CLOSE ENCOUNTERS- WHO'S GOT MY BACK NOW. Who's got my back now, well clearly it is the not gods, the lord or the Pleiadians, the answer to that question is, us. Welcome to the second part of this mini series detailing Earth history and the various visitations we have received, not in peace, but largely interferences and wars. Everything was faded into the mist, the past was erased, the erasure forgotten and the lie became the truth said by George Orwell. That kind of sums up Part one of this series. Sun Tzu said, all war is based on deception, again that fits Part one. Once again thanks to Ashayne and her team for her material that provides the basis for this show. People talk about GMO and Genetically Modified Organisms, yet neglect how we have all been genetically modified, in the most staggering of ways. So it all started with a Jacob who was completely off his Nordeck, and a bi pedal dolphin who lost it's porpoise. In part 1 many things and names were left in ruins, the names of the 12 tribes of Dan, Levis, Noah, Moses, Enoch all were part of the deception. The Melchizedek story ripped to shreds, who and what the Urantia really are. It laid to rest the nonsense in the Alt Media that between Enki and Enlil one was better than the other, nope two sides of the same coin game again. The Vikings and the Saxons both off world groups ran by Enoch and Thoth, oops. The Freemasons, the Templar's and the all so lovely anecdotes of Atlantis exposed. Another bout of sickly rhetoric posted in the Alt Media, the great savior program known as the Pleiadians, that myth was laid to rest as well. The myth of the Pyramids and the Sphinx being 5500 years old, fell 43K years short. Time and truth was not kind this time for them all. King lines here and there, none of them were valid, whilst the one who was valid was renamed as a cup, the grail, holy or otherwise. It left no doubt about the Egyptian's being fake, rendered mute, just as we revealed in FRWL. It revealed the bible is their story, not ours, the scriptures also. It left a trail of deception, insidious practices, criminal genetic interference and a populace with no memory and little intelligence to work it all out. They brought us the flood to wipe us out, we came back with our own flood in this time, not of water, but truth. The religious will find this material disturbing, but deep down they knew something wasn't right, yet chose to ignore it as the prospect of them having no savior, was too large to bear. I apologize to the religious for bursting your belief system it must be hard for you I know, but I will not apologize for revealing the truth. That must stand above all dogmas and belief structures, no matter how painful that maybe. We are a world that has been ran on lies, and enough is enough. Now some of us are ready for our adult pants, some for the first time in many lifetimes. The experiments all failed, let us develop a new one with the TPC taking a lead role, where we all learn to embrace, trust and work with each other, instead of hate and fighting. We are proposing that as a solution to go forward for all species, not just us. Somehow, somehow there has to be a better way, will you be a part of that? Today's show is and will become your very own Judgement day, choose wisely. JUDGEMENT DAY

When it came up to 800-700BC time period, this is where you had the Roman invasions, and the Greek invasions where you had various groups. His story repeats again it seems as around 700 years later, yes the 700 year loop again, they invaded again. But in 8-700BC you had the Draconian Leviathan that came in and literally they were the Remus and Romulus story, that supposedly was the beginnings of the Roman Empire, but they were the Draconian races. Remus was the Odedicron reptilians and Romulus was the Omicron Dragon Moth. These are the guys who became the Knights of Knossos and the Knights of Malta, and they had come up from the Etruan and Lathan's, from back in Atlantis. Knossos is the island of Crete and were known as the Minoans, so now you know why the island next to Crete called Thera, blew up. The Queen of England and Nelson Mandela were both Knights of Malta. In about 24-23BC when we start to see the Roman Invasion by the Hyksos and the Anunnaki Leviathan races, where they were going to come over and do the Olympian god stuff. There was one version of where the Omicron Dracs that were beginning the Olympian paradigm, because that particular group had made alliances with the Wezedaks. There were both Draconian and Anunnaki races that had made alliances with the Wezedaks, and this was the Metatronic coding. The Metatronic coding means you get an immortal body, not an eternal one, immortal means you don't go through the birth and death and rebirth cycle. We have had a history of the most bizarre slow and painful death, this has been torture and we have lived torture, yet most of us sit here now and we haven't a clue. And we still call the names of the gods they gave to us, that weren't the gods we started out with, and it is really, really sad. She said that is where I can find enough healthy anger, I don't care who listens to me or doesn't, if one person in the group of a million gets it, and can get free from this before they end up Metatronically coded for eternity, it's worth it. I echo that statement 100%, we at THI have managed to changed hundreds if not thousands of lives due to the material we have presented, plus the often unspoken of private support we have given as well. Coming up to the Christ period in Voyagers Volume 2, even before we became whistleblowers and the United Resistance was formed, and they had declared war on us. Before the Pleiadian and Sirian 1992 agreements were broken, the story was very gently done without letting any of the history about the Anunnaki come to the fore. Because the Anunnaki at the time were trying to make agreements, and were supposedly going to enter the Emerald Covenant. We had to be very careful of how much history the Guardians were allowed to reveal, that we were allowed to release, whilst those agreements were holding. Because part of their demands were, that we don't tell about them right way, of course we would have to tell later, but let them get used to us first, before they realized what they did here. Because then you would really hate our guts, and that is basically what was happening. I came across similar in the 2014-2015 period, whereby through Shane meeting certain people of their ilk including Anu, I was asked to present some questions that would be addressed within the meeting with Anu, as I was led to believe. There was 12 questions asked and all were well received at the time, but classic Draco they pulled back on it, and Shane suffered the backlash of that. An earlier meeting of many leading figures including Bush Snr, it was discussed waiting 50 years to reveal full Disclosure as it is called. Full Disclosure is not possible in my opinion to achieve that, as most just aren't ready for it, and psychologically it would tip many over the edge, particularly the religious sector. I said no to 50 years at that time, but in essence through many of our shows, I have been revealing more and more of the narrative. All done in bite sized chunks, to give people a chance to grasp it, these shows included. In essence the Events that changed the world series, was in some part full Disclosure as it was an official Majestic 12 document. In September 2000 when the Anunnaki broke the Pleiadian/Sirian agreement they joined the United Resistance, and the whole group of them, literally made an edict of war against the Founders. At that point it was time to get the history out and let people know what is going on. In the Voyagers book it talks about the Christ period and the two Christ's, actually the three sort of Christ's. Three Christ's? oh dear this is going to rattle some cages. The original Christ which was Jesheua 12, and at some point they will reveal the family line as his mother's last name Constantine, but that was not the fathers last name. She knows that she said because she was his half sister, we had the same mother in that time period, and my name was Myrium. That was the Constantine line that came up since that period. It should be noted that, the Constantine of Rome was actually a British person. There was then another attempt to bring certain groups of the Hyksos over into the Emerald Covenant. You had a group called Galactic Federation of the Annu-Seraphim Anunnaki and the Jehovian Anunnaki, who decided they would enter the Emerald Covenant. They were doing this for a reason, primarily because they knew it was getting closer 2000 thousand years ago, it was getting closer to when everybody knew the Stargates were to open again. It was during this time period, and they knew without bio-regenesis assistance, their races were definitely going into the Wezedak Matrix. There was still those of about 2/3 of them that had the Wezedak coding, and still 1/3 of them left untouched. There was enough left, so that they could have been brought back to, or at least be able to stay in the Phantom World, where they could bio-regenesis out from there, after quite a long course of evolution. There was certain ones of the Thoth crew that had originally decided to do the Metatronic's, and then they decided they didn't want to do that, and didn't want to become Wezedaks Metatronic's anymore. More flip flops than a Cosmic Voice or Life Force show. All because they found out that the Wezedaks were quite bullies, and they would give you menial propositions and positions like middle management, but you would never make it to the top. A bit like a politician then. As above so below it seems, no one makes it to the top here without being one or part of them, hello Mr. Trump. So there was some rebellion taking place within between the Thoth group, and Enoch just kept getting himself and his group all tangled up in a mess, it was real poor judgement. She said I have a soft spot for Enoch even though he's made some horrible decisions, even though there is a twist of arrogance, as that tends to go with incarnating through the Anunnaki or the Fallen Elohim pattern. He picked that up later, he was an Ascended Master that came through that pattern to get down here, he picked a bit of the arrogance up towards his people, the chosen ones. In other words you guys aren't worthy but you guys are. This is an elitist standpoint, the chosen one has always been about elitism, and it has always been the case, chosen by who, is the first question? We got through the Christ period and there was an attempt again, that had really started before in the Solomon period. Solomon had been a part of the beginnings of this, and then it fell apart and we tried it again. Where taking certain ones of the Hyksos, who were the master raider races at this point, they had the most powerful DNA compared a human on the planet. They were brought into the Emerald Covenant, and they were given an allowance of using codes to clear the DNA to some degree, after they had undergone certain rites that would assist them. They would then intermarry with the Maji Grail line, to be able to begin a generation that would rapidly be able to get the coding back up, before this current time period. This where the Essenes came from, they were a group or sub family of the Melchizedek's, which were one of the Cloister Angelic Human races, and so Essene's were naturally one of those families. The timeline for this started in 1353 BC with Akhenaton and the Annunaki bloodline. In 1280BC you had the Essene's brotherhood with two branches. By 196BC one group was the blue flame Melchizedek's, the other was Templar Melchizedek's joined by the Anunnaki bloodline. Here comes the proverbial bombshell or mic drop moment. From the blue flame Melchizedek's came Joehius and Jeudi, from the Templar Melchizedek's came Joseph and Mary. In 12BC which means 12 + 1 again, from Joehius and Jeudi came Jesheua 12 who was the true Jesus. In 7BC from Joseph and Mary came Jeshewua 9 who was the bible Jesus. In 8AD we had the Ascension science on the Jesheua 12 side, and Templar Axion Seal on the Jeshewua 9 side. In 21AD we had the Amenti Hebrew on the Jesheua12 side. In 25AD on the Jeshewua 9 side the Arahabi which came from the Elohim in 27AD. In 27AD on Jesheua 12 side came the Ark of Covenant Ascension procession and Jesheua ascended at aged 39. So the real "Jesus" did not die at 33 or die in 33AD. In 47AD the Elohim went to Tibet with the HU-3 seeding. The Indigos that got involved with this experiment, which were of the Jesheua 12 line, where of the Melchizedek Essene lineage, in the Angelic Human Indigo lineage. There were to combine from Solomon and Bathsheba, who it is believed was one of ours. And so, Jesheua 12 came out of the Solomon line, he was the real "Jesus", he was the one who went around teaching ascension. He did not teach hierarchical ascension, he did not have disciples under him or below him, he taught as a group. He taught with a group of Maji that went around together, to bring back the teachings of the Emerald Covenant, and we did a pretty good job. We got a lot of them - the teachings, we were putting them down in writing, and they were put in several different writings. They were written in Egyptian, Hebrew, Hindu and Sanskrit languages, and they were put in Chinese. They were also put in a couple of other dialects, so there would be pieces at least that would survive. Because we knew, as soon as they were released, as soon as they hit the papyrus, somebody would grab hold of them and they would change, be destroyed or completely rewritten. In the Christ period, this is where the Arimethea agenda came forth, which had started way back in Atlantis, it was the Metatronic Agenda. This is where it became woven into the biblical story, we had caused them a lot of problems by bringing Jesheua12 in. There was a whole bunch of people learning again about ancient history, Atlantis, the Stellar activation that was due in that period of time, and how we were all preparing for that. We caused a real problem for the Pharisee's and the Sadducees, and a bunch of others including the Romans, a lot of people were very upset with us. There was a very big need to cover up what took place in the Christ period, we were doing alright until the Essene divide. Which was the split of the Essene Brotherhood into Blue Flame and Templar Melchizedek's. It was a few years before and after it, but the high point was 23AD. Jesheua was born and we call him Jesheua 12 as he had the 12 strand DNA, he was born in 12BC, and he finally ascended through the Arc of the Covenant in the Giza Pyramid in 27BC, that is because the mission got blown. At least he didn't say Jesus Christ I am not doing this for a lark and got off! The mission wasn't suppose to get blown, but in the agreements that were made, there was another lets call him a junior Avatar, that was allowed to come in on the bio-regenesis experiment. He was named Jeshewua, and it was originally spelt with a Y as the Hyksos alphabet didn't have a J in it, but the original Hebrew alphabet did, for anybody that knows the little twist on the names. Jeshewua 9 this was the line where you get Mary and Joseph, they were the mother and father of that one, Joehius and Jeudi were the parents of Jeshuau 12, the real Jesus as he is known. Neither 9 or 12 got crucified, they were actually working as a team, Jesheua 12 ordained Jeshewua 9 into the Melchizedek Cloister Priesthood. John the Baptist had ordained Jesheua 12 into the Priesthood, and these were the Maji lines. We were attempting to create a new hybrid Grail line, that had the potential to bring back the full Christos pattern to those races. And because the Hyksos races had invaded everything they could get their hands on since Atlantis, they had the most coding of everything, so that race was chosen for that opportunity. Because they could connect genetically to just about everything, they also had a huge amount of the coding that went with the Planetary grids. A case of having to dance with the enemy per se, that rarely ends well. Everything was going fine, and Enoch had actually come back into the Emerald Covenant, and decided he wanted to be a part of it. Thoth was doing his usual flip flopping, the Galactic Federation had convinced Thoth and the Pleiadian Anunnaki crew to do it, and enter the Emerald Covenant. Except they had an agenda and they weren't planning on staying. They were planning on making sure their Avatar was born, and taking that further into the future on and for their own agenda. That is what precisely they did, once Jeshewua 9 was born, there was progressive infiltration of the Pleiadian Nibirian Anunnaki via the Galactic Federation. The Galactic Federation the one that likes to channel books these days, were back there then, in fact they were the ones who accidentally took out Solomon's Temple, they blew up their own Temple by accident. I warned back in 2014 time about the Galactic Federation of Light as it was called, we called it the Galactic Federation of liars. There are pictures of them on the internet, all standing in front of a craft, all of them being blonde that is them, they are all fake. The Arimethea agenda which the Anunnaki groups and Hyksos Leviathan races, who came up from Atlantis, had given lip service to giving up as they wanted to be healed from that. Once Jeshewua 9 was born the showdown began. The Galactic Federation pulled out of the Emerald Covenant, and so did the Thoth group, and now they had their super hybrid Hyksos, that had the coding of the Maji. So it was again for them, it was another notch up as far as getting security codes to the Planetary Stargates, and creating a master raiding race. But what they had to do was, cover up anything that had to do with the real Jesheua, because if they didn't, there would be too much knowledge that would be written. When we would get books done, you would give them 6 months in those days and they would be something different. So there was several copies hand written, one would be the real one and that would be hidden somewhere special, and then you would have ones that had certain alterations put in them. That would, if you read them right, would lead you to where the real one might be. There was all sorts of games back then being played by both sides, one side just to keep the truth on the planet, and the other guys trying to get rid of it. The Arimethea Agenda was woven into the bible, even before the Council of Nicaea finalized what the bible would become. Even 100BC we had the Hyksos Arimethea Agenda coming up, you'll find this in the Hyksos writing of the Dead Sea Scrolls, called the Qumran. These were a group of the Hyksos races that were associated with the Essene's, the ones that they raided and gotten a part of the gene code from, as Essenes were around for as long as the root and the Cloister races were around. The Essene's were simply one of the smaller families of the Melchizedek Cloister Angelic Human race. So when you see the Dead Sea Scrolls stuff, this is coming from the Hyksos perspective. All of the these things were building up, so by the time the Christ drama unfolded and the betrayal took place in 23AD, we couldn't finish the mission we had started for. Which was to bring all the races back into wholeness, into oneness, to prepare everybody for the Stellar Activation cycle of that time period, so everybody would be able to make it through. Earth would be reborn and into a new age of light, everybody would be welcome there as long as they behaved, and stopped trying to hurt other people. In the Essene divide, you had some of the ones with the Essene coding that had come up from the Hyksos, that had raided the Essene races, and they're the ones that had combined with the true Essene's, the Grail lines. But you had a divide between them that took place, and this is where our contemporary understanding of the nonsense that comes up from that time period, and our bible references and things. Where the true Grail Line Jesheua 12 ascended, he just left, he didn't die, he wasn't crucified, he wasn't even persecuted it was the other guy, Jeshewua 9 because he had the big mouth. But J-9 being totally holier than thou, after being told by his fallen Elohim friends of how it was his job to convert everybody, and he got a little too outspoken. We had groups of 12, lets say knights, like the round table knights around us in the J-12 line. The J-9, he decided to do disciples, which was I am above you and you are going to listen to me. Jeshewau 9 reflected very much those who were guiding him and directing him, he was an incarnate out of one of the fallen Annu-Elohim collectives, he was an Avatar. A ninth level Avatar, a D-9 Avatar oversoul that came in, in order to do this, and he was supposed to stay on the side of the Emerald

Covenant. But when he didn't there was this whole new path of evolution that was going to be run, and it was going to be run through the biblical story, so they took pieces of the ancient Hyksos distortion, the stuff from the Dead Sea Scrolls and even way back further into the Hebrew traditions. That went back into Atlantis and they began to weave tales, and began to edit things out that anybody else had written down, anything that didn't fit into their tales. So the Metatronic Agenda began being woven progressively into what has become Christianity on this planet, oh dear Christianity is the Metatronic coding of the Wesedak's. The main mantra of Christianity and the Roman church is fear, fear of living and the fear of death, so if you fear death you can accept the Metatronic coding and cheat death. Now can you see what they were up to, we should boycott every church on the planet as not one is for our benefit. That becomes more interesting and telling because of what happened to Jeshewua 9. Because he didn't get crucified either, there was another guy created for that. Jeshewua 9 went around and really agitated the Romans and a few other people, he got too much attention drawn to himself, and they had to get him out of the Holy land. They had to literally get him and his family out, because they were going to kill him if he stuck around, and they couldn't let that happen as he was the new gene code, can't let him get killed as he has to have more babies. This is really how the Annu-Elohim were perceiving the whole thing. So, there was a guy named Arihabi who looked like him J-9, he physically resembled him, and the Annu-Elohim sent him on a few little tangents of inspired visions and things, and convinced him that he was Christ. They got him spouting some of the teachings so that he would sound enough like him, and then they set Arihabi up. He couldn't ascend as he didn't have a gene code where he could ascend, but they told him they would give him the gene code, the classic seducement program again. Turns out the gene code they were giving him, was actually the Metatronic code. They said to him he could ascend if he allowed himself to die for his god, he did and he was crucified. So there was a man crucified, but it wasn't either of the Jesheua's, it was Arihabi who was a poor sucker. He was conned him by having visions given to him by a bunch of Fallen Angelic's, who told him if he let himself be tortured in this way, that god would reward him with the eternal body. Well it wasn't eternal, might of been immortal but it wasn't eternal. WHO WANTS TO LIVE FOREVER

So there is some reality to the crucifixion story, it was part of the cover up of the real Christian story, which has always been about bringing in the inner Christos teachings here. That is what Jesheua 12 taught and that is what the other Jeshewah 9 was supposed to teach, until he started to but ran his mouth too much. Now where Jeshewua 9 went he had gone too far, Jesheua 12 literally ascended in 27AD, John the Baptist went in his own direction, he got killed, and Miriam stuck around a while and ascended in 37AD. We did what we could, what we were there for couldn't be finished and it was all kind of left to the next round. This goes up to the next round that took us into the Arthur legends and all that stuff, King Arthur was all about this. But the important thing to see here is the Arimethea is tracking it, a person named Joseph of Arimethea was the brother of the person, of the mother Mary's mother, and so Mary's uncle. Remember Mary was Jeshewua 9's mother. He was of the Templar Melchizedek race, and history has him in Palestine. There was a place called Arimethea in Palestine, I wonder who settled that place? it was the Hyksos. There was an exodus of the Hyksos Grail line the Jeshewua 9 line, they got Mary Magdelene out who he had married, but there is a twist to this. Mary Magdelene was intended to be the wife of Jesheua 12 as it was his twin flame, and they messed with her before she woke up, and they married her off to Jeshewua 9, in order to get the gene code. That was part of the reason Jesheua 12 left, because there was nothing left for him to do. He left children behind though, as he didn't marry any of the mothers. It was done through sacred rites within the Temple and certain women were chosen, there were 6 women chosen. There were fathers selected as to who would be the fathers of these children. The fathers were to raise these children as their own, and it simply was a every sacred leaving behind of a gene code before he ascended. In modern critique circles he would be called a coward, and the one who abandoned his children. Child Services and the courts would be hunting him down for alimony payments. Imagine if he came back though and sued all the churches for copyright of his material, now that would be funny. So there was 6 lineages from Jesheua 12, the Indigo lines that came up from that period. J-12 was connected to 7 women, Africa, France, Celtic, Egypt, US, unknown and Aqua'elle in 27AD. Sounds like a long distance truck driver in modern day terms, and I am not sure this practice of spreading his seed is a good thing, all smacks of the worst traits of a guru in modern descriptions, but maybe things were different back then? Aqua'elle had twins one boy and one girl, the boy went to Amsterdam, and then the Seven Suns Family K+8 Factor, came 7 sons. One son became the Keeper of the Crystal Core who went to Southern Ireland and Holland, no entries for son 2 through 6, but 7 went to the AquaFarE host race to Aqua'elle Matrix. I wonder which part of Southern Ireland it was, be funny if it was Tralee Bay. The girl went to Arizona and then unknown. J-9 had a twin sister in 7BC, he was connected to Marahari and then France, his sister went to India. So, no mention of any Jesus going to India then, only J-9's sister, I wonder why? well FRWL 1 & 2 revealed that piece. But what happened to the other guys? the J-9 lines who had hijacked Mary, and this is causing Sananda a problem right now, because Mary got Metatronic coding, his twin. Sananda is Jesheua 12's soul name. So now Sananda's main mission is to work with the Galactic Federation to try to get Mary his twin soul, the other half of his entity out of the Metatronic coding. So this was all a bit busy in this time frame, that is why you'll find both Jeshewua 9 and Jesheua 12 working with the Galactic Federation people and with the Anunnaki people right now, because he has a karmic issue to settle. Where he has to help his twin flame/avatar to get out of the Metatronic coding before she goes down. Because if she goes down, he's stuck in this Matrix with the other half of the encoded over there. There were some issues that came up out of that period, it was awful what happened in that period, the Essene divide period. What has come out of that has been something even more awful, because what they did was, Joseph of Arimethea of Palestine who was Mary's uncle, got the bunch of them out, he was involved in a lot of trafficking, because he was involved with the gold and the gold mines. He was like the Ministry of mines of Rome, he had connections to England and to the tin mines in Cornwall, and also to France because they went to France first. Joseph of Arimethea got them into France, there was a group that got sucker punched. There was a group of Cathari, Cathar's, the Cathar's of France where some of the Jesheua 12 people that had been moved around. They were not just in the Holy Land, we had to put them in different areas, and they were put at Gate 12 which is Monsegur in France, which is where the original Cathar's started. Before we had the full blown Cathar's we had gene lines being filtered up into this direction, and we had our Gate 12 Grail lines there from the beginning, they were always there. As Monsegur was Gate 12 so we would have tribe 12 people there, the type 12 Grail lines would be there and so would the root races as well. Joseph of Arimethea brought the Hyksos Jesus into the twelve tribes regions of France, and at first was able to pass him off as the other Jesheua. Because people weren't in active open communication with each other, so he was taken in and they created a following there. This was even before the Cathar's officially became called Cathar's, because you had the Cathar divide, that was part of the Essene divide. I guess all these groups went to the Johns Hopkins school of math, as all I hear is divide, divide, divide, I guess they got stuck on the one math equation. You had a group the Grail line and an anti Christos Grail line, that came up living in the same spaces, as the Grail Lines that went with Tribe 12. Now later one of the Jesheua 12 descendants came, and was brought in to bring up into the tribe 12 lineage again, because they had been contaminated by the Hyksos, the Hyksos Jeshewua. So out of France you have two movements building, you have the Cathar's and they were just like the Cathari healing group, that was originally spelt with a K, and it referred to Ka. Tha. Ra, which means light, sound and one. It got changed into Cathari with a C, and this had to do with not only the Hyksos, but also the Dracs getting in on that act. You also had during this period the beginnings of what became Draconian Christianity, as opposed to Anunnaki Christianity, oops. So you had the bible stories that came out from this chaos, out of the two Jesheua's and the lineage moving into France. That moved from France and then spread into England and into other places. It seeded the Templar Quest and the Arimethea agenda, seeded through Joseph of Arimethea and through the Jeshewua 9, and Mary and Joseph who were the parents of Jeshewua 9. This was a betrayal of the Emerald Covenant, the people who were representing the Christos teachings, got knocked in the head again, but the drama continued. What became of this is very interesting, and by 325AD the Draconian's got in on the picture. The Hyksos were making so much advancement, by putting out their records and combining it from their records of the past, and putting the Jeshewua 9 story out as if it was the real story. Whilst hiding and destroying any records that were existing on Jesheua 12, and the true Myriam and John the Baptist. They changed names, they changed stories that took place here, they would change the order of noted people in relation to birth times. For instance, they put John the Baptist under a similar time frame or age bracket as Jesheua, but he wasn't he was much older. So they doctored the documents and the historical records, and got rid of what didn't serve them. They were doing really well and that really upset the Draconian mob, who were in Rome. So the Draconian mob over in Rome decided to take all of this new information, this new Christ period stuff and make their own version of it, and they combined it with the Olympian god stuff. That they had taken from the Anunnaki originally, they had taken over some of that, they were using that to control the Roman people, the Roman Empires. They then combined it and what used to be the Olympian gods, and they became the Saints instead. So they renamed them and made them Saints, you couldn't have an Olympian gods name, but you could have a Saints name. So, the means all the Saints that followed where all Dracs, oh dear. They decided this was a good bandwagon to jump on, and the Council of Nicaea in 325AD brought it together, the Pharisees, the Sadducees, people were in control of large groups, where they had to deal with this problem, about what do we do with the records. We might not like each other but we all have one common interest, to make sure we win when the Stellar Activation comes. There was a book assimilated and created, out of editing, twisting and taking most of the guts out of the historical records. They used some of our records, they used some of the falsified records, that would be compatible with the Qumran stuff, the Dead Sea Scroll stuff. The book was called Constantine and the Council of Nicaea, and from all that they created what we call today the bible, and as we know the history from there has been an absolute chaos. Where the Draconian, now what is interesting too, you had the Draconian Leviathan races which became the Knights Knossos, the Knights of Malta, they became the push behind Catholicism. Then you had the Hyksos lines that came the push behind Protestantism, this is where you have the division between Catholic and Protestant. With Protestantism only God can forgive your sins and regular church members can make decisions. Whilst the Catholic religion, a Pope can forgive your sins and only clergy can make decisions in the church, the great duality choice again. So the Catholic and Protestant divide is actually Dracon and Anunnaki. So those that follow the Catholic religion are actually following the Draconian agenda. Those that follow the Protestant religion are following the Jewish Hyksos lines and the Anunnaki. People of Ireland are you hearing this? quit the ridiculous divide between your peoples, you are both following an off world agenda. Something that Irish hosts should be covering in depth, not hiding behind some fake ascension program to a place no one knows where it is. Humans just never fit into this history, we have been watching wars go on between people who don't even belong here in the first place. The people who do belong here think they are a part of it, and they don't know how to step outside of it, because their own history is gone. That is enough to understand now and there is a context for these, there is a history here and it is not a pleasant history. A history that makes you want to cry, it has been horrible for the Grail Lines, horrible for the Angelic Humans, and it has been horrible for any of the Leviathan races who tried to escape from it. Because the fallen Angelic collective who control them, and can mess with them because of the DNA weaknesses, because they have more of the reversals in their DNA, especially the ones with the Metatronic coding. They can put visions in their heads, you can show them pictures, you can show them divine experiences that aren't real. This is how we have been manipulated, all through this process. What it leads us to is the Beast, in 22340BC when Thoth's group agreed to join the Wezedaks. This was a thing called the Lucifer Archangel Michael Alliance, they had been against each other quite a while, Thoth didn't want the Wezedak coding and stood against that when he was Emerald Covenant. Then he went over to the alliance, Lucifer which is the whole Thoth collective and the Wezedaks. The Wezedaks when they had interbred and had broken through here 570M years ago, they created a race in the Andromeda system of phantom matrix, called the Necromiton. The Necromiton later raided seeding 2 of the Angelic Humans, creating something called the nephilim. The lineage of them was Atlantean humans, which developed into the 3rd Root Race Lumarians, which developed into Lamanians, then human and Anunnaki mixing created the nephilim. They were an Anunakki, a mutated Anunakki/Wezedak thing. When Archangel Michael, who became the Archangel Michael collective, they were called the Mikalube, also called the Sons of Ba'al. Another of the internet and love and light brigades savior programs goes down, Archangel Michael. I'm ruining everything here lol. In some doctrines that came up, Ba'al was another word for the devil, but everybody was calling everybody the devil, if you didn't like someone, you would call that one the devil. But, you had Satan, you had Lucifer, you had Ba'al, you had Set in Egypt, and so there was a bunch of them. It all depended then on, who was writing the book, that would say which one was the bad one, and which one was the good one. The Protestant movement has come up through the Freemasons for instance, that is the Hyksos line, and the Hyksos/Freemasons faction are those behind the Protestant religion. But most of the Protestant figure heads on the outside, have no clue about that. They actually hold at the center of their creed a worship of Lucifer, which means they are Thothian. The Catholic religions have at their core connected to Satain, which is the Marduk Dramin line of Anunnaki Omicron, that this is where the Satan stuff comes from. It's a riot and at the core of each religions is, the ones that is saying the one that is evil, is actually the one they are supporting. Remember the Catholic church has telescopes called Lucifer, now you know why. It is like the one that is motivating the whole thing, a very confusing game. If we go back to 25500BC we had the Lucifer rebellion. Pleiadian-Niburian-Anunnaki, Thoth-Enki-Zephelium Lulitan Anunnaki, Marduk-Satain-Anunnaki, Necromiton-Andromi-Anunnaki all equalled the Luciferian Anunnaki. The Thoth line was the Lucifer and the Marduk line was the Satan. It leads us to the present moment where we have sci-fi technologies, that aren't fiction that have been progressively put in place here. And we have been progressively mutated so we wouldn't know how to handle it, or believe it was there, by the time the Stellar Activation Cycle came. There are several different layers of technology, that if we could have got the grids up to high enough speed, we wouldn't have had to worry about this one. This one was the worst case scenario, like oh dear, but the Guardians have been doing everything that they could, even negotiating with those dark force clowns. But they are idiots and say oh yes we will give you lip service for 24 hours, and then they will stab you in the back. This is the history of dealing with the Anunnaki races, particularly on Earth but even that was worth a try. Because if the 1992 Pleiadian Sirian agreements had worked, there were Emerald Covenant agreements where the Thoth and the Enoch groups had decided that they would come in, and then stand against the Draconian groups, in order to not let the Draconian groups get control. If they had held, we wouldn't have had to worry about the activation of the Beast. THE NUMBER OF THE BEAST

Why was 666 the number of the beast, we are about to find out the real reason why. The Beast is a mechanism that the scope of the intelligence it takes to create something like this, is amazing. The Great Dark rift, the Sextant Clock mutation, Toral rift space-time distortion, called Blank Slate Technology or BST, hence the term Beast. Created by a time tunnel wormhole. This can move not just planets, but whole solar systems. It has the capacity to take our solar system and our whole chain of gates, going from here to D-11, that takes it up to and into the Lyra system, and literally take the whole thing down into a black hole Matrix. Which means it's matter would fry first of all, everything would get disintegrated going through a black hole, and then it reforms in disorganized fashion on the other side, all neatly tucked into the base 8 reverse Metatronic coding. The figure 8 again. This was called the Galactic Vesica Pisces Metatronic Infold, now you know what the religious Vesica Pisces was based upon. The 3 axis' were coming through, the Wesedak axis ran from 1 to 8 on the 12 hour clock. The Phantom Axis ran from 11 to 5, and ours is 12 to 6 on the clock. In 25550BC when the Pleiadian Nibirian Anunnaki groups put in, what is called the Nibirian Data Crystal Grid that was anchored at Stonehenge, and then plugged into 24 Crystal Temple bases all over the planet. This was part of what we are clearing in our site work here. Nibiru used to be a planet that orbited within our Galactic plane, it was our 12th planet for a while. When they started to build the Beast, Nibiru became our 11th planet, replacing our 11th planet which was Chiron. Chiron was broken in half and part of it made Pluto's moon, and the other part became stuck where it pops up between Saturn and Uranus, and then it pops back down into phantom. These are almost like balances or weights trying to get the balance, the electromagnetic balance just right in order to do this stuff, you have to have perfect electromagnetic energy of push and pull of Galactic and higher Galactic level. That piece got me pondering and I wonder if she is describing what I call the veil? It is now known scientifically that the magnetic field is the veil we describe, and some of us also experienced. Nibiru used to orbit 3 to 9, then go 10 to 2, they changed that orbit when they got rid of Gate 11 planet Chiron and broke into to. They then pushed using frequency and by using their gates, they pushed Nibiru into the 11 position and left a hole where the 11th planet had been, there was a hole left in that orbital field, and they plugged Nibiru into that hole. From there they created a link where they took Nibiru, and this wasn't all done a once. But once Nibiru went from 12 to 11, in 25500BC they dragged it into the orbital of the Phantom Axis, so it went from 9 o'clock position into the

Phantom Axis going from 11 to 5. Our Solar system plane runs from 9 to 3. So they dragged Nibiru with another half planetary mass that used to be a planet called Maldek, which was our 5th planet, that was destroyed in seeding 2 as was Chiron. There was a piece of Maldek that was large enough to counter balance Nibiru, where it had about the same planetary mass. So they were able to set up using the gate alignment between the Wesedak axis, the Phantom Axis and our axis that all overlapped at 12 on the clock. So, the Phantom races were able to set up an orbit for Nibiru on the Phantom axis, and make it like a patrol station. At one end of the orbit you would have the planet Nibiru at 5 and at 11 the opposite end, you would have the piece of Maldek, that they turned into a battle star that became to be known as Wormwood. Which is a mistranslation of what meant Doom world, because it was always known that Doom world when that battle star came in, it would have the potential to pull our Matrix into the Phantom Matrix. That was before the whole Wesedak mess, and what they did is, they took advantage of the phantom technology. This was the phantom races who decided to do this first, the Pleiadian Nibiruian were part of this. Thoth broke the Emerald Covenant in 22340BC, the Phantom matrix was put in, in 25500BC, that was before that, that was before the Wesedak agreement. They still had their matrix coming in here, the 1-8 matrix, but now they in the 11-5 Matrix, and were now trying to pull in our matrix to create enough critical mass in their Matrix, so the Wesedaks can't pull them in, because they were fighting them. Originally Nibiru now in the 11-5 Phantom Matrix would do, it would start at 5 and take the left hand path north, in the middle would by pass our Matrix and head to the top or 11, it would crossover through Phantom Gate 8, which is Phantom Alnitak Orion. It would then do a loop right to left and then head South on the right hand path and the now Phantom passage, but has not passed through our system yet. Once it reaches the 5 position again, it does another loop and heads north on the right hand path and then would pass through our system. Now on that path it would slide down the side of our system not enter it, and wouldn't come close enough to cause major or cataclysmic mess on Earth, but would create a bit of a ripple effect. Sometime we would get a slight pole shift, but it wasn't on the huge cataclysmic scale. Nibiru would then pass back out, but when one was out the other would be in, every 3657.8 years. One of them would come in, and when it was Nibiru coming in, Wormwood was out, and when Wormwood would come in, Nibiru was out. Right now in 2002 we are approaching a period when Nibiru is out, but Wormwood is in on it's way in. This was part of what the biblical teachings taught a lot more about, but there are little bits of it left in the Nicaean translations, other little bits left are in the Revelations sections about these things. Now the Beast comes in here from the 1 position, where the Wesedaks decided they could take advantage of the phantom matrix, and the Nibiru and Wormwood situation. This was a originally a small Beast at position 5 to pull us in, and prevent the Wesedak's from pulling the Phantom Matrix in. They then figured out how to use it, to get both, they made their 666 link through their Stargate 6 and our Stargate 6 near Moscow, and the Phantom Stargate 6. They then anchored it from 12 down towards the 7 position into the Stargate into our 6th planetary core, which is Jupiter. Because 5 was Maldek and Maldek is part of the Asteroid belt now, because the rest of it was blown to smithereens, and the big part of it was as the Battlestar and Nibiru. So they created the frequency bridge from 12 towards seven, which intersected our plane, which goes from the 3 to 9, that is our Galactic plane, but the solar system is from the middle of the clock to 9, that anchors the 666 through Jupiter. What this will allow through Jupiter, there are frequencies that are transmitted when Nibiru or the Battle star begins its journey, this timeline it will be the Battle Star Wormwood. When it comes up from 5 position which is Orion, where our Stargate 1 is at 6, their starting point is Trapezium Orion, it then moves toward us through Stargate 2 domain, which is Epsilon and Eridanus heading to the 10 position. Eridanus constellation lies in the southern hemisphere, it is one of the largest constellations in the sky. It represents the celestial river that runs from Cursa (Beta Eridani) near Rigel in Orion, all the way to Achernar (Alpha Eridani) in the far southern sky. In Sanskrit, Eridanus is called srotaswini, which means current or course of a river. Eridanus is home to many interesting deep sky objects, among them the CMB Cold Spot (Eridanus Supervoid), possibly the largest void known, the Eridanus Group of galaxies, and the Witch Head Nebula, a reflection nebula illuminated by the bright Rigel in the neighbouring constellation Orion. Eridanos is the name that has been applied by geologists to a river which flowed where the Baltic Sea is now, how interesting it is that region. Eridanus is also known as the River of Hades, is this the origin of the River Styx? as above so below. It then comes up under and then through the Asteroid belt, so that is where it enters our galactic plane through the Asteroid belt. When this happens the Beast that comes through via the frequencies on the 12-7 trajectory, those frequencies are called The Flaming blue sword of the Archangel Michael frequencies. They beam a frequency through the Jupiter orbit template back to the right hand path of the Phantom Matrix, to the path of either Nibiru or Wormwood would take, in this case Wormwood when it is crossing our Galactic plane. The frequency hits Wormwood and it does an anti clockwise loop which then intersects our plane between the Sun and Earth, circles back around on a clockwise motion and makes a second pass the other side of Earth, then goes below our Galactic plane to the 9 position. It goes fully across and past our whole Galactic plane, arrives at 9 and goes into the Wesedak plane or Matrix, and can literally pull the whole thing down and under. In more practical or easier to understand terms is, what this means is a planetary body at least twice the size of Earth passing between Earth and the Sun, that is a problem. This is set in motion through activation of turnstiles, the turnstile grids. They were part of Atlantean mess that was put in, when Thoth agreed to turn part of the Nibirian data crystal grid that had belonged to them in the Phantom Matrix, turned part of that over to the Wesedak's. Right now as of 2002 they are running those frequencies, the Beast wasn't due to raise its nasty head until 2011. That was originally if the Stellar Activation Cycle progressed the way it was intended to, and 2012 was supposed to be the opening of the full house of Amenti Stargates. In 2011 was to activate the Beast, there are already groups on the planet that are being conned into creating manual physical technologies, that are needed to help anchor these frequencies. There is a group of ET's pretending they are the nice ET's they call themselves the Corteum, they have been working with the Wingmakers group in New Mexico. They were getting this Labyrinth group of humans to help them build certain technologies. Because they keep telling them there is this big bad invader races that is going to come in, and the only way to protect the planet is, by building these devices. But they are the invader race, talk about conning somebody, the people they are working with are the Wingmaker's Labyrinth project. They are humans like us and they think they are doing the right thing, and they are being taught to build the technologies to do the final anchoring on planet. A name that came up in the past was the ACIO, Alien Contact group said at the time to be off world and we had dismissed it as fake. The ACIO is actually a division of the NSA, and that is who the Wingmaker group are working with. I would suggest that is hasn't been and is not a good move. The NSA are closely linked via technology remember, with the CIA. Does the CIA exhibit human traits too often? or are they violent aggressors seeking to undermine and infiltrate vast areas of this planet. Two great question remains is, are the CIA, a play on words they use so often, like the PheoniCIAns? spell Pheonicians and CIA is part of it, or is the CIA a member of a race of beings called the CIAkars? HAARP was a part of this also, there are several installations, some of which are mobile versions. The invader race not mentioned are called the Animus race, a group of soulless aliens determined via breeding and genetics with us, said to wish to acquire souls for their bodies, in order to attain access to the higher dimensions. In the year 2011, a synthetic, soulless race of aliens known as the Animus are foreseen by the WingMakers to detect earth.

They are said to be from the Pleiades and from Alcyone. But here is another dot connector the 126 mile river from North of Silverton, that runs through Durango and South into New Mexico, goes through Cedar Hill, Aztec and ends in Farmington. The name of that river? The Animus. That river is nicknamed the river of souls or the river of lost souls, oh my. The Star Wars program instigated by Reagan and his clowns, was also a part of that as well, that got nixed and there is going to be certain things that are put in. We will probably see some advancement of, the need of or for some type of Star Wars type technology. Hence the recent Trump SSP program that is failing. The Space station stuff has all been part of this, because a bunch of the Illuminati head guys running around on planet, know we've been under invasion. That explains the greys seen inside the Space Station several times by one of the team. They have known it the 1930's and they know there is cataclysmic stuff potentially coming. They knew that because the other guys the Fallen Angelic's were planning on activating this, our guys are trying to stop it. To get to the point where this would not activate, we were doing well, so well that they activated it early. This brings in our Humanity Unplugged series based on a document in 1923, that was mentioned as the final warning to humanity. More on that later.

Three decades ago, mysterious artifacts were found that led to one of the most intriguing scientific and anthropological discoveries ever made. A secret, unacknowledged department of the NSA responsible for extraterrestrial contact and technology assimilation, took the discovery into their laboratory for the purposes of their own agenda. This secret organization is known as the Advanced Contact Intelligence Organization (ACIO) and has enjoyed complete anonymity until now. The discovery referred to by the ACIO as the Ancient Arrow project, consisted of 23 chambers and connecting tunnels hollowed out deep within a huge, natural rock structure in a remote canyon of northern New Mexico. That structure is Chaco Canyon is located between Farmington and Albuquerque, it is part of what is known as the Anasazi sites, that brings in Mesa Verde in Durango, the Aztec Ruins, Pueblo Arizona and Casa Grande Arizona. There are 24 Ancient Arrow trans-harmonic star-gate sites on earth, that were created by and originally belonged to the GA-Elohei and related Mashaya-hana Adashi Adept councils. But 7 of these 24 sites fell into the hands of the Wingmakers/Corteum non-fiction ET groups. Inside this massive and well-hidden structure, were incredible artifacts of a culture that was of indeterminate origins. In each of the 23 chambers were found wall paintings, various alien technologies, and strange encoded hieroglyphs. By most appearances, the discovery was like a natural history museum from an alien race. It became known among the researchers as ETC or Extraterrestrial Time Capsule. Because of carbon-dating analyses, it was initially assumed that this time capsule was left behind by extraterrestrials, that had visited earth in the 8th century AD. However, it wasn't until 1997 that the encoded language found within the site, and its artifacts became accessible to the ACIO. It was then that it was determined that the time capsule was actually designed, and built by a future version of humankind who were adept at interactive time travel. They called themselves, WingMakers. One of the scientists from the ACIO involved in developing the translation tables for the Ancient Arrow project, defected in December 1997, and has disclosed this secret project to a journalist named Anne. The scientist was Neruda who was working with the NSA. An underground base is created adjacent to the ACIO in order to accommodate the Corteum and the joint laboratory that will develop Blank Slate Technology. Headquartered near Palm Springs, California, this unusual joint venture sets off to create an interactive time travel technology that will enable the Labyrinth Group and the Corteum, to surgically modify time-based events with the ability to return to present time undetected. It is/was likely linked to Catalina Island, which did link back to Dulce at one point. Fifteen was the inspired visionary of BST, and began his preliminary designs at the age of 16. When he became the director of the ACIO, he learned of the Animus through several ancient manuscripts that had been recovered by the NSA.

Later, one of his directors in charge of Human Technologies, developed a means to amplify a specific psychic capability known as Remote Viewing. Using this technology, Fifteen confirmed the ancient prophecy of the Animus.

An essential and urgent application of BST was uncovered, divert the Animus from Earth. The Cor-teum have their own agenda for BST because of a vital need to salvage their planet's atmosphere, which, due to pollution, has forced the Cor-teum to live in underground cities. The Anunnaki and their brethren destroyed many planets atmosphere's by taking power from the Central Sun, this then killed the volcanoes on the planet, without volcanoes we have no atmosphere and no rain, so the planet begins to die. The Cor-teum hope to be able to use BST to reverse the death of their planet's atmosphere. In addition, they also desire to avoid detection by the Animus. BST is interactive time travel of being able to travel in vertical time without being detected, modify a causal event and return unharmed The ability to travel vertical time can be done without external technology, altering causal events when we are winning, is not in our best interests. It is the same as the Trustee, her and her handler boyfriend were stated to develop a time travel machine in the future. I warned her that would not happen and she would face grave consequences for attempting to do so. WELCOME TO THE MACHINE

This was a piece from Wes Penre and his input on it, with added pieces of insight from me. The following provides a logical and consistent summary, from an evaluation of the extensive information now available to the planet from extraterrestrial sources.

The author considers at least the principal features of this evaluation to the true, however, note the different versions. We all recall our history of scientific discovery in which the religious and popular notion that the Earth was the centre of the universe, was not only challenged by science but exposed as the product of primitive thinking and based on hugely limiting information.

We now accept that there are billions of other star systems, and that Earth is an apparently insignificant speck in the immense cosmos. It has come to light, however, through some of the better sources of extraterrestrial information now available, that Earth is in fact playing a central role in a massive drama involving the interests of billions of other civilizations. It has been stated that some 400,000 different ET's are interested in Earth and this is part of a larger observation including billions of races, ranging from material and physical dimensions to higher-frequency realms. Thus spiritually, Earth is the centre of attention in this almost inconceivable drama, even to any science-fiction writer, involving levels of purpose beyond our full comprehension. Most of this information came from the Explorer Series of books by Shapiro, except where otherwise stated. The purpose of this negative/positive duality was to provide more probabilities and alternatives, in particular, the choice to live an expression in opposition to harmony and perfection, if one so chooses. Thus negativity, selfishness, control, greed was made available. There is emphasis on free choice. The full scope, however, of this plan did not take effect equally amongst civilizations. Most races chose not to become involved with exploring negativity. These civilizations did not go through problem solving, to attain their state of relative perfection and blissful existence. They remained in close connection with their mass mind and Source, and did not venture into a reality of separateness (ego-development), isolation and conflict, which is the nature of the shadow side. We are talking about civilizations which have continued in a state of perfect harmony, synchronistic, holographic societies, for possibly millions of years. Existences based more on the magnetic energy, as opposed to the electric or, in other words, the feminine principle of total benevolence. Such a race knows about negativity, the shadow side, hatred, greed, etc. but has no experience of it, and no familiarity with such events, no experience of mistakes and consequences. Negativity is simply shelved or kept on one side. There is sufficient awareness amongst such a race that, it not only does not wish to experience discomfort as with Earth today, but knows how to avoid it, although not in our case. Of course there will always be races of neutral non-masculine and non-feminine beings living in harmony, more easily achieved without the separation of genders, the magnetic feminine energies and the electrical masculine energies. A situation arises in which pockets of negativity build up around the universe. That is describing the Day and Night of Svarog. That is, some negative probabilities have been activated but not selected by these particular civilizations, of which such races are in abundance, meaning not confronting it but able to avoid it, though not in our case. In my opinion this is due to certain technologies moving our solar system into these negative spaces, our own planet has moved at least 4 times, given we had a calendar of 13 months of 20 days, that is a 260 day traverse around the sun, meaning we were closer in then. This avoidance of the trash in the universe becomes an embarrassment and a limitation to these civilizations, whose individuals' intelligence quotient may range into several hundred, and who enjoy a perfect technology and blissful existence. There are of course other planets, though in the minority which are involved with problems, that is, have taken on various limitations but usually not to the degree that Earth has. Nevertheless some of these civilizations have been known to not only destroy themselves, but also the planet which would fragment or implode. For example, Maldek, a planet once in our solar system between Mars and Jupiter, having been fragmented is now the asteroid belt. Also, according to channeling there was a small planet in Sirius, that imploded a few years ago owing to extreme negativity of the population. That which was originally set up as the control group for the human race, with its dangers from exploring negativity and unresolved problems. I believe this is technology created damage by the dark forces, and is not a reflection of the beings inhabiting that world. Remember the Black Sun elements wants to destroy all traces of life. The human race, before the so-called fall of man, volunteered for this experiment, to go through the trash, molecule by molecule. The agreement took place at the mass-mind level prior to full fragmentation and individuation of the civilization. The beings who were participators or onlookers in this dangerous experiment, which was recognized as one which could go wrong or at least result in extreme pain and suffering, were not unanimously in favor of it. Nevertheless, the fall of man was arranged, involving the Luciferic energies. All this would appear natural or accidental as though it was a mistake. Note that we are using Luciferic in a more general sense, depicting the distortions in consciousness arising from excess masculine energy. The problem was to bring man down from a higher-dimensional spectrum of frequencies to a third-dimensional spectrum. Since the human experiment also was to include the development of independence, the Luciferic energies initially manifested as a positive intention. That of enticing the members of the human race away from, the security of perfect unity and benevolence the product of connectedness to Source. Experiment my ass, this was another seducement program done by the dark forces to trick man into getting into the pods. Man stayed in the pods for 10K years whilst they raped and pillaged us, our ideas, our technology, our planet and our codes. Why do you think the term "sleepers" was introduced into the Alt Media? Emphasis on self was encouraged rather than operating for the greatest good and service to others, but which resulted in a selfish ego-development. The separation had gone beyond the optimal level for individuality. Nevertheless this provided the desired condition for exploring all consequences of actions. All the unresolved problems from the billions of civilizations in the universe were being recreated on planet Earth. All mistakes and consequences experienced, all facets of negativity and all aspects of evil. Black Sun again, the return of the Messiah heralds the end, and they think it can be escalated by turning the planet dark and negative. The Luciferic energy was only supposed to give about two percent discomfort to the human race, but the effect of the excessive masculine component from this Luciferic energy, created a distortion within the masculine energy, causing humans to amplify all negativity. Ah the 2% figure, the same figure President Eisenhower signed up the American public for, alien abduction, they lied about that as well. Note that there have been many 'falls' of man. Regarding the above brief references to Luciferic energies, also in other articles in which Lucifer, the individual and fallen angelic, has been related from Explorer-book material, the Guardians more specific description of the manifestation of this Luciferic source is as follows. The derivation of the name Lucifer is tied in with, the Nibiruian Lulitan family of Thoth-Enki Zeta Anunnaki, the Satain family of Marduke-Anunnaki, Necromitons the fallen Seraphim. Races from Nibiru, Sirius B, Alpha Centauri, emerged from this Anunnaki hybridization of 1, 2, and 3. This collective group became known as the Luciferian's, and were joined by other race lines such as the Illuminati. There was also a Luciferian conquest in 10,500 BC, resulting in the remaining Atlantean islands being taken over by the Anu-Melchizedek, the Anunnaki/human hybrid from Neanderthal man, and also the Jehovian Anunnaki control. The main fall according to the Guardians was half a billion years ago, from the higher harmonic universe to our 3D Earth. However, the original downfall the original sin was some 250 billion years ago. In addition, there was the Luciferic Rebellion in 25,500 BC in which Anunnaki and Necromitons from Alpha Centauri, and Zetas and Anunnaki from Nibiru, set up their Nibiru Diodic Crystal under but before the time of Stonehenge. It was energized by Wormwood (Planet X), which has resulted in merkabas of basic energy-spiral mechanics to reverse, creating shadow selves and severe DNA mutations of life forms on Earth. I know Ashayne covers the merkabas, and that was one of the reasons I criticized her in 2010 to 2014 time, that shouldn't reflect on her earlier work. But I personally have a mistrust of all merkabas, tree of life and tree of death or da'ath, smacks of another duality choice of two sides of the same coin. But, given how they have destroyed and manipulated everything in history, how can we trust them? It is like the mantras, the chants, the symbols, the spell casting by the misuse of words, if words are not used correctly it becomes an anagram of sword, and swords can cut you. Of course, humans having come down into the third-dimensional spectrum of frequencies, an arena for the creation of problems, gave the negative forces a heyday. This was more their level and they could draw parasitically on the average human's energies. Yes, the energy harvesting game played on us, and praying to fake AI sky gods. Different tools are used today by the dark forces, to prevent man's ascension from a third-dimensional spectrum to a fourth-dimensional one. Here are some the aspects they have used to dampen us. Behavioral negativity manifests in humans who are used as puppets and pawns. The degradation of art and music is occurring, that is to dampen our creativity, humans not being creative equals devolution, we must remain creative to overcome that program. Education is based on left-brain development only, is that the left hand path of Set? We have an ego-oriented and dead, quantitative science, confining reality to 3D only, unless you develop yourself. There is suppression of spirituality, emotion and the feminine energy, which our group is working on to address. We have a religion which acknowledges a nonexistent external God, indeed. The principal force behind these negative sources are apparently from four main groups of aliens, the Anunnaki, the Dracos and Necromitons, and the Zeta/Greys, but also including countless hybrids. They have the technology to modulate the frequencies of mass consciousness, in fact, reconnect the individuals of the human race with their collective. That is the biblical rubbish of let us make man in our image rhetoric. According to some channeling the Zeta group those of lower dimensions, has a somewhat unnatural single mind collective which does not accommodate individuality. Is that why the Ukrainians use the letter Z, for the Zetas? who are the Zionists? We might even compare this human's absorption of consciousness, with that of the human's assimilation into the Borg collective of the Star Trek series. These aliens control the corresponding Illuminati human groups, which is related to the Neanderthal man. Why are the aliens here? Firstly they represent a minority compared with the overseeing enlightened ET's and spiritual beings. That I struggle to believe in that as being a fact, given the lack of progress over many millennia. That is not a sleight on those who I know have helped and indeed are helping. The Dracos believe they have rights to planet Earth since they are human/Drakon hybrids, and recognize that humans came from other planets originally. The Zetas/Greys or a portion of them, believe they need planet Earth for their survival. In addition, and along with minor groups of renegade and pirate aliens, the Earth is a rich source of minerals, ores, oil, quartz, sand, and water for these plundering ET's. Hence the term cor-pirate. The Zetas main agenda has been to create a human/Zeta hybrid which can exist and survive on Earth, to aid their planetary takeover and enslavement. The Zetas can't tolerate carbon and oxygen, hence the potential of what I warned about in 2013 in relation to the chemtrails. CATCH THE RAINBOW

Whilst all this piece is of interest, I will ask you all to draw special attention to this next short section. It will require afterwards a deep pondering upon, as it affects each and everyone of us on a scale unimaginable to most, if not us all. Recognizing it, processing it, healing it will become an essential tool for all of our members, to enable us all to go on an upward trajectory. Upon delving into this material by frequency, it has given me an understanding of a much wider picture, and a stark realization of why I am doing this, where I have been and why, where I am and why, and where we are headed and why. I and we are on a journey of an undetermined time-space event, that is a process of progression, it is not a sprint but more a marathon on a rugged and lonely path, currently it is the few but maybe more can join us in and out of time. In addition to these reasons for the alien interest in Earth, is their greatest desire, was that of controlling the spectacular network of dimensional time portals around and within the planet. The layman can think of these like the science fiction or physicist's wormholes if it helps. Wormholes are false created time travel type devices, as we have found out. Earth is anchored to one of the 12 coordination energy centers, think of junction boxes of the Universal Templar Complex which Earth's surface portals can access, and is what the quest for the Holy Grail is all about. There have been endless wars amongst ET's and angelic humans. Thus within this larger agenda, of exploring all probabilities outlined above, are vital and other significant problems being explored. In particular, a resolution of these wars to determine who will take control over Earth's valuable time-portal system the Planetary Templar Complex, a coveted piece of real estate and ultimately the Universal Templar Complex. These star gates or spiritual doorways enable beings not only to go from Earth to many parts of the universe instantly, but also to move vertically into higher harmonic universes. Which brings in what I have said on the shows, about the Vertical no time axis, as linear is the loop. To be in control of this vital multi connected junction' complex Earth, would be covetously strategic to say the least. If, however, a critical mass of the population wakes up to what is occurring and becomes sufficiently informed, the alien's agenda will fail. That is underway and progressing nicely from an overview perspective, the personal perspective will only bring worry and fear, both of which reside of the lower vibration field. This awakening and consciousness expansion of man will place the human race, in a frequency spectrum sufficient to inhibit the frequency fence, the aliens plan for Earth forcing individuals to lock into their collective. That was the veil, which we know now is collapsing. In the meantime the human race is endeavoring to ascend its consciousness to a fourth-dimensional spectrum, to resolve its duality into unity consciousness, and in turn resolve the universe duality as originally planned before the fall of man. According to the Explorer books, an additional purpose

besides the requirement of resolving the duality, is that man succeeds in evolving to the fourth-dimensional spectrum while still in body, to make the higher-spiritual frequencies compatible with the biology level. This is in itself considered unprecedented in the history of the universe. One usually evolves into a higher frequency body by dying to the one below, that is, through normal death and then taking on a different energy format. However, if we go back far enough, according to the Guardian Alliance material we were set up with a 12-strand DNA, giving immortality to the body via a series of steps of evolution without discontinuities or changing bodies. Unfortunately the aliens, the Anunnaki and Drakonians, in particular, engineered our existing DNA mutations and the subsequent death cycles. Immortality is the Metatronic coding, we need the birth and death cycle in an eternal body format, not an immortal. Immortal is a death sentence in essence and a devolution into the dark, it is cheating Source and then their egos make them believe they are the Source. The relatively small proportion of negativity we originally agreed to, was in fact to take on the DNA distortions of negative ET's. They wished to be rehabilitated with the purpose of realigning their DNA, but also realigning the corresponding planetary energies in the grid system. Which is part of the fulfillment of the Christos Realignment Mission in our time matrix, and the restoration of the Divine Blueprint. Does the new blueprint for humanity now have a greater meaning? The salient feature of the New-Age material is the ascension of man from 3D to 4D and 5D, while generally still in a biological body. I disagree, the new age was a program of the repeated savior program, the savior programs are external of us and have never worked. We cannot carry on repeated failed programs and hope to progress. I am not sure whether Blavatsky who was part of the doctrine that created the New Age cult, was even human. Said to have been Russian, yet also linked to Ukraine, sounds much to me like Hebrew Anunnaki. If we examine the Guardian material on this, we see a correspondence, though the precise mechanics are given in this case. The Earth was set up with additional inner portals called the Halls of Amenti, enabling humans to bodily ascend through these spiritual gate-ways, to the upper parallel planet Tara of 4D, 5D and 6D without having to wait until death. This option is now available to anyone who can match these frequencies of the Halls of Amenti, this was the real exit Jesheua 12 took when leaving Earth. Those frequencies are limited to the few at this point, I suspect it is the same few frequency based people that can access certain underground vaults. It is a protection mechanism to stop unevolved beings accessing stuff that they are not ready for. Those that think they can access the vaults, all died instantaneously due to the wrong frequency. I warned of that back in 2014, when Keenan and his CIA clown entourage was going to access them, yeah right, Keenan is a derivative of the Kennedy's, who were Black Sun. Those peoples and entities will never have the right frequency to enter those vaults. There are easier routes to more secure dimensions through the Guardian's Bridge Zone, facilitated by the Arc of the Covenant Zone, and Host Matrix of Indigos the temporary adoptive collective, enabling many more citizens to ascend. The bridge zone we have referenced in the past, the great leap of faith, not religious faith, but your inner faith. Countless civilizations

throughout the universe are interested in the outcome of the human race experiment and mission, since the resolution of the universe duality will bring considerable benefits to them. This is why this planet is special, it is the Nexus planet for the development of not only ourselves, but many other beings, planets, solar systems and Galaxies. The original idea which began this vast experiment according to Zoosh was that, something like a ten times expansion of consciousness can be achieved, by subjecting the soul level to tension. This has been experienced now in all its facets by the human race, and this data-processing of the unresolved problems and negativity throughout the universe results in an experiential body of data, which is broadcast to the other billions of races via the human unconscious. This enables them to tap into this experiential knowledge and gain the wisdom and expansion on a controlled basis, without having to risk the pain and suffering which humans went through and are still continuing with, not having awakened in sufficient numbers for critical-mass requirement to produce change. The valid aspects of the New Age would be to essentially awaken man to the fact, that he has overdone the data-processing of problems and discomfort, which has resulted in extreme pain and suffering, and it is overdue to bring it to an end. To realize this third dimension is not the only reality, and the experiment is over. Negative influences, however, including some New-Age channellings are operating through normal people and have taken such a firm hold that, man is in effect hypnotized into this condition of negativity and is perpetuating it. Currently the apparently increasing negativity on Earth, is supposedly an indication of the transformation of the subconscious into consciousness. All repression, deception and secrecy are surfacing as the species prepares to shift from a third-dimensional spectrum to fourth and fifth-dimensional, but the negativity is also under continuous regeneration from the interference, and infiltration of aliens creating a complex agenda of different categories of ascension status. The solution? remain positive at all times, yes it is difficult given the testing times we face, but all it needs is, a change of mind or heart set. Negativity becomes all too natural for too many, change that aspect within you, and you are literally changing the world, the dynamics and the paradigm. IT'S ALL INSIDE OF YOU

Final summary of these pieces, that has delivered more of the truth to more people on the planet, to enable many more to change their ways to something infinitely better. This is what we have been doing and focusing on in THI and TPC, you see I told you we didn't have to fight them, just fight ourselves into a better pattern and mode. Religion has been shredded and torn asunder by this truth, it doesn't belong on our planet anymore. At best it stifles development via externalizing things, at worst it is an evil program beyond all heinous levels of darkness. It has proven there are no countries, like the people all mere pawns in a game of unimaginable proportions. Our naivety has been used against us, those that have listened to this series, no longer have that excuse. Ignorance was a choice they said, not no more it isn't. As we have seen, we have to do a 180 turn on almost everything and anything that has gone before, that is our role and goal of The Peoples

Club. A new blueprint for a new humanity, devoid of off world controllers, evil minions and the technology based agendas. I suspect the Beast is no more as I will reveal shortly, but are the Anunnaki armies running Zuckerberg and many others at Palo Alto, trying to create another version of the Metatronic coding via their Meta platform? Many, far too many experiments and Alliances went wrong, for the same reason we have to correct ourselves. Low self worth and insecurity breeds ego imbalance, and the desire to portray yourself as something above and beyond yourself, and all others. God this Goddess that, King, Queen and all other titles, are as fake as glass eye. Why would a crown of creation need stupid titles? For further evidence of that being a decline, look at the letter based sexuality groups, beyond pathetic and child level. I am a letter B, L or G well how fantastic is that, did you get a Blue Peter badge for that? It is an absolute sacrilege and a failure to recognize who and what you really are, when you understand that, you will "see". Look what it did to the Trustee, for evidence of that statement, she was warned she didn't listen. There are examples even in this two part piece of people going astray, for their own self importance, which is ego. I call it the hidden hook for a reason, and my ethos is to not be important, but to do important work, that is what defines me and hopefully us all. The line never put anyone above your own heart, is a must going forward for us all. And so the experiments went wrong, and we are left with an almighty mess to clean up and resolve. Peoples, species and races all divided and fighting each other, in a dark greed, power and control game that went too far for all of those involved. Much of what I have been involved in, is about bringing people of differing creations together and to work in harmony. That has to be a remit of us all, yes there is genetic DNA memory of us fighting each other long into the past, and why so many peoples don't like or trust each other, you only have to see the different humans on this planet to see that as a fact. Where are you at now in terms of your heart space? Do you continue your path of hating, mistrusting or disliking others? Has that served you or us well? No one group has ever done all things right, that is why we are all here and now, to fix the mess we have all created. If at this point your head space is saying, but it was them and you real off names of who were the problem, you are not in the right heart space, you operate from the head mind space, which is ego and we are back to the hidden hook again. Remember the line from earlier shows? All who were here in the beginning, are here now. Why? to correct the past, that includes you. Who and what you were is irrelevant, what are you now? where are you now? what is your path? does you have to change? will you change? to answer those questions requires you to have deep levels of truth, honor and integrity. Some will see this as a total shitshow and wish to leave, leave behind your own mess? is that not what failed for us all in the past? Can't face reality? can't face situations? can't face the truth? can't face evil? how are you going to evolve by not overcoming those hurdles? I see it differently, I see a massive opportunity to bring all the failed experiments come together as one. An end to hierarchy, an end to greed, an end to wars and fighting, and end of scarcity and existing, into a living breathing and thriving Galactic Community that we can all be proud of. War and fighting has not worked for any group, lets try something different I said back in 2013, it is beginning to take shape, not only on this world, but many others. It is a fantastic opportunity to now reveal the real truth, but revealing the truth is a two way transaction between me and you, the key is, what do you do with that truth and or information? Do you sit there and marvel at it, throw barbs at it or get off your back side and do something positive with it? Will you ponder on manifesting a better you, a better world, a better solar system, a better Galaxy and a better Universe? But I am but one person, yes and so I am, so was Jesheua 12 and every other teacher, all of them no different to you all, what is your role and thinking now? Do you wish to be a part of something far bigger than us all? that works towards peace, cooperation, sincerity, humility, compassion and the higher frequency based vibration, we call love? Much has been done in terms of technology in the past decade to clear the path, and I am reminded of a mission report from back in November 2015, that is eerily similar to the description of the Beast and the 12 gates connected to it, which becomes another 12+1 event. Maybe that is when the Beast failed and went down? Do you still think you don't have a role to play in all of this? I will end tonight with an earlier quote. This is why this planet is special, it is the Nexus planet for the development of not only ourselves, but many other beings, planets, solar systems and Galaxies. Do you understand what I have just said? Everyone is counting on us, what an enormous realization and responsibility that is. Will you rise up or will you buckle like you have always done. Will you finally put on your adult pants and be the Crown of creation you were born for? The time for being a child and waiting for or wishing child level savior programs is over. Now is our time, your time, no time to take the responsibility to enable us all to move back to the level where we belong. THInk and act different has a whole new meaning now, truth, honor and integrity has a whole new meaning now, and The Peoples Club has a whole new meaning, direction, path and paradigm now. WE MOVE AS ONE
