who said, " right now there are people on this planet who do not know that your moon circles your world, or how long it takes your world to orbit your star, the sun. I am not speaking of a small number, but perhaps as many as half of the global population. We have been mistaken for being gods or devils in your past, and this sort of slow education is best. (that is more lies, slow education is one thing, we have done drip fed disclosure with our show. as that is the best way to get people to process and heal with it, but these clowns did zero disclosure and associated anyone with knowledge or information on this subject, as an enemy of state or deemed to have mental health issues, that is not slow disclosure in anyone's book) As a cultural myth, we stand the best chance of acceptance by the masses of your citizens. There are now hundreds of compiled studies of the EBE's, their worlds and their objectives. In several cases volunteers of the armed forces have participated in diplomatic and cultural exchanges, during the 1970's and 1980's and have visited some of the EBE's worlds. (some of those exchanges did not go very well for Earth Humans at all, and neglects the fact that many who where sent to their worlds with no choice in the matter, and some never returned) GLOW

The following is a short assessment of the situation as we now understand it. There are four basic types of EBE's so far confirmed, and they are listed here in descending order of their influence on our studies. Earth like humanoids: There are several variations more or less like ourselves. The majority of these are friendly and are the bulk of our EBE contacts. Most have a high degree of psychic ability and all use science and engineering of an advanced nature. Small humanoids or Greys: The Greys, so called for the hue of skin possessed by most of this type, are a sort of drone. They are not unlike the worker ants or bees, they are a type of genetic clone, incapable of sexual reproduction. With little or no independent will, they are mostly under the psychic control of the Earth like humanoids, who raise them like pets or a kind of slave. A detailed explanation of this cultural oddity and it's role in the form of space travel, these EBE's employ is addressed elsewhere in this briefing. Assuming the Greys are under benign control, they are harmless. Non Humanoid EBE's: These are in several classes and come from worlds where dominant morphology took a different evolutionary course. Many of these are dangerous, not for organized hostile intentions, but because such creatures do not hold human life as sacred. To them, we are animals despite our intelligence, a few are friendly because their cultures forbids all acts against living creatures. Thus far, contact has been minimal with only a handful of unfortunate encounters. (If you believe that you will believe anything) Transmorphic Entities: Of all the forms of EBE studied so far by Operation Majestic, these are the most difficult to understand, or even to give a description of. Essentially, such entities are not beings or creatures, these entities exist in some other dimension or plane, which is to say not in our space or time. They do not use devices to travel in space, only once has a member of an MJ-12 contact team been privileged to be present when introduced by an Earth like EBE to a Transmorphic Entity. In essence these entities are composed of pure mind energy. They are not unlike ghostly spirits, and seem to be only curious about our Universe. They are said by other EBE's to be capable of taking on any physical form that channel their energy into as matter. The principle means of travel used by the humanoid EBE is of a mechanical nature, and involves very large craft that cannot land on a planet. These employ the forms of energy discovered accidentally by Nikola Tesla (it wasn't accidental) to cause themselves to be thrust from or pulled towards the stars, they wish to visit. Some alteration or control of the passage of time on board the in-transit craft is used as well. Since the huge interstellar craft cannot approach the powerful gravity and magnetic fields of the stars, from which they drew their power, they are placed into a parking orbit, far outside the solar system of any star they approach. This maybe millions of miles from the world the EBE's wish to visit. (so that ends the many ridiculous claims on blogs and YT videos of so called mothercrafts and biospheres, it is not possible.) Similar craft, often not always disc shaped, are used to travel the distance remaining. These drew their power and propel themselves by use of electrogravity. This is a means of balancing a gravity wave against an electromagnetic wave, in a manner that generates a third kind of wave, similar to which powers their larger vessels. This journey between worlds takes time in the small craft, and the humanoid EBE's are not lessened during this state of suspended animation, so they are still able to control their craft. Towards that end and to provide for some external control over unforeseeable circumstances while frozen, the humanoid EBE's developed a host/parasite culture thousands of years ago with the small grey EBE's. Since then, these grey's have become an extension of their controller's senses to such a degree, that most humanoid EBE's rely heavily on their use at all times. They are not unlike the symbiotic empathy between a pack of hunting dogs or a team of horses, and their Earthly masters, simply like tools or partners in work, explained one EBE. During the current wave of interest in our planet by the EBE's, there have been three interstellar craft, or mother ships stationed outside our solar system. These have been rotated at 22 year intervals, since the early 1930's. (which means another rotation has recently happened or one coming up soon) During a contact debriefing in 1964, an EBE explained that this was no hardship for them. Our genetic science is about where yours will be in another millenia or two, although the basic grasp of engineering the DNA, will come within another 80 years or so, if you survive as a species. Our friends will still be living when we return home, and most of us bring our families with us, so we can watch our children mature. Their family structure is very different from ours, and often includes several models of each set of parents, specifically engineered to produce offspring of certain mental character, adopted to different physical forms needed in their culture. All of these live together as a family unit, often as many as would be in a small village or neighborhood in our civilization. (sounds like a TPC village) Onboard the mother ship almost every race and culture is represented, there is no recognizable form of government behind the actions of these representatives from many worlds. It has been explained that as any species evolves physically, it evolves psychically or spiritually. (something cruelly denied to us by some off world entities, humans and all religious denominations and their programs) The outcome of this process is that any form of political organizing, including the politics of religious structure, becomes a personal moral transgression of higher shame, to any who practice such pursuits, than any good that could come from them. Although this attitude makes any discussion of their faiths or beliefs nearly impossible, it has become very clear that most races of interstellar travel support the principles of self determination. In short that there is no empires of conquerors threatening our planet, (oh dear if only they knew what was suppose to transpire by 2012) A little cross cultural nudge, like urging a small child to walk towards you, is ok. But these guys wouldn't let Darth Vader sweep their streets, as a member of a Majestic diplomatic task group put it after several years of analysis of contacts. Many volumes could be written and have been on the details of this ongoing contact process. Much of the contact of individual citizens by these EBE's seems absurd on the surface, and we remain largely incapable of controlling such contact. (there is that fear based narrative again indicative of agency, military and the top order people, control. Why do they feel the need to control anything, put simply it is done so out of fear, as only the weak and fearful control others) The pattern developing however, seems to indicate that a course of action is not directly needed, little threat to national security has occurred. (there is no such thing as national security in this country, it is a fake program like The Patriot Act.) In fact, the EBE's have informed us that we are a sort of protectorate, not unlike a wildlife preserve in their eyes. (that statement is so wrong on many levels, protectorate suggests a nurturing element, but they have been far from nurturing in overview. They have hunted us, abused us, cheated us, presented themselves as gods, consumed us on an energy and physical level, and whilst that doesn't apply to all races and species, the fact they tar us all with the same brush, in overview of visitations here and the actions towards Humans, we have to look upon it the same way they do to us. A wildlife preserve is something that animals roam free and are occasionally culled, sounds familiar to me in overview, with an added twist of being in a zoo, whereby many souls and spirits were trapped here like in a cage, so zoo is a better fit than wildlife reserve.) They will not protect us from ourselves, but are not interested in making us become like them either. There do appear to be forces in outer space that are hostile in the sense, that they would exploit us, although not conquer us. And we have been informed that a large part of the alien presence on Earth is to insulate us from doing any damage to the alien's own culture, until we are more morally evolved as a species. With these things in mind we arrive at a statement of official position. (and quite how do they expect our species to be morally evolved by denying us the real knowledge? one has to ask that. If they have self appointed themselves and they are running the show, what is or where is their long term plan for humanity? the real answer is they don't have one except their own greed and control based agendas. So if you want to know why humanity has stalled, these people in the CIA and other subsidiaries are your answer to that question, all of those groups should be arrested and their groups disbanded for mass treason against the people.)

STATEMENT OF POSITION In so far as not threat, either implied nor expressed and either of a military, civil or societal nature, has been forwarded by the visitation of the association of visiting extraterrestrials against the governments and the people of the United States of America, and in so far as great and many cultural and technical advances have been derived by such exchange. (none of which was passed onto the general public) We hereby grant full, complete diplomatic status and recognition to these individuals from beyond our world. (how interesting, yet you can't grant a home and peace to a fleeing refugees? adds whole new meaning to the term illegal alien, just who's planet is this?) Furthermore, let it be known that we seek to provide shelter, comfort and aid in all their peaceful endeavors, so far as these are respective of the laws of our land and the right to self determination and free will expressed in our national constitution. (again something not afforded to we the people) And until such time as the objectives or methods of either parties in this agreement shall deem otherwise, this bond between our peoples shall remain in effect. The preceding diplomatic treaty was drafted by the directorate of the MAJESTIC 12 operation and a joint committee of extra terrestrial visitors, representatives of the US Diplomatic Corps as a statement of intent. It was ratified and signed as Kirkland Air Force base, Texas on July 18th 1954 by President Dwight D. Eisenhower and an individual on behalf of the EBE's. Each subsequent holder of the executive office has continued to uphold the intent of this policy towards these aliens. (each subsequent was not informed) Beyond the statement of intent, a basic agreement has been reached on the following negotiated issues: The extraterrestrials will refrain where and when possible from open display of their presence to the public at large. (so the tax paying public pay trillions of their dollars and other currencies for this program, are denied this ground breaking knowledge so the select few, most of whom are not in control of themselves, can control things) The extraterrestrials will submit substantiating proof and listings of all persons contacted from among the public at large, or that have been removed from the Earth for purpose of contact or cultural exchanges. (how nice of them to ask for a database so their on ground men in black types can harass, torture or kill them. I would not call sending military, agency types, research groups cultural exchanges, as they are not representative of our real culture) In no case shall anyone abducted by the EBE's be subjected to knowing harm or kept against their will for longer than 48 hours. (how about none is abducted at all? Did these people not think of that before these agreements, who made them god?) The extraterrestrials will avoid any willful contact with representatives of the public media or any private investigators of the UFO community, groups or writer dedicated to the same intentions. (there is that control and secrecy again to cover up not only the agenda, but crimes against humanity, done not only by EBE's, but MAJESTIC 12 and the subsequent agency based groups) The US Government will provide through the Defense Logistics Agencies Reutilization and Marketing Service such items as needed for the personal comfort of those visiting EBE's who may be sequestered in it's care. (be nice if they afforded that to their own citizens who pay for this charade) The US Government will provide a section of the MAJESTIC headquarters base in Nevada, as an embassy compound for the EBE visitors and equip to their needs. (whilst leaving Americans in their thousands homeless on the streets) Any exchange of technical, scientific or social information will be conducted item for item and in such a manner as to assure that both parties have equal gain from the process. (all binary again with term both parties, erm hello there is a 3rd party in all of this, called we the people) Except for many fascinating details which are available under separate cover through either Operation Majestic or the Defense Intelligence Office of Counterintelligence, this concludes the assessment of the situation and statement of position section of this preliminary briefing paper. (So this whole event was covered up at all costs and essentially what followed was they declared war on the people, perhaps you can call it a civil war, I prefer a civilian war, but we don't want your civil or civilian war Mr. President, Majestic groups and their army of agency treasonous goons either.) CIVIL WAR This piece raises a number questions of how this world operates under the shadows, radars, scope and understanding of many of the world's population. There has been some wonderful interactions in the past with off world groups, but are more recent exposure has largely not been kind to mankind. Some of our recent interactions with them have been very fruitful since the Peace Treaty was signed. Creating fake acts like the National Security Act, fake trade deals globally most of which were for off world trading, Trans Pacific and Atlantic deals are just two examples of that, Swissindo a major player in that off world trading role, and largely at our expense. Fake agencies created for the sole purpose of secrecy, shell companies created with the sole purpose of funneling money away from the people and into their black budget and clandestine programs, of which only they benefit from. Fake news to deflect any real news, all operated by the same above groups, raises deeply important questions to the people listening to this of, where do we go from here? Do we continue to allow these power mad psychopaths, harvest our energy, siphon vast funds of the people to fund their shell companies and agencies? and allow them to continue to deny us real knowledge, real advanced technology and real solutions to our global problems, whilst they all keep it a secret to protect the church program? Why the church program you may say? because at the very heart of the issue surrounding ET's, the denial of information lies with the church, and their off world religious programs is why, this is the main reason it is kept a secret. Because people will find out the gods, lord, disciples, angels, demons etc in the bible and other scriptures were all these EBE's using us against our will, through ignorance, fear and lack of knowledge denied to us. The think tank clowns ran an AI based scenario of ET disclosure, and it forecasted that 2.3B would commit suicide with that knowledge, why? because ET disclosure brings an end to all the religions is why. The two go directly hand in hand, there is no division between them whatsoever. Religion was created to deny humans direct access to source, and have us all worship off world entities as our new god or gods, the EBE told you that himself in his responses. All religions have their origins from the Hebrew/Annunaki script, all of them, you are not Christian, Catholic, Muslim, Islam or Protestant, if you follow religion you are a disciple of the Torah and Talmud, both of which were written at the request of, and for and by these off world entities. Thoth and Emerald Green Tablets was a Pleiadian Nibiru planet disciple and part of one of the five groups that made up the Annunaki, 2 were humanoid, 1 reptile, 1 insect group and 1 avian group which is the origin of Thoth. Then you have the Sirius star elements and their Cintamani stones, Dogons and the black cube, which is dotted around the world, but it's main center of operations is the Mecca. The corner stone of the black

Mecca cube is a Sirius star based energy harvesting stone for the off world entities. They get the Muslims to spiral anti clockwise around the stone, because anticlockwise is the main mode of energy harvesting, just like the former banking system. That spiraling creates an energy vortex that is then collected by the stone and the cube, and the problem is the vast majority on this planet have no idea, just how precious that life force energy is, it is the most precious resource on this planet and yet so many give it away so frivolously, none moreso than in the act of praying. The act of praying is an energy harvesting practice, look up and give energy to your sky god(s) but they tell you what they are doing to you in the pronunciation of the word, it is not pray PRAY, but you are their prey PREY. Read the books again with an open, critical thinking and common sense mindset, riddled with more contradictions than a Drake show, famine, pestilence, plagues, nuclear war, divided and conquer, deleting the common human language so people wouldn't coalesce, incest, bestiality, multiple wives, denying the mother with there Father, Son and Holy Ghost mantra. Mary sleeping with a ghost, immaculate conceptions, trees going on fire and talking to you, talking snakes, god throwing his children away for eating an apple, Jewish people rocking back and forth kissing a stone wall like an in house mental patient and people think that is all normal? Alas but I am just a conspiracy theorist they will say, at least I have my own mind and a theory, and not blindly follow a script that looks increasingly ridiculous with each line you read. None of it makes any rational sense whatsoever, and I am genuinely sorry for all who took part or still do take part in that program I really am, but you have all been duped on a massive scale, deep down you all know that when the narrative has some real light shone upon it. The religious program is at the core of the full denial of ET Disclosure, but when you find your real god again, Source, you will know exactly why I have this opinion and stance, and reminder of what the EBE told us in this transcript "you all bought into the religious fantasy". One of the things jumped out of this exchange is the dropping off of the children, like some grocery delivery service. Whose children are they? what is their genetic mix? are they all human or in part hybrid? and if so, which race is the hybrid and why? We know Eisenhower allowed them abduct 2% of Americans and it went much further than that, and by 1980 was becoming a massive problem of the levels of people who were being abducted, all of which was stopped after the signing of the Peace Treaty in 2016. Where are the records of those who were abducted kept? and at which point are they going to release those details? Don't the people who were abducted have the right to know? how many are actually aware they were abducted? If they argue it is psychologically damaging to tell people they were abducted, then why wasn't that considered before the program was agreed to? Did these so called people consider the long term psychological effects on people who have had these experiences, only to be told you are hallucinating or mentally ill. The psychological damage has already been done, and people have the right to know if their names are on those lists. But the greater questions it raises and connected to us all is, how many here are really human? and how far does the hybrid genetics program go? Remember I kept speaking of the 85/15 split and the potential of only 15% being organic humans? Are the humans here really only 15% in number? is the real question many of you are or should be pondering now. It begs the question does that 85/15 split I mentioned in three or four shows on the bounce, now make more sense as to what was being revealed? When you consider they spoke about the cloned bot greys, a whole race created to be slaves permanently, is it so far removed to ponder they may have done that to many "humans" also? It is a valid question and one that is increasingly in the affirmative, as you watch the way people behave and act globally, it is hive mind acting and thinking which is just like a programmed bot is it not? Unable to think or speak beyond what school, the government, the church or the media have told them to say, for evidence of that look no further than religions again. I have you ever seen or heard of a talking snake, an immaculate conception, a tree spontaneously going on fire and start talking to you, oceans parting and then snapping back. If god is everywhere why did he make Moses climb a mountain to hand him a tablet of orders? Why did he throw his so called children (they weren't and neither were the human) out of the garden of Eden for eating a sodding apple for life, does that make any sense whatsoever? The media plays a large role in formulating peoples opinions with their propaganda program, which is a link to the off world gods again, as real term is pro pagan da, which means for pagan skin. The media shenanigans has been running for at least 150 years, heightened more since the age of computers and worse again with the rise of smart phones, there news makes no sense or appears from another world also, which is why I called them the portal people. Headline 100K dead from virus, populace oh my god that is terrible, all those poor people, me, where is your proof of 100K dead and silence from the media, and programmed bots turn on you and call you a conspiracy theorist, less than 0.5% know the origin or meaning of the word. But I am asking where is the evidence? it is a fair and basic question to ask, but oblivious to so many people, it's far easier to slander the conspiracy theorist, than face the prospect that the media lies to them. There has been much written about UFO, ET's on the internet, movies and tv shows, from groups like The Pleiadian's I always laugh at that term, that star systems spans 1000's of light years and billions of planets and all we here is, how they are coming to save us and patronize us with their dear ones comments. The Alcyone group from The Pleiadies were guardians here in the past, and sold us out to the reptile group for technology. We heard for a while

of biospheres all waiting to collect us by the Arcturians, they were food processing plants to my knowledge, and we and many other species were the food. So our interactions it has to be said by and large have been far from benevolent, and why all people need the knowledge surrounding this subject to be made available, so future generations can get up to speed and not be at a massive disadvantage. The signing of the Peace Treaty ended many of the malevolent practices that EBE's and their agents on the planet perpetrated against us and we can all be grateful for that, yet how many have covered that news in the alternative media, despite several groups claiming to be in contact with off world species, do people not find that strange? There is no such one single group of positive ET's, period, same applies to humans as well. Then we come to something said about their planets operations, and how they are run or governed and they said this: "The outcome of this process is that any form of political organizing, including the politics of religious structure, becomes a personal moral transgression of higher shame, to any who practice such pursuits, than any good that could come from them." A lesson for us all, governments and religious structures are purely there to control us, both are a savior program, both are required for people who won't take their own responsibility in life. Why would he say that? it is because the EBE group who have developed sufficiently from being children and have become adults as a race, this planet is largely made up of people with child level thinking. I hate to say that, but it is a fact, look around you, look no further than the behavior of so called adults on social media, some are actually worse behaviorally than the children. That is what we can aspire to going forward, no governments per se, but just committees of people deciding what is best for and by the people in any given particular field. Many people complain about their governments and they are tyrannical, but when good people do nothing is that not what you get from a government, tyranny? People will argue no they should do the right things, but no one is making them accountable and government now is a complete harvesting system and free for all, acting above the law, whilst the public sit there and by their silence are complying. The ideal goal is what The Peoples Club is trying to bring to you, where everyone participates, the people having a voice, caring and sharing society, need not greed and a return to natural law, all done under a cooperative banner. This then teaches personal responsibility, providing for yourselves, becoming more self sufficient and away from the slavery system of doing jobs you don't wish to do, for pay that for the majority is insufficient. The final question to end tonight's show is, were the ET's showing up here beneficial for us or not? In my opinion the ET's landing turned out to be, not the best for we the people at all, and served only to produce a massive benefit to those who wished to breakaway from humanity, yes you the SSp, and provide a massive opportunity for Majestic 12 and their clown minions in agencies, to sequester vast fortunes of the peoples money for secrecy and their clandestine operations. This whole program has worked against us massively, and although some information has come out from various UFO groups, most of which was not the truth as revealed in Part 1, because those groups were infiltrated by agency and Majestic minions, to control and to divert the truth from us all. The psychological damage of not revealing to us the truth is incalculable, but for those who ask what is the main reason now why the ET program is not publically revealed to all, there is one giant problem blocking that disclosure, it is called religion, all of them. The Disclosure of were not alone, will reveal that the god or gods you have been praying to, where all ET's with too large of an ego, and were playing god, to then subvert and control us. During my lifetime that horrible truth, many may not believe now, will come to be the full truth and reality. The announcement of that full truth will be a major step of the people of this planet, of finally stepping away from child like fantasy and illusion, into a developing adult race, which will eventually be capable and responsible enough to travel the stars ourselves. That will be a glorious day for humanity, imagine crafts built by a Peoples club company and not self serving control system based people and groups like Boeing, Lockheed Martin, Northrop Grumman, Branson and Musk, or the negative ET and Black Sun based organization called NASA or the SSp either as they are even worse. The SSp is a breakaway civilization group mired in the dark forces narrative and ideals, that gained and used the advanced technology at our expense, by meetings like described in these two shows. NASA and SSp are one and the same created by the Black Eagle/Black Sun group more commonly known as the SS, that same SS was around before WW2 known as OSS, which morphed into after these craft crashed, to the CIA. The SS are not German per se either, Hitler was not the Black Eagle group or part of the main SS, these are the psychopaths that are a part of the Hebrew/Annunaki group masquerading as Jews. They are not representative of the Jewish people, although their bible has lured in many of their ilk into that program, these people are Zionists, and that is where the term Nazi comes from, by taking the first two letters and combining them from the political front called NAtional ZIONism. Yet again it shows the propensity for humans to sell out by being seduced by riches, titles and technology, and it is hampered humanities progress on a massive scale, because of a few unwilling to share anything. We have an opportunity now to rebuild the world in our image, we can be the voice of the people, we can be the enforcement and we can be something better with The Peoples Club. I ask all who listen to come and join us, all donations are voluntary, we don't charge fees for anything, so go to thepeoplesclub.org and to thinkdifferent.thepeoplesclub.org to invest in humanity. Imagine a future where

The Peoples Club becomes the dominant voice of the planet, all ran by the people. Do you think the ET's will wish to come down and talk to governments or the voices of the people? The Peoples Club once built can provide that platform for people acting in the right way to finally engage the peoples and beings from the stars. One can only dream currently, but it is up to us all to build that dream. HELLO MY NAME IS HUMAN
