THIS IS THE HUNT This show will be very deep, it will likely trigger you at many points within the show. It may bring up past life memories, it will cause you to question reality on a much deeper level, and bring a thousand more questions for people, in particular two just down the road from here. It is another massive dot connector on a wide scale, and will likely require several listens to understand the enormity of it. We have covered many times within our shows, these types of revealing's, but perhaps this one fully explains what is unfolding here and now. The saying of how life imitates art conjures up vivid imaginations of how life manifests or creates art, and that can certainly be the case as this description shows. Anti-mimesis is a philosophical position that holds the direct opposite of Aristotelian mimesis. Its most notable proponent is Oscar Wilde, who opined in his 1889 essay The Decay of Lying that, Life imitates art far more than art imitates life. The question pondered in this show is: is art dictating life? In the essay, written as a Platonic dialogue, Wilde holds that anti-mimesis, results not merely from life's imitative instinct, but from the fact that the self-conscious aim of life is to find expression, and that art offers it certain beautiful forms through which it may realize that energy. What is found in life and nature is not what is really there, but is that which artists have taught people to find there, through art. Mimesis means two things; A: representation or imitation of the real world in art and literature and, B: the deliberate imitation of the behavior of one group of people by another group as a factor in social change. Think of that last line in terms of the Earthly minions and their fake gods. But mimesis, is very similar to meme is it not? A meme the realm of the computer world is an influencer, and if influenced by the wrong people and promoted via the algorithmic machines, becomes a mind control theme for the masses to follow. This is a story of how the arts mirrors or imitates life, or to put it more bluntly, how the arts dictates life. The tv and video industries have used those vehicles to drive certain plans and get the public to go along with them, after all it is only theater and film right? It is not real, it's just a movie or a show? But is it? I warned last week of how technology terms is now taking over the church-based terminology and indeed the etymology of words. The world of television and movies are driving that change. In essence the tv and movie producers, most of which is ran by the Jewish EL-ite cartel, have become the new version of the biblical prophecy makers. Except, those biblical prophecies where not prophecies at all, it was a plan. They knew the cyclical nature of time, and eventually everything repeats itself due to the loop. So, what is the loop? It is a period of time. Science tells you that an age of period according to the Mayan calendar is 13k and 26K years, $1+3 = 4$, 4 repeated twice equals an 8, $2+6 = 8$ also. So why is the 8 important? Because it is a mobius loop and anything inside of the loop is trapped within it, as it has no opening or gate for progression. It is a closed stagnating loop of time. The mobius loop a popular New Age symbol said to be of peace, but not serene type of peace, but a piece of us, same pronunciation, far different meaning. Of peace will become more clear further into this piece. So, if you are repeating life cycles in a loop-based environment, events and history always repeats, it cannot do anything new. To have something new happen, then requires an external input, but the mobius loop is a system that is enclosed, and so, there is nothing new under the sun is the saying. That is correct in a loop-based system, and so it requires an external force to come into the system to then change the dynamics within it. That is what has unfolded here on this planet, in particular over the last 60-70 years. Souls have come in to not play their game, but to change the game, and subsequently time. This planet has been stuck in a time matrix for a very long time. For those new, the real cycle not the loop is a period of 12960 years, not 13K. Two cycles equals 25920 years, not 26k. notice both figures equals a nine, which is representative of an open spiral, which means it has an open gate for progression. Humanity here got stuck inside of a time matrix within a time matrix, that is your mobius loop. Each half cycle lasted 13K years, the full one 26k years, that was the complete circumnavigation around the mobius loop. At the end of the 26K years, there was a small time period at the end where there was a possibility of breaking the loop and humanity escaping. But every time it was closed and the opportunity was missed, which put humanity into two other full cycles that lasted 78K years. 78k years just happens to be the earliest amount of time one can create the Mayan calendar, coincidence? Because someone had to chart the whole star cycle for 26K and then realize within the 26-52K year period there was a possible pattern with the 1-26K year cycle, and then the 53-78K would confirm that it is all a repeating loop. How life works is also based on the Mayan calendar, conveniently in 13 baktuns in a step pyramid fashion, again not a coincidence. If say the 1st baktun lasts for 15m years, all the events that took place on that baktun, would repeat in the 2nd baktun, which may last for 1.5M years. The events would appear to be happening more quickly and things are getting worse, and also it would be perceived that, time is speeding up, that was the illusion. Time in the loop is constant you see. The Mayans were given that technology by off-world entities that have been controlling us here for a very long time. All the tribal peoples have been corrupted by these off-world gods, duped and played like a pawn in a much larger game than people can imagine. Our recent piece of the Hopi mating with the ant people, confirms not only engaging with them, but mating with them as well. Why is the mating aspect important, because when you go through our Cosmic Genetics series this year, it reveals why the mating took place, it gave them a foothold here. Once they began to look like us, they could merge with us and blend in. Not everyone here is human, an unbelievable statement to make in a disbelieving world. But what if it is true? Do we all look the same? Why are we all different colors? Is that not a pointer? Regardless of what science and the authorities will tell you. Since when have they consistently told us the truth? Round earth and flat earth debates, trust the science with the medical mind-control and death jabs. All life came out of Africa? No, just the Anunnaki life came out of Africa is the real true story. The church which controls science remember since the 1500's, tells us life began here 6K years ago. Yeah right, that is as much of a comical statement as the Egyptian's built the pyramids 5.5K years ago. A bunch of unadvanced hunter gatherers, suddenly developed, math's, science, engineering, building skills and a view from several miles above the planet to pinpoint its location, to build something we cannot build allegedly 5.5K years on. Despite all our technology in terms of mechanical tools and computer systems that design it for you to build it. We cannot build it now to that tolerance level of the angles created back then. For those new, the pyramids were built in 48KBC by an off-world species. THE VISITORS

The story of V: A group of off world entities suddenly arrived and were called the Visitors, they arrive in 29 ships and park in 29 cities, $2+9=11$ not a coincidence. Their first visit down to Earth in reptilian cigar-based ships was? The UN and New York. The US was first landing, in the past the u was written as a V, is it vs? which can be determined as, us vs. them, or vs is short for visitors. Following some initial chatter between the visitors and the people, a formal introduction was made and engagements between the two species unfolded. The V's made promises to deliver healing technology and other Earthly improvements, that was the seduction program, that always hides something sinister whether on or off world. They began offering healing centers, which was all very med bed like to me, and producing some sort of miracle cure called r-6, is that reptile 6? R6 has a molecular compound that embeds itself into human DNA, it interacts with a human genome, then emits a wavelength of sorts, like a transmission. Remember the series started in 2009, one year before Project Lockstep plan was unfolded. The series stated that Anna was tagging humans like animals in the wild. Tagging is another computer term also, that started in computer terms in 2007. But it began much earlier than that. In the 1950s, radio telemetry transformed tagging. It allowed a tagged animal to broadcast its presence with a radio signal, scientists carried around a receiver and the antenna would pick up the signals from a tag. That allowed scientists to pinpoint the location of a tagged animal. "Anna was "tagging" humans like animals in the wild." Does that cross-reference now with the Covid passports and apps? "R6 has a molecular compound that embeds itself into human dna, it interacts with a human genome, then emits a wavelength of sorts, like a transmission." Does that cross-reference with the Covid vaccines? They then used a product called RN-3 to cure sickness and they were mixing it into flu jabs. Remember during Covid, flu disappeared. Is life mirroring art? Or is art dictating life? RN means nurse, but also is a robot terminology, like R2D2. The V's came and introduced themselves and presented themselves as the saviors, particularly in relation to human health. They worked with the media to create fear, so everyone would run out and get the shot from the visitors. The V's said they were counting on our predictability, ya see the patterns they always repeat, unless you think and act different. At this point it should be noted that, a number of crafts have hovered over all the major cities including New York, which is not a coincidence, and not one Military war machine or soldier attended to them, no cordoned off areas, no Military presence, not DEF-CON warnings, no martial Law declared or Emergency. Does that reveal that the Militaries were in on it? Where was the CIA in this show? Why were they not included in the proceedings, is it because they are in on it as well? Remember we reported that the CIA have the most strains of the Covid virus, and still do, one has to ask why? Sometimes it is the case of not what they reveal, but who or what they leave out. V's then came concerned that some of them were becoming human like, not just in terms of looks, but the human emotions. This then raises concerns of the intent behind the de-humanizing the EL-ite children via the MK Ultra programs. Whereby they try to remove any compassion, love or empathy via what is known by our group as the Svali training. It was not training, it was re-training children into something they are supposed to experience on this planet. For more details on that if you can stomach it, listen to Illuminati I and II. The V's have what is called the bliss, which is a new age style mind control program, designed to keep everyone in line. The line; we can't have our people showing empathy or bliss, because if they unify they become a threat. This plays into their greatest fear that pervades them every day of the year, the populace coming together, because if they do, it is all over for these entities and their minions. Talk about synchronicity, there was an advert in episode 1-3 for eHarmony, which is indicative of the last part, where it said something completely out of alignment with the advert itself, this was my clue. It said; she is the blueprint. The great question at this point is; who is the she? Who will step up into the role without ego, personal gain or blinded by cor-pirate money earning programs? In relation to the MK Ultra training mentioned earlier, have you noticed the so-called EL-ites all have a very vacant look? Funny eyes? Blackened eyes? And not to mention the black eyes so many of them have been seen with over the past decade. Are the black eyes the symbiotes? Maybe this next section in the show reveals why. A metallic bug was then inserted in the eye of someone who wouldn't cooperate, this then takes over the host and they can then get answers. This is the symbiote dating back to Ra and Apophis, it became the eye of providence, Ra and Horus. The early pharaohs were part of it, the later pharaohs copied it with make up to look like the gods. A symbiote is an organism living in symbiosis with another, in other words host possession. A search on symbiote brought up smart electric energy devices, one of the distributors of such devices? Wuhan Radarking Electronics Corp, what a coincidence. Symbiot without the e on the end, brings up symb iot, iot is the internet of things. Symbiotes were used in nearly all of the Marvel Comic characters. The character Knull creating the first of his symbiote-army. The Symbiotes are a species of inorganic, amorphous, symbiotic extraterrestrials created from the living abyss at the beginning of the universe by the primordial deity Knull, who manifested a sword of living darkness called All-Black from his shadow to slaughter the Celestials and other deities. Notice it begins with a K again, inorganic, ET's, the living abyss is the void, but can also describe the bubbles in the Universe. Sword called all-black from his shadow? All black = black sun, and why it is important to heal and integrate your shadows. Next there was an incident in relation to medical tech help from the V's, whereby the governments and lead officials all blocked it, due to concern the economy was failing. Because V's provided it for free. This echoes the cancer cartel, worth somewhere around $200B a year, and is projected to reach $272B a year by 2050. They had the cures in 1927, and have kept it away from the public. What does that tell you? Money is more important than health or cures, it is a racket industry. Yet, people trust these hospitals and their staff without questioning? In overview, that is utter madness. The next line should send chills and resonate with you all, it said; the visitors infiltrated the police, FBI, the government and every aspect of human life. This echoes what I have said all along, they have run in every department of our health, governance, security and social services. Perhaps eugenics and planned parenthood we did in FHSTOS part 4, now makes even more sense. Is life mirroring art? Or is art dictating life? One of the central characters to this show was Agent Evans son who hooked up with Anna's daughter Lisa played by Laura Vandervoort, who just happens to be a favorite of mine, pity she played a V. Was this also a reference, the pretty blonde to the Procyons? His name was Tyler, Tyler is derived from Freemasonry and in the original 1984 series also had a Tyler as the central character, Ham Tyler. Ham of course comes from Noah, the same Noah with the scaly skin we referenced in Volume 2 of our book which is coming out soon. The 3 sons of Noah dawned on me this week could possibly be referenced in the 3 inscription letters on Jesus symbols, IHS, which could be Isis, Horus and Set. But could it be Japheth, Ham and Shem? Remember there was no letter J, it was represented as an I, and so it would be Iapheth, Ham and Shem and so IHS.

We go back to the medical applications in the show, and this next section focuses on a regular household product that has become part of our staple diet per se, but should we trust it? Yes, I am about to ruin something else, that product is salt. Salt: The R-6 tracker it was said, masks itself in humans as? Saline. Which brings into question the alleged saline jabs instead of the Covid jabs does it not? Which may explain the overdosing of salt in our food, and how salt has become an addiction of sorts. I have never added salt to my meals since the age of around 12, perhaps back then I instinctively knew why. Here is some background to salt, how it became popular and more importantly from our perspective, why? Salt is essential for life in general, and saltiness is one of the basic human tastes. Salt is one of the oldest and most ubiquitous food seasonings, and is known to uniformly improve the taste perception of food, including otherwise unpalatable food. The taste perception of unpalatable food, is that not another version of masking? Salting, brining and pickling are also ancient and important methods of food preservation. Some of the earliest evidence of salt processing dates to around 6,000 BC, when people living in the area of present-day Romania boiled spring water to extract salts; a salt-works in China dates to approximately the same period. Here is a list of group who wanted salt the most in the past, does it become indicative? Salt was also prized by the ancient Hebrews, Greeks, Romans, Byzantines, Hittites, Egyptians and Indians. What a who's who that is from our series From His story to our story, plus the Cosmic Genetics series that will be Volume 3 of our book. Salt became an important article of trade and was transported by boat across the Mediterranean Sea, along specially built salt roads and across the Sahara on camel caravans. The scarcity and universal need for salt have led nations to go to war over it and use it to raise tax revenues. War and taxes, all very EL-ite that is. Salt is used in religious ceremonies and has other cultural and traditional significance. Excessive salt consumption may increase the risk of cardiovascular diseases, such as hypertension in children and adults. Because consuming too much sodium increases risk of cardiovascular diseases, health organizations generally recommend that people reduce their dietary intake of salt. High sodium intake is associated with a greater risk of stroke, total cardiovascular disease and kidney disease. Let's recap a bit there; salt increase stroke, cardiovascular disease and kidney issues. Which is all very Covid jabs like side effects, yet some are suggesting that some of the jabs are just saline. Yet the R-6 tracker potion it was said, masks itself in humans as saline. "Anna was "tagging" humans like animals in the wild." "R6 has a molecular compound that embeds itself into human DNA, it interacts with a human genome, then emits a wavelength of sorts, like a transmission." They then used RN-3 to cure sickness and was mixing it into flu jabs. Can you see the connections now?

A reduction in sodium intake by 1,000 mg per day may reduce cardiovascular disease by about 30 percent. In adults and children with no acute illness, a decrease in the intake of sodium from the typical high levels reduces blood pressure. A low sodium diet results in a greater improvement in blood pressure in people with hypertension. In the Middle East, salt was used to ceremonially seal an agreement, and the ancient Hebrews made a "covenant of salt" with God and sprinkled salt on their offerings to show their trust in him. Another covenant with god, which one, I guess by now you all know. An ancient practice in time of war was salting the earth: scattering salt around in a defeated city to prevent plant growth. The Bible tells the story of King Abimelech who was ordered by God to do this at Shechem, and various texts claim that the Roman general Scipio Aemilianus Africanus ploughed over and sowed the city of Carthage with salt after it was defeated in the Third Punic War (146 BC). Salt was included among funeral offerings found in ancient Egyptian tombs from the third millennium BC. In Africa, salt was used as currency south of the Sahara, and slabs of rock salt were used as coins in Abyssinia. The word salary comes from the Latin word for salt. The word salad literally means salted, and comes from the ancient Roman practice of salting leaf vegetables. Oh the vegans, or is it the vaygans? All housed in the Vegas on Earth, called Las Vegas, which means The Vega's. Wars have been fought over salt. Venice fought and won a war with Genoa over the product, and it played an important part in the American Revolution. Cities on overland trade routes grew rich by levying duties, and towns like Liverpool in the UK flourished on the export of salt extracted from the salt mines of Cheshire. Various governments have at different times-imposed salt taxes on their peoples. The voyages of Christopher Columbus are said to have been financed from salt production in southern Spain, and the oppressive salt tax in France was one of the causes of the French Revolution. After being repealed, this tax was re-imposed by Napoleon when he became emperor to pay for his foreign wars, and was not finally abolished until 1946. In 1930, Mahatma Gandhi led a crowd of 100,000 protestors on the Dandi March or Salt Satyagraha, during which they made their own salt from the sea as a demonstration of their opposition to the colonial salt tax. This act of civil disobedience inspired numerous Indians and transformed the Indian independence movement, from an elitist one with little popular support into a national struggle. The bulk of the salt consumed comes from processed food, which was added since 1924, yes the time period we covered in part 4 of FHSTOS. It was added back then because it was said to improve our health, remember they added fluoride to our water to improve our health as well. It didn't, it just made people more docile. Salt has long held an important place in religion and culture. At the time of Brahmanic sacrifices, in Hittite rituals and during festivals held by Semites and Greeks at the time of the new moon, salt was thrown into a fire where it produced crackling noises. The ancient Egyptians, Greeks and Romans invoked their gods with offerings of salt and water and some people think this to be the origin of Holy Water in the Christian faith. Which kind of makes more sense, yet another tribute to the fake gods done by their disciples in the churches. In Aztec mythology, Huixtocihuatl was a fertility goddess who presided over salt and salt water. Salt is considered to be a very auspicious substance in Hinduism and is used in particular religious ceremonies like house-warmings and weddings. In Jainism, devotees lay an offering of raw rice with a pinch of salt before a deity to signify their devotion, and salt is sprinkled on a person's cremated remains before the ashes are buried. Salt is believed to ward off evil spirits in Mahayana Buddhist tradition, and when returning home from a funeral, a pinch of salt is thrown over the left shoulder as this prevents evil spirits from entering the house. In the Hebrew Bible, there are thirty-five verses which mention salt. All of which reveals it's off world intentions and uses. One of these mentions Lot's wife, who was turned into a pillar of salt when she looked back at the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah in Genesis 19:26 as they were destroyed. When the judge Abimelech destroyed the city of Shechem, he is said to have sown salt on it, probably as a curse on anyone who would re-inhabit it Judges 9:45. The Book of Job contains the first mention of salt as a condiment. I looked for a meaning of condi, one suggestion was it meant mankind, which would mean condi-ment mankind's mind. Can that which is unsavory be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg? Job 6:6. In the New Testament, six verses mention salt. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus referred to his followers as the salt of the earth. The apostle Paul also encouraged Christians to let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt in Colossians 4:6. Salt is mandatory in the rite of the Tridentine Mass. Salt is used in the third item which includes an Exorcism of the Celtic Consecration a Gallican Rite, that is employed in the consecration of a church. Salt may be added to the water where it is customary in the Roman Catholic rite of Holy water. In Judaism, it is recommended to have either a salty bread or to add salt to the bread if this bread is unsalted when doing Kiddush for Shabbat. It is customary to spread some salt over the bread or to dip the bread in a little salt when passing the bread around the table after the Kiddush. To preserve the covenant between their people and God, Jews dip the Sabbath bread in salt, and the blood of sacrificed children remember, we covered in the Plus series. In Wicca, salt is symbolic of the element Earth. It is also believed to cleanse an area of harmful or negative energies. A dish of salt and a dish of water are almost always present on an altar, and salt is used in a wide variety of rituals and ceremonies. Why would you have salt on a sacrificial altar? Preserving the meat? Who knows with these psychopaths. The saline also has the ability to transmit, all of which potentially brings in the 5G narrative and definitely brings in the Covid jabs, the Covid trackers and passports they were implementing. There was another shot in the show to counteract the effects of tracking devices, it said; the shot raises the ph. value in body acidity, and the acid neutralizes the tracking function. This brings in interesting correlations via adverts, of how we must lower our ph with alkaline water and foods? Is that to keep the tracking functions operating? People may think of that as far-fetched, but is it really when authorities removed all lead paint from homes and buildings, on the premise that it was a danger to our health. When in reality land, it was solely for the benefits of Agency goons, police and snoopers to be able to see through walls with certain types of technology. In chemistry, an alkali is a basic, ionic salt of an alkali metal or an alkaline earth metal. An alkali can also be defined as a base that dissolves in water. An ionic salt? Ionic is related to ions. Ions are an atom or molecule with a net electric charge due to the loss or gain of one or more electrons. Net electrical charge, meaning it can transmit. The term salt of the earth may have a whole different meaning now. It makes one ponder as to why the oceans were salted, and questions even more the new age product of health, sea salts. Perhaps the clue is in the word with alkali, when split it says al – kali. Kālī appears as early as the Atharva Veda, the first use of it as a proper name is in the Kathaka Grhya Sutra. Perhaps Kama Sutra has a differing meaning now also. Tantra yoga is the worshipping of the Kali Ma. The tongue and lips logo of the Rolling Stones, is a tribute to the Kali Ma also. In addition to being an alkali metal with the atomic number 11, and you know how they love the number 11. Sodium is an electrolyte, a metal capable of conducting electricity that's an integral component of numerous bodily functions. Electrolytes is another promoted as a healthy for us, and it maybe, but there appears to be too many cases where it is used for more nefarious purposes, just like Smart Water it seems. Having just mentioned the Rolling Stones who were a Tavistock creation, as being in tribute to the Dark Mother, perhaps it is no coincidence they did this song. Perhaps with a whole new meaning now. SALT OF THE EARTH

The interesting tidbit in the show brings in the alliance with the V's with the media, the FBI and the US government, that is telling? More so when there is a Democrat in office, as the DNC controls the FBI. Whilst the two elephants in the room appear to be missing as mentioned earlier, the Military and the CIA. We will use their fears against them it was said, and fear is what is used as the glue to keep the authorities in a false sense of control. Like I said last week, they rule by proxy now only, epoxy glue or proxy glue is the same thing, all held together by fear and laziness to stand up for yourselves. We will use their own children to plot, seduce and destroy them, Anna said. This can be seen nowadays, whereby they are telling children to ignore their parents, and only follow and believe in your teacher. That tactic was used for the vaccines in schools last year, without the parent's consent. Scientists were working on, what seemingly worked against the V's, was a compound to reduce carbon emissions for global warming. Yes, the global warming cult was prevalent back then, it is called seeding the populace. Except, this compound had side effects on marine life and animals. Scientists in the show suddenly started to go missing, disappeared or turned up dead. Remember on the alt media several reports this century about scientists being killed, disappearing or going missing in mysterious ways? Is that what this series is revealing? Again I ask, is life mirroring art? Or is art dictating life? But the virus side-effects were actually deadly to another species, reptiles. Remember our piece recently about lizards going extinct? Here is an overview reminder I did as a follow up. Recently we have done a number of pieces that seemingly do not connect together, but in overview it does. The piece about the planet greener and able to produce more food. How the amount of carbon in the atmosphere has fallen from 15,000 billion tons to just over 850 billion tons. This statement destroys the terraforming crew with their fake climate change, and yes, I said terraforming. Isn't that what the V's were doing with the blue energy? It also said although CO₂ is necessary for life on Earth to exist, but there is precious little of it in Earth's atmosphere. Oops. What is beyond dispute is that the Earth has greened dramatically over the last 40 years, thanks to the extra gas. It has been estimated that there has been a 14% increase in vegetation, mostly due to higher levels of CO₂ in this period. In a paper published in 2016 by 32 authors from eight countries, it was noted that there was a persistent and widespread increase, in growing season greening over 25-50% of the global vegetated area. More vegetation of course means more food up and down the chain. CO₂ fertilization effects were driving global greening and enhancing photosynthesis, and this would lead to a 25% increase in crop yield. With CO₂ at 600-750ppm, plants will grow 30% faster. You do realize what this all means don't you? Larger fruit bearing? larger trees? Quicker crops? What does that remind you of in terms of a movie? Think Avatar. We then covered the ecosystem of lizards and their great die off, with ants and snakes also suffering also. So that got me pondering on this and the question was, is CO₂ detrimental to lizards? And my pondering appears vindicated. By 2080, global warming could result in one-fifth of the world's lizard species becoming extinct, a global study has found. Lizard disappearances in the areas the team studied can't be due to habitat destruction because, they're occurring where habitat has been protected. Rather, hotter sites close to the equator or at low altitudes are most likely to lose their lizards. Think of the source energy flowing from the poles in a flower of life pattern, not the apple shape currently, which concentrates heat and negative energies around the equator, which also brings in the Middle East. This then brought in the Lacerta Files we covered recently which brought up a number of revelations. It spoke of a reptilian lizard like species that they say has lived below us for a very long time. In some respects that is true, but what is not correct is, they think this is their planet. It was wrong then and more wrong since the 2016 Peace treaty. It brought clarity to some of our archeological and Earth history, clarified some other points of contention as it was back in 1999. In 2022 so much more evidence has been garnered and understood to a degree, largely based on, does it makes sense or not? It was fascinating to see the early internet researchers back then, of how they were unsure of so much, in essence fearing the potential of the truth, rather than walking into it. The world of the off world and the world of us, is that another example of the two worlds? Two worlds no longer merged or bound to each other. Two worlds one physical and one bubble version accessible via technology? But we have our own technology if we develop ourselves, that is superior to their external technologies. In essence what is unfolding is, what was old is becoming the new. Their form of terraforming no longer works, neither does their chemtrails as well, so they did what they have always done, and panic. They were rendered blind by the Looking Glass technology failing as well. They know all too well this is a key period of the time epoch, and they are not part of it, they certainly can't control it and what is more, they can't stop it or the truth. Out with the old and in with the new, with a planet that is being terraformed with new vegetation, faster growing and larger plants. Is that the other developing Earth we have spoken about? or is it unfolding all here and now? Was Covid a convenient distraction for the disappearing people? Is earth now throwing off the inhabitants not suitable for its and our progression? Is a new Earth evolving before our eyes? Did we not say that this time it will be done for the first time ever, in body? What can you see? Or what are you not seeing? Go within.

Through it all the church supported the V's and even stated the Lord sent them, indeed he did, because the Lord of the bible is or was one of them, the reptile race. When you read the bible in that context, that it is a reptile story book, it all begins to make more sense. The Vatican even issued orders for all priests to follow their direction and support the V's, or risk being de-clothed or laicized. The church stated the people believe the answers lie within the church, let me correct that, the answers given are lies within the church. The counter argument was, but their faith is born from proof, and the proof is the miracles performed by the V's. The response back was, highly advanced science created the miracles. Just like the various miracles in the bible, it was all done by technology and trickery by those not from here. There was even a symbolic landing of Anna's craft in St. Peters square to greet the Cat holic hierarchy. How does the name Anna and the Cat holic church connect? Two versions; A: the teacher Anna in the 15th century who was burned alive by Cat holic priests for being a heretic, according to them. But the other connection applies to us all, B: ANNA is the name of the machine containing the birth certificates in Brussels, the holder of those certificates, the Vatican. There was a brief glimpse of one of the V's wearing a ring with the red pyramid on it. Upon looking into that, I came across what is called the Red Pyramid, that was not the only color named pyramid either, more evidence of the color coded programs? The red pyramid was said to be built by Sneferu, so who is he and what are his connections? Sneferu meaning he has perfected me, Horus, Lord of Maat, has perfected me. King Huni was Sneferu's predecessor. It states that the majesty of the king of Upper and Lower Egypt, Huni, came to the landing place. The landing place? Some scholars think that means he died, no! he landed at the spaceport. After the reign of Sneferu, the focus of Egyptian ideology shifted from the worship of the king to the direct worship of the fake sun god, Ra. The next reference in the show spoke more of the bliss, which is eerily reminiscent of the City of Light pill in the 100 series, led by Cain, not a coincidence either. But the seduction of the bliss echoes are past history, when she said it would remove all pain and heartache. Now where have we heard that before? The sleeping pods they seduced the humans in the past to getting into. They to me resemble the med beds and also the machine they built for Jake to travel into the Avatar world. These are testers to see if people are triggered by past-life memories. All of which connects to our current timeline does it not. The V's had what is called sleeper cells. The connotations behind that are enormous, is that why the masses are called sleepers? Does that explain why the masses will not do anything, not question anything and certainly not help us with anything. Why are the masses called sleepers? Are they avatars and the real versions of them are still in the sleeping pods? If you ask what is the sleeping pod? Think cryogenics and more deeply think of 10K years. Is life mirroring art? Or is art dictating life?

They then slipped in a subtle fact that will have been missed by most, except those in the village or who went on the trip in May. It said archeologists were looking at a mass grave site at least 50 years old, which puts it around late 1950's or early 1960's in New Mexico in a crater found there. I thought they possibly were referring to the Arizona crater, but there is one that is covered up in New Mexico.. They named the large non-human species dug up from there as Alpha. Alpha was your clue as to who that species was and who were on the ships also, Alpha Draconis. That region brought up some interesting names and details, which will be revealed in the village but not wider afield at this current time, let's just say it is operational. But a name came up and was broken up as it was one of those three barreled names, that made more sense when divided. I typed in the first part of a name and it gave me the alternative of Geb, spelt with a G, not J like the Scherff characters. Here is Geb's story let's see where it all fits in shall we. Geb was feared as the father of snakes, whose name is S3-T3, S and T play a prominent role in their coding, and is the origin of st. and the shortened version of Saint. Which brings in the church narrative again, but also the Freemason group and family Sinclair, which is not the correct term, it is Saint Clair. Geb was the father of Osiris, grandfather of Horus and an enemy of Set. He was linked with Sobek, the crocodile people worshipped in the Middle East and whom we covered in an earlier piece. Sobek and his crocodile beings were covered also in Jupiter Ascending. Geb was also linked with Cronus, Cronus is depicted as a bearded man with a sickle, all of which is eerily similar to the forest character of Pan.

Was it Pan in the picture I took, or was it Cronus because his time and their time matrix was about to be ended? Ponder on the implications of that for a while. LIZARD LOVE

Anna seized power from her mother Diana, based on lies and accusing each other of weakness, all of which proves again the folly of the one leader, whether male or female. That echoes the Anu and Alulu story. Anna began by working on something her mother couldn't do, and turns out later that, that task is impossible. She was working on another project of erasing human emotion, by interbreeding to create a generation of V's who had no human emotion and would only listen to her, egotistic much? That is what ultimate power brings to them all, human or otherwise. And a lesson for us all. The line in the show revealed it all, Reps are bred for efficiency and are not burdened by human emotion. Efficiency in the militaristic terms, war, control and general dark force style efficiency. The last report I had is, that 80% of the Draco home world have had enough of their old ways, old leaders and wish to chart a new path. The project was stated for the new offspring to have no emotions and to not follow their hearts, oh my perhaps the heart and minds comparison now has an even greater meaning and purpose. This brings in again the Illuminati 1 and 2 series of ours again does it not? Whereby the children of the EL-ites undergo torture to take away human emotions of love, compassion and empathy, which is done to all bloodline family members, including the Trustee. Is life mirroring art? Or is art dictating life? This next piece may trigger those who underwent intero-vitro fertilization. Let's look at the words first shall we. Intero means complete, whole, intact or full. Vitro means outside the living body and in an artificial environment. Combined it becomes a full living body outside of the body in an artificial environment. In 1959 the first birth in a nonhuman mammal resulting from IVF occurred, and in 1978 the world's first baby conceived by IVF was born. Although the first testing of it was done in 1891. Given the escalation of it in the 1950's which coincides with Eisenhower's meeting with the tall greys, who are reptiles, one does have to ponder deeply as to whether something else was in play with this IVF program. Is the IVF program a or the hybrid program? Like the vaccines, do we know who or what sperm was used for the IVF treatment? Is one concern, but a deeper one lies beneath the surface. Remember the Eugenics pieces done in part 4 of FHSTOS? Planned Parenthood and Sanger? Where it was stated that there were too many humans as far back as the 1700's and in 1952, John D. Rockefeller III founded the influential Population Council. Which was all about depopulation? less humans has been mentioned as a fear tactic for most of our lives. Why then with all that rhetoric against more humans being born, would the authorities allow a program for more women to have babies? Does that make any sense whatsoever? No? then it is a program isn't it. The question is; was it an off world hybridization program? The Hybrid program, how was it achieved? Who did it and why? are the answers IVF and the Draco? Remember from the official Majestic 12 document that we revealed in three shows, The Events that changed the world. The narrative included them bringing hybrids here, but only our show asked; who were the hybrids? What was the intentions for bringing them here? Who made them? What was their genetic make-up? The next phase of the V's interbreeding IVF program, where they found out their selected human was Tyler the son of the lead FBI agent was not suitable. So they brought in Raphael, or was it Rapha the El? Another Hebrew Anunnaki archangel worshipped by the Jewish faith. It's all there once you side step the anti- Semitic rants. Raphael was to become the breeder of the hybrids, was given programmed DNA that goes after the Y chromosome, which is why the pregnant mothers and girls were unaffected. The Y chromosome is linked with male cells, but it has been found that around 7500 US men have no Y chromosome, similarly the XY chromosome is missing in around the same number of females as well, all of which details Genetic interference. Some males were born with an extra y chromosome, with interesting characteristics. When the XYY type was discovered, some researchers speculated that the presence of an extra Y chromosome might make a male more aggressive and prone to criminal behavior. Tests in prisons found this to be the case. All of which plays directly into the saying, we will make man in our image and likeness, indeed. The next phase of it describes how they do it, create an empty space in the DNA via gene extraction, think CrispR, then stealing the DNA, of which only the best DNA was used for the experiment and plan. Testing your DNA, think testing kits for Covid. The DNA ladder was stripped using technology down to half a ladder, and to replace it with something else, their DNA. It is all very mRNA is it not? The purpose of which was to accelerate their own species and evolution from something that would have taken 5K years down to 50 years, which is the second time they used the 50 years narrative. In essence it was to piggy back on our evolution to fast track their own, but also they revealed to create a master race and species, oh my. Is this past disclosure or current? More of the former although they always keep trying. Finkelstein said they were Lucifer's Army and are the comeback kings. This time they are trying to win via technology, due to the fact their leaders are all dead or gone.

Having mentioned the possibility of in vitro fertilization and possible links to hybrid off world babies being produced, let's look deeper into the fertilization part. Fertilization also known as generative fertilization, syngamy and impregnation, is the fusion of gametes to give rise to a new individual organism or offspring and initiate its development. Give rise to a new individual organism or offspring should raise eyebrows or concerns. Processes such as insemination or pollination which happen before the fusion of gametes are also sometimes informally called fertilization. The cycle of fertilization and development of new individuals is called sexual reproduction. Or perhaps it is called the immaculate conception? During double fertilization in angiosperms the haploid male gamete combines with two haploid polar nuclei, to form a triploid primary endosperm nucleus by the process of vegetative fertilization. The triploid part intrigued me, which means the male and female produced a third type, the three connection will unfold again soon. Fertilization is also a soil based additive, which brings up the scripture of we made man from the soil or clay. In Antiquity, Aristotle conceived the formation of new individuals through fusion of male and female fluids, with form and function emerging gradually, in a mode called by him as epigenetic. DNA damage can also cause epigenetic changes. DNA damage is very frequent, occurring on average about 60,000 times a day per cell of the human body. These damages are largely repaired; however, epigenetic changes can still remain at the site of DNA repair. In particular, a double strand break in DNA can initiate unprogrammed epigenetic gene silencing both by causing DNA methylation as well as by promoting silencing types of histone modifications. Gene silencing? Shutting down the gene sequence? Can you see where this is going? Why would the EL-ites wish to delete 90% of the world's population, unless the 10% is not from here? How could they achieve the takeover? Via genetic meddling, the hybrid program and the complicity of people being ignorant and worse compliant, aligned with the point-blank refusal for people to accept the off world beings exist to begin with. That failure to recognize the fact, allows them to remain hidden behind a cloak of secrecy, and carry on their genocidal takeover of the people and the planet. A popular thing that has come out of the medical establishment recently, who in my opinion are all running an off world program that is anti-human, is the epipen. Epi followed by genetics? Brings in the latest medical technology called the epi-pen. This medication is used in emergencies to treat very serious allergic reactions to insect stings/bites, foods, drugs, or other substances. Listen closely to the effects, they are all too similar to the side effects of the Covid jabs. Drug Class: Asthma Therapy - Alpha/Beta Adrenergic Agents · Cardiovascular Sympathomimetic - Anaphylaxis Therapy Single Agents · Cardiovascular Sympathomimetics · Ophthalmic - Adrenergic (Mydriatic) Agents. Why are EpiPens so expensive? Because Mylan has a government-controlled monopoly that prevents anyone else from making similar products. A government-controlled monopoly? So who are Mylan? Mylan N.V. was a global generic and specialty pharmaceuticals company. In November 2020, Mylan merged with Upjohn, Pfizer's off-patent medicine division, to form Viatris. Just before the launch of the vaccines. Previously, the company was domiciled in the Netherlands, with principal executive offices in Hatfield, Hertfordshire, UK and a "Global Center" in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, US. In 2007, the company acquired a controlling interest in India-based Matrix Laboratories Limited, a top producer of active pharmaceutical ingredients for generic drugs, and the generics business of Germany-based Merck KGaA. Through these acquisitions, the company grew from the third-largest generic and pharmaceuticals company in the United States to the second-largest generic and specialty pharmaceuticals company in the world. In 2012, the company launched a program called EpiPen4Schools to sell EpiPens in bulk and with discounts to schools. To participate in the program schools had to agree not to buy epinephrine autoinjectors from any other company for a year, a requirement which a company spokesperson said is no longer part of its program. Viatris the name of the corporation comes from the Latin words via, meaning path, and tris, which means three, referring to the path to three main objectives the corporation set. The new company's path to three core goals: expanding access to medicines, leading by innovating to meet patient needs, and being a trusted partner for the healthcare community worldwide. Some spinoff names stick closer to the company's drug portfolio: Take Zoetis, a Pfizer animal health unit spinoff from 2012, for instance. Pfizer said the Zoetis name was derived from the Latin word zoetic, meaning pertaining to life, and is closely tied to the words zoo and zoology. Remember to the EL-ites we are mere cattle, and so the medicines are zoo-zoological in nature, symbolizing us as animals. Remember in the Black Sun Law dictionary, the description for humans is, beasts. The dilemma the V's had is the same as the dilemma of their minions here the EL-ites is, they can't kill us all as they need us more than we need them. It is a story of piggy backing on our evolution again, and this is where the hybrids programs kicks in. The hybrids are installed by stealth, designed to look like us, unless you can "see", and thankfully some of our members have been taught how to see or spot them. They are obvious once you "see". The V's had trouble controlling the humans and what was called the 5th column. A fifth column is any group of people who undermine a larger group from within, usually in favor of an enemy group or nation. According to Harris Mylonas and Scott Radnitz, fifth columns are domestic actors who work to undermine the national interest, in cooperation with external rivals of the state. A bit like the governments, militaries and intelligence agencies then? The activities of a fifth column can be overt or clandestine. Forces gathered in secret can mobilize openly to assist an external attack. This term is also extended to organized actions by military personnel. Clandestine fifth column activities can involve acts of sabotage, disinformation, or espionage executed within defense lines by secret sympathizers with an external force. As a point of note, Israeli Arabs who are more sympathetic to the Palestinians than Israel, are called the 5th column. The 5th column of which no one definitively knows the origin of the words, is often portrayed as the enemy. But the great question is; the enemy of whom? The V's answer to find a way to control the humans and the 5th column was? The use of hybrids! Is life mirroring art? Or is art dictating life?

The next stage they revealed was false flags and Hells Kitchen was mentioned, and nothing to do with Gordon Ramsey and his anorexic or drizzle meals as I call them, a case of ok you brought the appetizer now where is the main meal? But Hells Kitchen is in Manhattan and an actors training school close to Broadway, which type of training one may ask. Hells Kitchen is also known as Clinton, given its southern boundary is also called Chelsea, are the Clinton's time travelers or the classic name change again? The false flag was done by an Israeli, now that is art imitating life. There was a company named the five brothers textiles, which was clearly a tip to the 5 Rothschild sons who took over the banking industry. The owner had an apt name and race, Eli Cohen, who was a former Mossad agent. The next mention referred to souls and how they were trying to take souls via technology. That went on for many years but the soul trap technology was removed as I understand it around 8-9 years back. The V's were then asked the classic question which further gave them away as to who they are. They were asked if they had souls? This brings in the great lie of the Abraxan's, who told the Draco to target humans as they didn't have any soul. This was so the Abraxan's could take over the prime real estate Earth, whilst Draco were distracted chasing after souls they didn't need. The targets of the soul removals was the homeless, as many of them were going missing. All of which echoes the missing homeless from the past decade, remember they were being bussed out of regions of Florida, and no one knew where to, or whether they were still alive. Funny enough there were other reports of 2000 missing homeless in New York around 2010, right when this series was being ran. So, the V's big sell was the blue energy devices and that was about to kick into overdrive. Sold as free clean energy, now where have we heard that recently? But given it was handed to us by the ET's and the color was blue, is this another reference to the off world color program? Of which blue is the off world or ET program, book, beam, project, brethren and avian, all off world programs. The next scene was unpleasant as the V's caught a traitor or one of their own who wouldn't follow orders, and their punishment was to be skinned. This involved removing the human like skin that covered over the reptilian, and was particularly painful. But this eerily is reminiscent of the adrenochrome incident allegedly done by Hillary Clinton and Huma Abedin. Whereby they removed the skin off of a young girls face whilst she was still alive, one of them put the skin mask of the girls face right in front of her to create more fear in the girl. The more fear created, the more adrenochrome is extracted via a tube in the neck. Is that the origin of that practice? Given they were trying to create a MASTER race, and the most common advert during the series was of a Visa card, one ponders whether they were trying to tell us something the V's a card, along with the Master race card. Given it is they and their minions who run the financials on this planet, one does wonder.

The next "gift" from the visitors including building Concordia, a jeweled blue energy city, that resembled some of the cities built here in the past, and either buried in the sands or partially destroyed in Antarctica. Although there is a city below us or above us that did mirror the V's new city as well, minus the arch. But one of the building was a curved knife shape, just like the Burj Al Arab hotel in Dubai that is curved to one side. Four spiral columns were the main struts for the city with the energy center in the middle. I wonder how many noticed the design of the 4 columns? It was the blue flame, which brings in the Archangel Michael. Michael is the fallen angel of the blue flame sword. But Concordia has a whole different purpose as we will find out. Following an attempt to destroy the Concordia site and the energy device, which looked eerily similar to the portal in the series Dark. The V's gave the FBI technology to be able to see through buildings, and yes the authorities do have that technology now. That technology was facilitated by a program said to be for our health benefits again, the removal of lead based paint in all buildings. With the lead based paint removed, the authorities can see through buildings of any kind. The V's in a fit of rage released red rain to fall from the skies, and then proceeded to fix it and present themselves as saving the humans. Yeah right. But the red rain was the next stage for the V's birthing process and also to eradicate the human soul. To accommodate the birthing process required high doses of phosphorous to be added to the expectant mother, this created side effects of pre-eclampsia. Which is a highly dangerous condition for a pregnant mother and causes high blood pressure. The causes of pre-eclampsia have dot connections, here is the list of conditions; Conditions that are linked to a higher risk of preeclampsia include: Preeclampsia in a previous pregnancy. Being pregnant with more than one baby. Chronic high blood pressure hypertension. Type 1 or type 2 diabetes before pregnancy. Kidney disease and Autoimmune disorders. But the last one should raise eyebrows, the use of in vitro fertilization. Is it a condition of hybrid meddling program? The mention of phosphorous brings up interesting things also. Phosphorous is never found as a free element on Earth, in minerals, phosphorus generally occurs as phosphate. But phosphorous is name that is derived from Greek. White phosphorus emits a faint glow when exposed to oxygen, hence the name, taken from Greek mythology, meaning light-bearer, in Latin Lucifer, referring to the morning star, the planet Venus. Phosphates are a component of DNA, RNA, ATP and phospholipids, complex compounds fundamental to cells. Other uses for phosphorous is nerve agents, which may well be what the V's were doing, and would cause the pre-eclampsia conditions. Next the V's wanted to acquire a flu strain and then program it, a flu strain to be programmed, sounds like Covid does it not? They wish to program it to destroy the reproduction functions of any DNA it encounters. In other words to kill off the cells, over excerpt the immune system, which will eventually kill you. Program the flu strain? Remember Gates said the vaccines were a software? Doesn't software program things? If it is the reproductive functions it would be to stop children being born, is that not what unfolded with the pregnant mothers of the past two years?

REMEMBER

Concordia was to be built at Ground Zero, the very first site in New York, isn't it always the case that things built there are for nefarious purposes. Ground Zero New York is the EL-ite center of power and control as referenced by Finkelstein and Rosenthal in the interviews we covered in FHSTOS Plus 4,5 and 7. Concordia is a tip to another female leader and goddess. In ancient Roman religion, Concordia means concord or harmony in Latin, is the goddess who embodies agreement in marriage and society. Her Greek equivalent is usually regarded as Harmonia, with musical harmony a metaphor for an ideal of social concord or entente in the political discourse of the Republican era. She was thus often associated with Pax-peace in representing a stable society. As such, she is more closely related to the Greek concept of homonoia -like-mindedness, which was also represented by a goddess. Like-mindedness can also be interpreted as hive-mind. Harmony and peace all sounds so lovely, yet the next part reveals a deeper darker connection. Concordia Augusta was cultivated in the context of Imperial cult. Dedicatory inscriptions to her, on behalf of emperors and members of the imperial family, were common. The Roman imperial cult identified emperors and some members of their families with the divinely sanctioned authority, a de-facto monarchy in other words and all very bloodline families again. The coins printed in Rome with Concordia's face on one side, I have to say it looks more like a man than a woman. But the other side brings a solar disk with a hole in it, wrapped in a web or mesh. All very Black Sun and the veil that to me.

So, Concordia is all about to be built with the blue energy, but unbeknown to the humans, it was to kick start the annihilation of humanity. It was found that blue energy uses ½ a watt, but they were building Concordia with over 1 Trillion watts, increased power for something else entirely. I was immediately led to think and ponder on whether the new introduction of power to our society, was in some way connected to this, the wifi or gwen towers. GWEN stands for Ground Wave Emergency Network, a program from the late Cold War which officially began in 1982, erected throughout the 1980s and early 1990s with what would seem a dubious purpose. A GWEN station transmits up to a 300-mile radius, the signal dropping off sharply over distance. The entire GWEN system consists of, (depending on source of data), from 58 to an intended 300 transmitters, spread across the USA, each with a tower 299-500 ft high. Remember these towers were installed by the Military, since when have they done anything beneficial for the people. And remember the Military were heavily involved in the Covid scam. Pentagon having PPE kits before the virus news came out, soldiers going into schools to jab children. Above all else, the DOD owns the vaccine jabs. Concordia it turned out to be a charging station series of landing pads for not only 29 mother crafts, but 509 other crafts of theirs parked in orbit and could not be seen by the eye or telescope. They were cloaked in blue energy. It turns out there was not enough charging stations between here and the next planet with the blue energy, all of which sounds like the electric car problem here. Without the infusion of blue energy all the crafts were doomed and the reps would all die off. This runs parallel to the pyramids at Giza, which are also energy devices and possible landing pads as well, one thing they were not built for is, tombs. It is funny how they always approach things with stealth and deceit, when if asked to accommodate their energy needs, I am sure they would have been allowed to do so, providing some trust was gained. But no, it is always carried out underhanded. Despite the multiple protestations of we come of peace, they didn't. I mentioned this earlier; The mobius loop a popular New Age symbol said to be "of peace". We come of peace, always was a common saying by the Queen known as Anna, not in peace, but of it. Let's just shift the pronunciation of that shall we; We want a piece of it always, now makes more sense does it not. That is the role of the predator and parasite, harvesting, hosting and spreading like a virus if left unchecked. Just like the Jewish EL-ites or the Hebrew Anunnaki, they have been allowed to prosper for far too long, and time it was put an end to once and for all. There was a number of Jewish references within the show, but I wish to draw your attention to another sci-fi, that may well tie into V. One of the secret signs of Kabbalah is to join together your index and middle finger, do the same with the ring finger and little finger, and then separate between the middle and ring fingers, with two fingers on either side still joined together. And there you have the popular Vulcan sign done in Star Trek by Mr. Spock. It is all in your face, when you find out the real truth. Leonard Nimoy, who played Spock, was Jewish, hence the sign. Is that sign symbolizing they are the V's? As in the visitors? It should also be noted that the hologram technology they used as computer screens has since become more mainstream, even though that technology is very ancient. It should also be noted that, the symbols and lettering upon the screens had a distinctly Hebrew flavoring to it. Perhaps the term I coined in the shows Hebrew Anunnaki has more meaning now? In the end the reps ended up destroying themselves for not acting in a right, fair and open manner. But the lizard piece and the Lacerta files contain much and much is to be garnered from it. What does it reveal in overview? It reveals there are some on, in and away from here are working to destroy the predators. But the predators are ultimately destroying themselves are they not? Where is the evidence of that some people will say, well, it has all been in the shows. Hundreds of times we have mentioned the term Ouroboros, what is an Ouroboros? A snake, serpent or reptile eating it's own tail. Eventually there is no tail and it devours itself, but we the people have the greatest task of all, how to fill the void of their demise and departures.

It should be noted in the two V series', that in the main their V society was ran by power hungry and domineering females, just like the majority of the "Parents", which they created to be the monitors of humanity. Those asking for a matriarchical society and how it will be all so much better, are falling for the duality illusion game again. It matters not who is Queen or King, if power goes to their heads. Just like the gods and goddesses, they all fell for ego and dark force agendas. Going forward we cannot replicate that (pardon the pun) rep-lie and cate, cate means pure, and so reps bring pure lies. The lesson is the balance, a balanced masculine male and a balanced feminine female, which then brings in the one on one with the one. The lesson learnt was, there is not enough balance in leadership roles and that then leads to Fascist style dictatorship, which looks bad enough when it is a male, but to me at least looks far worse when it is a female. A true feminine leader carries the nurturing and caring the species is known for, whilst being firm when decisions have to be made. But, too often for me, societies whether human or not choose warriors of war to meetings and there is no flexibility in decision making, as it is perceived as a weakness, actually that is a strength if administered correctly. The psychology lessons provided in the shows, should not be lost by our members and listeners. Anna the V's leader also fell for human emotion, and yet arranged all of her ship to take human emotion tests, and if they failed they would be skinned and or incinerated. A case of don't do as I do, just do as I say. Human emotion is a wonderful thing when it is in balance, like the sword it can protect or nurture you or it can cut you to ribbons. The key to that is 45/55 and balance. In season 2 Episode 6 Anna was accused of trying to prove herself, and was told this was a sign of weakness. Weakness it maybe for a leader, but for the rest of us, that is a sign of low self-worth and unbalanced ego. Anna's first human emotion was pride, that led to a betrayal of her mother and the real leader of the V's. Proving yourself, pride and betrayal all sounds so familiar in recent times. The solution? A lot more shadow and inner work can correct that, along with humility. In general life those you trample all over to get to the top, will stamp on you when you inevitably fall, but that is not the remit of THI or the TPC. We recognize people make mistakes and leave a door open for people who can correct those mistakes. The biggest hurdle the humans faced in the show, and indeed what we overwhelming face here and now is; the issues of the fight against the enemy was hampered by humans turning on each other. People betraying each other, selling out, service to self only, played by love, seducements and ego, fighting to be the one, and betraying their friends, sound familiar? It should do. This is what humanities biggest failing is, and why clowns and EL-ites still rule by proxy, because we the people cannot work together for a common cause. Do you think all the clowns like each other? Hell no, but they work together for a common dark force's cause. A lesson some people even in THI have failed to fully learn, never mind the steaming masses of the blind and ignorant. A simple coming together by a few dedicated and committed people, like in the show, goes along way to ending this upside down and backwards world for all who are left here. Indeed, it is a must for all who value true freedom and wish an end to the slavery programs that have been ran on us all.

The impossible task mentioned earlier? they couldn't remove the human soul. The human soul they found cannot be removed, and should be embraced according to Diana, but Anna would have none of it and continued her technological route of destruction. Diana warned that, that path would lead to the ending of the lizard species, all of which echoes the warnings within our show. I have warned repeatedly of the dangers of technology, and how if it is embraced too much, it will lead to our own downfall. The human/soul package is the most prized asset in the universe, if only people would recognize that as such. This plays into what was mentioned earlier about piggy-backing on our evolution, that failed. You know why it failed? Because they couldn't remove the soul. They had to remove the soul to then insert their own into the vessel and transition in the host bodies. You cannot have two souls in one vessel, which is why at the point of delivery the soul arrives into the newborn. The problem with the V's was, and like many other species off world is, their over-reliance on technology. Most of their technology like that on Earth was weaponized against the humans and their own kind. Over use of technology, breeds laziness. When the time saving use that technology brings could be used for soul development and improving life of the self and others. It is a lesson we must all heed, and no I am not advocating for us all to become rings of cedar and hermits, but to provide a happy balance between nature and technology. To have technology only used for good benefits, except of course to defend the planet itself. We can achieve all of that if we all come together, a lasting peace, a fair, balanced and harmonious world, a better and more looked after planet, and ultimately many will become better people as well. HEAL THE WORLD

ENDING PIECE: The antidote: This piece will speak to us all in a very deep and lasting way. Ignore it at your own peril, is my advice, but each to their own devices always applies. It all comes down to the choices you make, and everyone is free to make them choices in life, despite the external tyranny artists, that reside not just in clown realms, but amongst we the people as well. The journey through life brings many hurdles, waves and barriers, and the great questions are; will you jump, surf and step over or through each of the three? or crash, rise and fall and eventually stall? These are the day to day challenges we all face, on all levels of learning. In shadow terms, you have never beaten it all, because A: it is not a game and B: there is always learning to do, in this and other lifetimes, until you get a greater perspective, understanding and being. There is no I have done all my shadow work, it is a learning open spiral curve, that goes into a new spiral, that is called progression. Shadow work done in the loop, never ends either, but on that level you are destined to repeat the same old failings. Perspective plays a large role and a member said this recently. My point is; that we are forced to perceive in ways that do not reflect reality. Once we manage our own perception everything changes. Good points, but often your own perception gets clouded by your own level of learning and thinking, and if matched with a lower level of shadow and inner work, that can bring a perception of reality, more virtual than real. The lower the level of learning and shadow work, the more you are in your head. The aptly named band title the Zombies said, feed your head, that was a clue that it was a mind control song. The head fights with you, like the double headed Janus, so which head is yours? In my observations those that talk about shadow and inner work a lot, are the ones who are actually not doing the work or not as much as they profess, because every time I have engaged or observed those types of people, they are the ones who eventually fall or transgress. So at that point one has to ask who is managing who's perception? Is it the organic version of you or the machine? Often people fight battles externally with others, but that is the sign of internal struggles always. The battles, fighting, arguing, put downs and competitiveness, are all inner signs of turmoil from within. People can carry on denying it, but in observation mode it becomes obvious and indicative. We have all witnessed those types of people, and we have witnessed it within ourselves on our own journey of self-discovery. Those people cannot be helped until they realize they are the problem, their problem is within, not without. Only when the aptly named title of soul searching is completed, can wounds on the internal and external be mended. It all comes down to, do you operate within the heart or the head? The heart makes life simple - whilst the head complicates things. The heart balances everything – whilst the head swings wildly like a metronome. The heart all encompasses – whilst the head divides and conquers and is comparative and competitive. The heart brings balanced ego – whilst the head swings it from low self-worth to braggard. The heart has inner approval – whilst the head seeks external approval. The heart soothes everything – whilst the head battles and rages. The heart brings calmness – whilst the head operates within the chaos realms. The heart knows when to let go of things – whilst the head holds on for dear life, often at great cost to the host. The heart doesn't run or hide – whilst the head does both. The heart cannot be retarded – whilst the head can. The heart loves – whilst the head operates and is filled with fears. The heart speaks in melodic tones – whilst the head speaks in forked tongues. The heart has the music of the spheres – whilst the head has static and filled with reptilian chatter. In anagram, the heart is Earth and becomes your law, the head or brain is in BAR and their law. Brain is one letter short of binary, heart is the trinary. The heart can and will be hurt but it rebounds, it self heals and becomes anew. The head can be hurt as well, but it never rebounds, it just crashes and then repeats the same programs. The heart brings more service to others, the head brings more service to self, why? because it can be controlled and if not checked, becomes someone else's head. The heart only belongs to you, it can't be controlled. These are the two choices we make, but isn't that a binary choice Thomas? Where is the trinary? It can be thought of that way, but a little pondering on it can change that perception again. When you complete your own sword, the head becomes one with the third eye and the heart. There is your trinary, like the worlds in essence, the two becomes three, and then becomes the one. They warned in the series something we should all pay attention to here and now. It was stated; There is something that is far more important, you understand that this fight is for our future, and that is what this cause needs more than anything. I can't echo or emphasize that statement enough, and all who listen to this needs to wrap their heads and hearts behind that statement. This is what THI and the TPC is all about, fighting for our futures, and the future of our species. This is not a game, this is about us and are very existence. I didn't come here to play their game, I came to change it and all should follow that directive. HEART AND SOUL
