

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2023-02-28

STORMBRINGER We have done many deep shows, including some known as deep states. Curious term that, deep state, does it mean that something is operating below scrutiny or the pervading view? Or does it mean it operates way below several states? As in deep underground? All of which has implications when you know who and what lurks underground on this planet, none moreso than below the four corner states, plus Nevada. The question then is; not just how far below ground do these entities operate, but how much influence they above ground, that impacts us all. The galling thing is, we the people have to pay for their highly organized structure and command, that operates solely against we the people. Of course in America due to the misunderstanding of the word patriotism, the majority of the peoples actively participate, support or worse worship some of our worst aggressors against humanity. It was Bush Snr who said; if the people ever find out what we have done, they would chase us through the streets and lynch us, the same applies to this group also. Despite their enormous harvesting of our funds, immense support structures put in place, complicit Congress, fake bills like the National Security Act to cover up their crimes, immense secrecy of where they reside and or operate, they are now beginning to feel the uncomfortable burn of increased exposure. Currently it is mildly unpleasant, but that will increase as time moves on in their world. As like all Empires or controlling groups, they eventually all fall upon their own swords. Through complacency, arrogance, obscene levels of corruption, plus another bully always comes along to end their reign. They thrived through near total secrecy, which was easier to accomplish before the internet, and within the Night of the Svarog, but with the internet, the Day of the Svarog and an increasing public exposing, that is no longer the case. And they will fall just like all the others. This is all about the US Deep State, their full exposure and end, will lead to a real version of the land of hope and dreams, not despair and nightmares. THE LAND OF HOPE AND DREAMS

The US Deep state in the 21st century, is a vital organ of the supranational deep state. It controls the US government, with its über-dominant role in the global trade in weapons, aligned with the CIA, which dominates the global illegal drugs trade. The NSA and Silicon Valley who carry out global surveillance, plus the businesses of Wall Street and it all interlocks closely with the UK Deep state, and in doing so links both of them to The Crown. We have come to see, that today's Congress itself is dominated by the deep state powers, that profit the America's global war machine, or the Military Industrial Complex as it is lesser known as. These so-called statesmen of America are as dedicated to the preservation of American dominance, as were their British predecessors a century ago. A collection of Israeli based sell outs at its core, I say that as both Britain and America are ran by the Jewish EL-ites, and the countries and their peoples harvested by this off world cult. Yet in 2022, the USDS is incoherent, suffering in-fighting and leaks. Although highly compartmentalized, it is more exposed than ever, and events such as the Jeffrey Epstein affair have shaken confidence in its ability to keep effective control of the US government. It is moving rapidly, like many governments, towards open totalitarianism. Just as we predicted, some will say they are getting more bold, wrong, they are being forced to go public due to the increasing exposure and also the Day of the Svarog. As always, their arrogance will and has been their downfall. Most US citizens would probably struggle to define it or explain it, but post-February 2017, they do at least have a name, the US deep state. The apparatus of the American deep state is a vast system of institutions, in which the proverbial right arm does not know what the left one is doing. That is the compartmentalization of it all. The CIA, FBI, NSA and the military services are compartmentalized to a point where, very few of the bureaucrats in their employ can put their finger precisely on what is going on. The best known examples of that kind of entity are the resistance movements in German occupied Europe of World War II, and the cell system of an expansionist communist movement in the early stages of its development. Cells are compartments, sleeper or otherwise, but cells also divide and increase, it is that increase that eventually leads to their downfall. Too many people to pay off and or control. Movie goers are familiar with the need to know limitations on the information given to participants in an operation. The numerous levels of security clearance make that clear, security clearances that goes way above Congress, and what is worse, way above the so-called President as well. They have created labyrinths of hidden policy making over which no effective political control can exist, this applies to internal control as well. The institutions of the American deep state are driven by turf battles, schisms, something quite noticeable in their conflict with President Trump and, indeed, eruptions from officials with a conscience. This produces leaks and whistleblowing. These may be seen as emergency actions in the absence of functioning accountability structures. A relentless corporate media pro pagan da barrage has failed to hide from many US citizens, that the US government responds not to the ballot box, but to the Cabal of deep politicians who pull the strings of deep state actors on the Washington stage.

The early history of it: What the United States lacks as regards a tradition of feudal oppression it gains in the hidden genocide of the native Americans, some of whom helped the first settlers from Europe to survive on the North American continent. The American Dream, as John Taylor Gatto reminds us, never used to be of financial wealth or consumption, but of independence. The US has long styled itself the land of the free, and spoken out against European imperialism. What a joke that turned out to be, and yet far too many still believe in that illusion, and it is an illusion of enormous consequences. As such, the US might not seem particularly fertile soil for the development of a deep state, but while the US constitution certainly makes much of freedom and equality, it was drawn up by slave owners and plutocrats. The US deep state has long has connections with the UK deep state. Because it is an expansion of it, just like the OSS became the SS, became the CIA and the 5 Eyes Alliance. It is the world largest elephant, yet too few are able to see it.

19th Century: By the 19th century, various secret societies had been imported from Europe or started in the USA de novo. Nevertheless, the traditional US pattern was of self-subsistence on family farms and emphasized strong local communities. This limited the importance and reach of the proto-deep state. As the 19th century progressed, industrialization and the growth of cities increased the reach of the US public state, and so too the US deep state. The power of money issuance, wrested in the US public state, was an attractive target of private bankers. One illustration of this was the 1881 assassination of US president James Garfield, reported by a lone nut, who had tried to limit the power of private bankers. Which is the same narrative of Adolf Hitler 60 years later is it not? He tried to turf out the very same bankers out of Germany, and they then labeled him the lone nut. Edward Mandel House was a US deep state actor whose activities included handling Woodrow Wilson for the money trust. A 1933 letter to him from US President Franklin D.Roosevelt suggests that deep state forces were already a defining factor in the US by the first half of the 20th Century: The real truth of the matter is, that a financial element in the larger centers has owned the government ever since the days of Andrew Jackson.

Franklin D.Roosevelt (21 November 1933): Roosevelt edged the totalitarian creep further, but not enough for the increasingly docile and compliant public to notice with compulsory schooling, which really meant indoctrination and pro pagan da programming. Forced schooling: Most US states made attending school a legal requirement in the latter half of the 19th century, as industrialists realized they needed an obedient labor force to do factory work for them. Forced schooling was a foot-in-the-door to the separation of children from local value systems and the inculcation of obedience to impersonal, government-appointed, authorities. To this end, moves were taken against one room schools which required little administration, fostered a home like atmosphere and emphasized local values. 90 years later the consequences of that decision, renders most American's below minimal intelligence levels. Some may argue against that, but denial of the problem, then becomes part of it. The Ford and Carnegie Institutes played a large part in the dumbing down of people in this country since the 1930's.

Elite colleges & Secret societies: The Ivy League colleges are a set of 8 colleges in the North East US to which the ruling class have long aspired to send their children. Many of these have college fraternities, some secret, some with extreme hazing rituals, which can inspire lifelong loyalty among members. These secret societies were an important recruiting ground for the US deep state. We have warned heavily about Universities and Colleges, and also this next one.

Skull and Bones: The most famous of the formerly highly secret societies is Yale University's Skull & Bones, which since 1832 has admitted 15 new students annually, favoring those whose family members have already joined the group. All kept in House you see. The group was the subject of intense research by Professor Anthony C.Sutton, who concluded that a desire for power, characterized the Bonesman. Attendance, formerly a closely guarded secret, is now more or less public knowledge, even if the commercially-controlled media usually keep silent on the matter. The 2004 US Presidential election offered the US public a choice between Bonesman George W.Bush or fellow Bonesman John F.Kerry.

Dining clubs: At the turn of the 20th century, private dining clubs such as J.P.Morgan's Corsair Club were a popular social milieu for the extremely wealthy, some or most of which had a strict code of secrecy. One particularly long-lived group is the Pilgrims society, founded in the UK in 1902, which began in the USA a year later. Attended by a selection of financiers, central bankers, diplomats, politicians and deep politicians, it continues to this day, it has UK royal patronage, a heavy deep state meeting place. The Pilgrim became the grim pill Americans had to swallow.

The Money Trust: Control of the right to issue money is a key indicator of de facto control in any capitalist society. In the US in the 19th century it shifted back and forth between private bankers and elected politicians, before a banking cartel captured it in 1913. The owners of the Federal Reserve have exercised control over the extremely profitable US Dollar franchise ever since, giving them a key role in the US deep state. The Money Trust was an alliance of financiers from Wall St. that centered around J.P.Morgan. It fought for the control of the US money supply in the 19th and early 20th century, until successfully getting the 1913 Federal Reserve Act past the US government, which delivered immense profits both from the seigniorage of issuing the US dollar and from the ability to create booms and busts in the US economy. Seigniorage has another meaning though apart from governments using it to finance their expenditures, it means; the right of the lord, the seigneur, to mint money. J.P Morgan was the go to bank for the Trustee as well, despite being told to not include banks. Unbeknown to most, the Fed charter ended 11 years ago, and the Trustee has failed to implement a new one.

Deep State in the 20th Century: Unbeknown to many students of the shallow political history, the US government has undergone at least 5 attempted coups d'etat in the 20th century, all with connections to members of the Bush family. Eugenics, which is racial survival of the fittest, was a potent ideology in the US, that was used to justify colonial empires, oligarchies and dynastic control over laissez-faire capitalism, that was until WW2 when its association with Nazi Germany brought it into disrepute. Remember the eugenics program came from America, not Germany. Post WW2, the Cold War quickly took hold in the US and was used to justify increased spending on the Military Industrial Congressional Complex. The extreme secrecy and wartime origins of the CIA meant that it never experienced much in the way of effective public oversight. Allen Dulles used the organization to carry out coups and assassinations for his Wall St friends. All as we have revealed in our book. The extreme fear of communism that accompanied McCarthyism ensured a wartime mentality in which pragmatism was preferred to principles. The cold war was created as a false boogeyman, to generate money for deep state clowns. In 1955, the CIA took over the golden triangle heroin trade, securing a lucrative source of off-the-books funding for future operations, of which Congress need not be notified. Zapata Petroleum, the oil business of George H.W.Bush took him suspiciously close to many key CIA operations, including Cuba, Vietnam, the Middle East and even Medellin, Colombia over 100 miles from the sea. It wasn't close at all, he was part of it. Ted Shackley's JM/WAVE station in Miami created Operation 40, a CIA hit squad mostly of Cuban exiles, that carried out a huge number of unsuccessful hits on Fidel Castro. In 1963 group members were used to help assassinate the US president, John F.Kennedy, who had sacked CIA director Allen Dulles and whose decisions threatened the profits and or liberty of US oil businessmen, bankers and deep politicians. John F Kennedy's killing brought Lyndon B Johnson to power, a Cabal member. Cord Meyer ran a large cover-up operation to hide the truth from the US public, using the CIA's operational control of big media. Which is known as Operation Mockingbird. The blood guilt of the JFK assassination bound the conspirators together, and those referred to as The Cabal, it has had near complete control over the US Presidency ever since. After a rocky period in the 1970s, the 1980s saw it consolidate its power base in Washington DC by systematic infection of the upper reaches of the US government. In the 1990s this group extended its global reach and by 11th September 2001, a supranational alliance was in place to support the cover-up.

1913 Federal Reserve Act: On December 23, 1913, a 298-60 vote in the US House saw the Federal Reserve Act pass into US law, creating a privately owned US central bank. Although the system's multiple reserve banks gave it the appearance of a decentralization, the New York Fed was always the most influential and the extent of US government oversight was similarly more nominal than real. The system was easily dominated by the private bankers who designed it, allowing the huge seigniorage profit from the US dollar to be silently pocketed by the owners of the Fed, as it still is today.

World War I: The UK deep state worked hard to get the US involved in World War I, overcoming the isolationism of the US public which wanted no part in what was widely seen as a war of Europeans. The sinking of the Lusitania was an important step in this process, as was the Committee on Public Information. The war itself shifted the balance of supranational deep state power away from London towards Washington DC. In 1920, alcohol was prohibited in US, a boon to US organized crime, of which the mafia like Kennedy family profited most. It also established the primacy of John D. Rockefeller's monopoly over petroleum by ending effective competition from ethanol, which was cleaner burning and could be easily home-produced on a farm. Funny how they added it later when they were in control of all the farms producing it. The 1920s and 1930s were a period of widespread poverty in the USA, particularly following the 1929 Wall St Crash. Elected in 1921, Warren Harding was a popular US president. He suddenly fell ill and died in 1923 and some people close to him died soon after, including his wife and doctor. He was succeeded by Calvin Coolidge. Harding was clearly taken out and all those connected to him, yet I wonder how many Americans knew of this? All know about JFK 40 years later, but JFK was not the first or the last, and neither was Harding incidentally. Harding was one of the leaders who signed off to have a second world war, just before he was taken out.

1930s: In the 1930s many US business leaders aspired to the fascist revolutions of Italy and Germany which had appeared very tempting from a business perspective. Because by that time the Jewish shekel people had everything in place, following the hijacking of America's money supply and lending in 1913. Alcohol prohibition was ended in December 1933 after a meeting of US business leaders agreed that the measure would stem unrest in the US populace. By that time, automobile manufacture was under effective control by big business leaders committed to petroleum. In 1935 a promising US presidential hopeful, Huey Long, was assassinated, possibly echoing the fate of RFK by one of his own bodyguards. In the 1930's saw the rise of another in house group, who we have covered previously, the Suite 8F Group. The Suite 8F Group was a Texas-based deep state faction which coalesced around the interests of big oil. Texans were elected on December 7, 1931, not only to the Speakership of the House but to the chairmanship of five of its most influential committees. Lyndon Johnson's first day in the Capitol was the day Texas came to power in it, a power that the state was to hold, with only the briefest interruptions, for more than thirty years. The group was heavily involved in the assassination of JFK, who was moving against the interests of big oil. Something else that was ran by tyrannous Bush family.

The Business Plot: The Business Plot was an attempted coup d'etat by The Money Trust. After researching fascist governments in Europe, a group of bankers and businessmen approached the anti-war general Smedley Butler, seeking someone popular enough to lead a force of 500,000 men to take control of the government in Washington DC and force Franklin Roosevelt to resign. Butler played along, sounding interested and supportive, but was secretly horrified and exposed the plot to Congress. FDR was being obstructed by Wall St in implementing his New Deal, and appears to have used the discovery of their attempted plot as a lever against them. The new deal 80 odd years ago, then becomes the Pelosi family led Green deal. Green is a fake color and so is an illusion based program. Ultimately, nobody was prosecuted for the attempted coup, and records of the hearings are very sparse, probably because Roosevelt struck a deal with the plotters. Only the names of the most junior plotters were released, officially, the senior plotters' names were temporarily censored from the hearing transcripts, pending further investigation, but no further investigations were ever carried out. In return, the businessmen did not oppose his New Deal. Later reports have included Prescott Bush's name in this connection, but it was not revealed at the time. That won't be the last you hear of the Bushes either. The Day of atonement applied that far back then, plus National Security, even though that Act was still a decade away.

World War II: World War II afforded considerable opportunities for self-enrichment, since wartime urgency meant that the combatants were ready to pay high prices. Edwin Black has researched IBM's selling Hollerith machines to Hitler's Germany to assist the holocaust. Documents declassified in 2003 revealed that Prescott Bush profited from businesses that financed Adolf Hitler's rise to power. The Japanese invasion of Pearl Harbor was announced to the US public as a surprise attack, although the most important boats had been removed from the harbor, and other sources suggest that while Hawaii had not been warned of the attack, Washington DC was fully aware. The attack galvanized support for the US entering World War II on the side of the allies. The US set up the Office of Strategic Services, a proto-CIA. Which is not correct, the British set up the OSS and transported it to America, courtesy of patsies like Donovan and others. In 1942 Prescott Bush's property was seized under the Trading With the Enemy act. Persistent rumors suggest that Yamashita's gold, a huge cache of war loot collected by the Japanese was later used by the CIA as a source of off-the-books funding for black operations. Then the same CIA agents invaded the alt media spreading rumors of claiming the Yamashita gold, when they had already spent it on war and subversion of the people.

Operation Gladio: A defining influence on the European deep political scene was Operation Gladio, which was set up in Europe around the end of WWII. It was also called the stay-behind network, as it planned for WW3 by training, funding and maintaining top secret cells of fascists ready to stay behind in case of a Red Army invasion, and carry out bombings and assassinations behind enemy lines. Gladio was under at least partial control of the US deep state through the CIA, and lead to the development of Operation Gladio/B, which was to assume great importance after 9-11. They also worked with the P2 Lodge as well.

CIA, The Cold War & the Rise of the Military Industrial Congressional Congress: Post 1945, the USSR, although a wartime ally against Nazi Germany, quickly came to be feared. This lead to a decades long rivalry referred to as the Cold War, and an accompanying Arms Race, which saw both the USA and USSR spending ever increasing amounts of money trying to outdo each other, in the creation of ever more destructive technologies, particularly nuclear weapons. This provided huge profits for what outgoing US President Eisenhower referred to as the Military Industrial (Congressional) Congress. His warning against allowing this group undue influence went unheeded, in large part because it had already entrenched itself so deeply into the US Deep state. Eisenhower's Presidency would not be looked upon about trying to stop the deep state rise, but the fact he signed a treaty for 2% of Americans to be abducted by an off world group. Notice the CIA agent Laura Eisenhower never mentions that incident in the Alt media.

The Georgetown Set: Was an influential group, united by a virulent anti-communism, which eased the institutionalization of the WW2 permanent war mentality through the 1947 National Security Act, which set up the Central Intelligence Agency, a key incubator of The Cabal which emerged after the JFK assassination. The Georgetown group are a private think tank organization out of DC.

1950s: In 1950 the CIA began Operation Mockingbird, an ongoing CIA project to take de facto control of the commercially-controlled media. This highly funded project was later to prove invaluable in covering up the JFK Assassination. History books report that Operation Ajax was the first coup d'etat organized by the CIA, but they often missed the question of why. As Charlotte Dennett notes, the initiative came not from Washington DC but from Wall St, indicating de facto control over the agency by big business, confirming its characterization as an organ of the US deep state. Proving it was the Jewish El-ite shekel makers that were involved in it, Rothschild's in particular as Kennedy was Black Sun. The fear of communism in the US assumed the dramatic form of McCarthyism, facilitating blackmail or blackballing of enemies of the US deep state. There always has to be a fear with America, some trumped up boogeyman to justify laundering billions of dollars out of the country. In 1954, the first meeting of the Bilderberg took place, establishing an annual deep state milieu that is still attended by senior businessmen, editors, media moguls, bankers, military leaders and senior politicians from Western Europe, US and Canada. Its off-the-record closed-door meetings were unknown to the general public for over 50 years, even as it actively promoted closer European Union and Europe-USA ties. One of the same is why? EU is European United States. BLACK HOLE SUN

1960s: When Eisenhower warned against the military-industrial complex, the values, institutions and resources that comprised it, were still subordinate elements in American society. Today, it not only dominates both parties, but it is also financing threats to both of these parties from even further to the right. The 1960s were a key decade in the development of the modern US Deep state. A network of power players arranged to assassinate the US President, John F.Kennedy. Their exact identities may never be agreed by historians, but on his deathbed CIA agent named JFK's vice president, Lyndon Baines Johnson as the leader of the plot. Many of the assassins were Cuban exiles from the CIA's Operation 40, initially set up to assassinate Fidel Castro. Ted Shackley, leader of the CIA's station in Miami that set up Operation 40 appears to have played a major role in organizing Kennedy's assassins. Shackley was a deep politician who became the first US Chairman of the Pinay Cercle, an anti-communist deep state milieu which was instrumental in offshoring the US deep state. Shackley was also the leader of Project Phoenix in Vietnam, which was a torture program.

The JFK Assassination: On 23 November 1963, the 35th US President John F.Kennedy was shot dead in Dealey Plaza, Dallas, Texas. This assassination was the seminal deep event of the US Deep state in its modern form, a group that Mark Gorton refers to simply as The Cabal steeped in Kabballah no doubt. Study of the assassination, and especially its cover-up, is recommended to anyone seeking to understand the US deep state. The official narrative blamed a lone nut, Lee Harvey Oswald, who was actually a CIA contract agent who had been sheep dipped with a false defection to the USSR. His handler, George de Mohrenschildt, wrote to George H.W.Bush asking for help before his own sudden death. George de Mohrenschildt, was said to have been captured by the Bolsheviks, but two Jewish doctors helped him escape. Mark Gorton observes that Oswald was a fairly minor character in the coup of '63, but through him, a multi-layered counter-intelligence plot can be seen.

The Quickening of The Cabal: Since the plot went mostly to plan, the FBI announced Oswald did it, case closed within hours. The main hitch was that Lee Harvey Oswald was captured alive by the Dallas Police, so the plotters ordered Jack Ruby to shoot him before he could tell his side of the story. This left a rather unconvincing lone nut kills lone nut official narrative. Many members of the US public were unconvinced, the majority of whom now believe that JFK was killed by a conspiracy. Over a decade after Kennedy's killing the HSCA disagreed with the Warren Commission's finding, concluding that JFK was probably killed by a conspiracy. The shared need of The Cabal to avoid collective exposure lead them to carry out dozens of assassinations to contain the truth, and galvanized them into what was to become the dominant force in deep politics even to this day. A memo of November 25 1963, from US Deputy Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach stated that it was important to persuade the US public that Oswald was the assassin, and that he did not have confederates. The US public however continued to doubt the FBI's official narrative, so LBJ put together the Warren Commission, which purported to be an investigation into the veracity of the FBI's story, although most of the members were enemies of JFK and the group's conclusion was preordained. Earl Warren was a highly respected US Supreme Court judge who twice refused to chair the commission, but agreed after blackmail by J. Edgar Hoover. A 1964 CIA memo, entitled Countering Criticism Of The Warren Commission Report introduced the then novel phrase of conspiracy theorist, which was to be used for ad hominem attacks on anyone who dissented from the Warren Commission's official narrative of the killing. And so the conspiracy theory narrative was born, out of a conspiracy theory. Classic agency tactic that, accuse others of doing or carrying out what they are doing or have done.

The Vietnam War: The Vietnam War was a large source of revenue for the US Deep state, both through arms and drugs. The CIA had controlled the South East Asian drug trade since 1956, and used the war to scale up the heroin trade and boost the US market through exposing young US soldiers to the drug. The CIA also developed the social destabilization tactics Operation Phoenix, which it would unleash in South America before scaling up the drugs trade there. Used the war to scale up heroin trade, fast forward 50 years and they did the same tactic in Afghanistan. Not to mention them poisoning their own alleged soldiers.

The 1970s: Was a decade of turmoil and transformation for the US deep state. As the original leaders of the group which killed JFK began to die off, a power vacuum emerged at the top of The Cabal. George H.W. Bush emerged victorious in the struggle for power, in part because of his successful take down of US President Richard Nixon, whom The Cabal had originally backed, but who was planning to betray them. Cabal member Ford made Bush director of the CIA, granting him more power than any other CIA director since the agency was set up, nominally as an outsider to clean it up. To clean it up? More like create a deeper swamp, filled with lizards and psychopaths. However, he used this power to consolidate his position as unchallenged head of the US deep state. He stemmed the agency's leaks and set up Team B, a group which boosted Cold War fear, US military superiority and MICC revenues by systematically exaggerating the threat posed by the USSR. Like we have said all along, there was no cold war, another money laundering program based on fear driven to and by the public. The Pike and Church Committees put the CIA under scrutiny for the first time, exposing mind control research projects such as MKUltra. This pressure which was added to by the US House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA). Operating from 1976-1978, this investigated the JFK assassination and the ensuing spate of other assassinations in the USA. The Cabal's assassins were kept busy to contain the truth; 21 people involved in the JFK assassination called to testify before the HSCA died in suspicious circumstances. Ya see the Clinton trail has nothing on these people or entities. Twenty one dead, and nothing was done about it? The big question is why? the answer? Fear again. As a result, the Cabal decided to offshore its operations to a safer base, a key next step in the globalization of the deep state. The Australia/1975 coup d'état was a UK/US deep state-backed covert constitutional coup to remove Gough Whitlam whom they saw as a loose cannon. Around 20 tons of C-4 plastic explosive, training in bomb making, together with thousands of rifles, handguns and other weapons sold by a CIA operative to Muammar Gaddafi's Libya in the late 1970s - early 1980s. Which was then the biggest arms-dealing case in U.S.history. Another case of supply them with weapons and then blitz the hell out of them, just like Iraq and many others. A replay of the original Arms For Libya, in that a US deep state arms dealer was charged with selling weapons to Libya. However, in contrast to the original case, Marc Turi had a secret ace in the hole which caused the USDOJ to drop all charges and hush the affair up. Why? because it would expose Obama and the Clinton's for more modern day arms trafficking. In 1979 the Jonathan Institute organized a conference in Jerusalem attended by key deep politicians. Around 50 people, including George H.W.Bush and at least 4 members of Le Cercle, gave presentations that highlighted the dangers of international terrorism and asserted that the USSR was masterminding it. Yet again accusing others of doing what they were doing. The same group of terror experts were to hype the threat of Islamic terrorism, as a replacement raison-d'etre for the MICC after the specter of communist had receded. US National Security Advisor Brzezinski's plans for regime change in Iran, including many methods and covert tactics that are familiar 40 years later. Brzezinski is a Polish Jew, like George de Mohrenschildt mentioned earlier. The document was Brzezinski's Black Room Report to president Carter.

The Watergate Coup: Presented by the complicit corporate media as proof that the US system of government catches wrong doing, the Watergate story as told to the US public by CIA assets Woodward and Bernstein was nothing of the kind. In fact it was a clandestine coup d'etat masterminded by George H.W.Bush. After Nixon resigned, the first act of Gerald Ford, his successor as US president, was a blanket pardon, and so avoiding any legal process about what did or did not actually happen. Ford was a junior member of The Cabal, which used his presidency as an incubator for a clique of future senior members. These included Richard Cheney and Donald Rumsfeld, whose interests included the continuity of government program, that they continued to work on as private citizens and that they silently activated on September 11th, 2001.

The Carter Administration: Jimmy Carter was the last US President not under control of The Cabal. The US government agencies already under Cabal control did their best tried to limit his efforts to clean up Washington. Carter removed George H.W.Bush and the top 400 members of the CIA, which sped up the US Deep state's offshoring its operations to more secretive, non-governmental, milieu, most notably The Safari Club. The Safari Club was a covert alliance of intelligence services formed in 1976, that ran clandestine operations around Africa, at a time when the United States Congress had limited the power of the CIA, after years of abuses and when Portugal was dismantling its colonial empire in Africa. Its formal members were Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Morocco, France and Iran. The group maintained informal connections with the United States, South Africa, Rhodesia and Israel. No surprise Israel or the Jewish ran Rhodesia courtesy of the Rhodes family. The group executed a successful military intervention in Zaire in response to an invasion from Angola. It also provided arms to Somalia in its 1977-1978 conflict with Ethiopia. It organized secret diplomacy relating to anti-Communism in Africa, and has been credited with initiating the process resulting in the 1979 Egypt–Israel peace treaty.

Offshoring the CIA: As the CIA was being subjected to an unprecedented level of scrutiny, the US deep state needed an alternative deep state milieu. They formed The Safari Club, an international group of spooks that was named, like the Bilderberg, after its first venue, a resort in Kenya majority owned by arms dealer Adnan Khashoggi. Who is related to the former journalist Jamal Khashoggi, who was murdered by Israeli/Saudi royal family connections, but he is also related to Dodi Al Fayed, who is his nephew. Its formation was a key step in the evolution of what Peter Dale Scott has referred to as the Supranational Deep State. The BCCI was a global money laundering system used by the CIA. As CIA director, George H.W.Bush greenlighted its development, which assisted the offshoring of the CIA.

1980s: After surviving the pressure of the 1970s, the 1980s saw a flourishing of the US deep state. After Nelson Rockefeller told presidential hopeful Ronald Reagan, that the business establishment's support was conditional on Reagan's nominating Bush as his vice president, Reagan duly complied. Anxious to prevent a last minute boost for Carter if the Iranian hostages were released, Reagan also went along with Bush's October Surprise Conspiracy, which gave the Iranians money and weapons in return for their promise not to release the US hostages until Reagan had been sworn in. The legendary October surprise that has been presented to the looping Alt Media ever since as a mass arrest event, yeah right. Just two months into Reagan's presidency, a lone nut with Bush family connections unsuccessfully tried to assassinate him, a demonstration of Reagan's obliviousness to Bush's deeper plans. After acquiescing to Bush's deal secret with the Iranians, however, Reagan was in no position to expose him. Word has it that, the original Reagan was killed in that attack and a double replaced him. That way the original Reagan couldn't talk, and this is likely what led to the factions within the CIA. Langley 1 are Reaganites, Langley 2 Bush, Langley 3 Obama and the Muslim brotherhood and an unknown Langley 4 was created around 2019.

The Enterprise: George H.W.Bush used his White House positions to engage in what Mark Gorton termed a vast criminal romp, including drug trafficking, financial fraud, savings and loan fraud and the HUD fraud. The profit of these frauds was liberally shared both with friends and enemies; beyond pure greed, the deeper purpose of these frauds was to so thoroughly criminalize the top layers of US government, as to prevent a US government exposure of the crimes of The Enterprise. Most of those funds went to the CIA, and then the subsequent ramp up of political blackmail was escalated. Which is why our Blueprint has a solution for that. Control over the commercially-controlled media was used to suck money from the US public, in a series of speculative bubbles and then to hide the bigger picture. The huge amount of money they netted facilitated the globalization of the Bush family's influence and assisted the development of the supranational deep state. The Enterprise moved weapons and money to the Taliban, in a challenge to the Soviet presence in Afghanistan and also launched Operation Hammer to try to undermine the government of the Soviet Union. This still little exposed operation used CIA agents in the USSR to identify KGB counterparts who could be induced to assist the economic takeover of their country. The KGB and the CIA have been working together side by side since the 1940's. Never believe for a second the cold war actually existed, the cold war was another money laundering operation against the American public.

VIPaedophile: The Enterprise ran at least two VIPaedophile operations which were later exposed, headed by Craig Spence and Larry King.

Privatization: The US Deep State in the 1980s aggressively promoted privatization, as similar economic policies were being pushed through by UK Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, who had been victorious in the 1979 General Election after support from the Bilderberg, Le Cercle and Shield. Shield are a new group to me, but brings possible references in the series Agents of Shield or Roth shield. Although unpopular with the general public, privatization not only yielded windfall profits for well positioned insiders, it also created new levels of obfuscation, profiteering and deniability or complicating lines of control. Which was of particular use in the arms and intelligence sectors dominated by the deep state groups that promoted the policy. The economic case for the privatization of natural monopolies such as utilities and transport was extremely shaky, but their removal from public ownership and placement in private hands not only increased the potential profits which could be extracted from people, it expanded the aegis of control of big money. Then allowing more and more life critical processes to be transferred to their unaccountable power.

The Iran-Contra: The series of events which the US commercially-controlled media dubbed the Iran-Contra, was a combined arms dealing and drug trafficking operation run by The Enterprise, which imported cocaine from South America and sold weapons to Iran and to anti-communist rebels in Nicaragua. Sold weapons to Iran? was the same as Israel giving nuclear weapons to Iran in 1990's. A complete set up and prove countries do not matter, all are just pawns in a bigger game than people imagine. Labelling it the fourth coup attempt in George H.W.Bush's career, Mark Gorton suggests that it was a limited hangout, a deliberate attempt to expose some gun and drug running in an unsuccessful effort to force Reagan to resign. This was played out between Langley 1 the Reaganites and Langley 2 the Bush group. The media exposure risked legal consequences for the leaders, prompting The Cabal to liquidate hundreds of mid-level deep state functionaries in order to insulate the top leaders from exposure. All very ponerogenic is it not? STUCK IN THE MIDDLE 1990s: William Engdahl claims that the 1990s saw the conclusion of Operation Hammer. The resulting political and economic changes provided vast opportunities for looting, which saw entire industries sold for a pittance, making a tiny number of people, the so-called Russian oligarchs into billionaires. Except they were not Russian by and large, they were mainly all Jewish. This has been the great con played out by the Mocking Bird media ran by the CIA, to discredit Russia when it was all for the benefit of the Jewish shekel makers. Engdahl reports that these oligarchs were not drawn mostly from the ranks of opportunistic Russian Mafia, but were mostly KGB generals whom The Enterprise had recruited in the 1980s through the CIA. As well as a huge opportunity for profiteering, the demise of the USSR also represented a threat to the MICC, which as Colin Powell wrote in 1991 was running out of demons. What that means is, the boogeymen these psychopaths create in order to generate vast sums of money based on a fake fear program, of which they loot American's of their wealth. However, US corporate media talk of a peace dividend, i.e.a lowering of expenditure on the MICC was brief, and quickly followed by an unquestioning acceptance the government's official narrative that, Islamic terrorism was such a threat as to justify increased military spending. Bill Clinton's defeat of George H.W.Bush in the 1992 Presidential Election was of little consequence for the US deep state. Although a different political party from the Bushes, on a deeper level he was playing for the same team. Recruited in London as a CIA asset by Cord Meyer, Clinton was the Arkansas representative of The Cabal, a state of particular importance due to the fact that Mena, Arkansas was the main transshipment point for the CIA's cocaine. By 1991, preparations were being made for the 9/11 event. Alec Station, the CIA's super-secret get Bin Laden station was set up and charged with tracking Al Qaeda and Osama Bin Laden. This was to prove useful in protecting the 19 hijackers from honest law enforcement officials. Bin Laden remember was a CIA asset called Tim Osman.

The OKC Bombing: In 1995, explosions in the Murrah building in Oklahoma city killed 168 people. Initial reporting suggested that it was the work of Muslim terrorists, the official narrative quickly changed to blame Timothy McVeigh and the US militia movement. This is how the media work, apportion blame whilst providing zero evidence of such claims. In fact, it was a false flag, as evidenced by the fact amongst others that, the damage to the buildings was incompatible with the bomb McVeigh purportedly built. Echoing other suspicious events, the FBI quickly confiscated CCTV footage of the event, and later reportedly lost a crucial tape. Those tactics played out after 9/11 also. As well as providing a pretext for more counter-terror legislation in 1995, the bombing destroyed FBI investigations being carried out from the building, which were set to expose some frauds of The Enterprise. Yet again it appears the FBI at the top levels was committed to covering up atrocities committed against the American public.

In the 21st Century: Clear evidence of suppression of an investigation into a child trafficking ring with blatantly obvious ties to US military and intelligence organizations. That was the Finders cult set up and ran by the CIA, which we covered in a show 4-5 years back. Having enjoyed a stranglehold over US mass media since at least as far back as the JFK Assassination, with the US media more consolidated than ever, control of information may have seemed a straightforward task until the rise of the World Wide Web. This quickly developed from an academic research tool of marginal interest, into a universally available means of accessing information. Moreover, the Internet on which it was built had a decentralized design that made censorship difficult. As web technologies became more interactive, by the early 2000s the general public could not only access but also share information with others around the globe. This presented an unprecedented technical challenge to the US deep state, whose previous modus operandi for controlling information, had centered on dominating editorial hierarchies and corporate boards of big media. One response which will be very familiar to our listeners is, to contain information that was on the rise and rise of claims of national security, increasingly used in USA to avoid response to FOIA requests. Well I never! National Security is the Agencies permanent day of atonement card. Al Qaeda and similar groups continue to be run through intelligence agency proxies, and have carried out a string of attacks globally, especially in European nations that were wavering in their support of terrorism. The London and Madrid events were two of them at that time. The US deep state used 9/11 not only as a casus belli to invade Afghanistan and Iraq, but also to reorganize the US government under a counter-terror rubric, emphasizing mass surveillance, increased spending on the deep state controlled MICC most notably the DoHS, while defunding government agencies which posed a threat to its dominance. Like we have stated, they never do things for just one reason. More broadly, the 9/11 event began an unprecedented corruption of global governance, increasing expenditure on the MICC to undertake a global surveillance project, rolling of back civil liberties, and undertaking a general militarization of society the world over, under the fraudulent banner of the War on Terror. Mainly operated by the fraudulent document prepared before 9/11 and criminally passed by Congress when no one even read it, called the Patriot Act. Which over twenty years later, despite no obvious wars, is still in circulation. While vehemently opposed by a lot of civil society, the governmental opposition to this project has been so lacking that 9-11 can be considered the genesis of a supranational deep state.

September 11, 2001: Well over 10 years in the planning, the events of September 11, 2001 were the most ambitious of the many false flag attacks carried out by The Cabal. The project required not only a legion of carefully placed US government insiders, but relied on collaboration from Saudi intelligence, the Pakistani ISI and the Mossad. A closely choreographed sequence of failures by deep state functionaries to follow standard operating procedures, prevented any planes from being intercepted by US air defense. You can thank clowns like Cheney, Rumsfeld and Perle for that stand down. It was all so obvious, and yet the military whether generals or rank file have largely said nothing since. The 19 hijackers were patsies, mostly from Saudi Arabia, let into the USA on a CIA-managed visa program, shepherded and given money and logistical support from Saudi agents coordinated by The Cabal. The arrest and/or detention of the 19 hijackers by honest officials was prevented on many occasions by the CIA's Alec Station, which had legal jurisdiction on matters pertaining to Osama Bin Laden and Al Qaeda, allowing them to protect the designed patsies. The CIA didn't just have legal jurisdiction of Bin Laden and Al Qaeda, they were the creators of both of them. Larry Silverstein who was born in New York and born to Jewish parents, had taken out special insurance against such attacks since purchasing the World Trade Center just 6 weeks before the attacks. The billions of dollars he was awarded is the most obvious of a number of fortunes made from the event. The Department of Homeland Security, created after the event, has disbursed trillions of tax payer dollars to a small number of MICC contractors. The targets of the plane strikes appear to have been a deliberate attempt to cause disruption in the US bond market. The established procedures were not followed after the SEC suspended rules and allowed for blind-brokered trades. Mark Gorton suggests that the financial fraud may have been over $100 billion, making it the largest theft in US history.

Cover-up: As with the JFK assassination, the cover-up of 9-11 was a larger operation, and involved tidying up innumerable loose ends. Unknown to most US citizens until Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 9-11, George W. Bush opened US airspace in the days after the attacks explicitly to allow rich Saudis to leave the USA, including members of the Bin Laden family. All part of the Carlyle Group is why. Porter Goss another out of the Yale club, was a member of the CIA's Operation 40 co-chaired the first US government fake investigation. Although he explicitly stated that it did not attempt to determine wrongdoers, it did observe that the hijackers had received a lot of money from Saudi Arabia, including from the wife of Prince Bandar, long time Saudi ambassador to the US and a close personal friend of the Bush Family. George W. Bush censored those 28 pages from the report. Relatives continued to vocally express their dissatisfaction and disbelief, so George W. Bush reluctantly agreed to create of another fake investigation. The original chair of the 9-11/Commission, Henry Kissinger, resigned rather than answer questions about his Saudi connections. His successor, Dr. Philip Zelikow wrote the structure of the report himself, without conferring with the other members of the 9-11 Commission. Around 97% of the victims' families were compensated by the 9-11/Compensation fund, which only gave money to relatives who agreed not to sue the US government about the attacks.

Exposure: In the days after 9/11, while some people prominently dissented from the US government's official narrative, it was such a big lie and was so adeptly manipulated by the US commercially-controlled media, that few US citizens were willing to contemplate the fact that, it might not be as presented by the US government. In the days and months after the event, there was no serious questioning of the story. In my opinion there was no real questioning of the official narrative until around a decade later. American's were not brought up with attacks on their country like many others, it wasn't contemplated, due to the narrative we are the greatest at everything. So, it was a cultural shock in many ways that sent Americans into a shock almost comatose state into the 2010's period. Over the years, the Cabal's media assets gradually constructed an official opposition narrative that, the government's failure to notice the warning signs of the attack was due to isolated acts of laziness or incompetence. Possibly the biggest mistake of the day, was the failure to match the number of plane strikes and building demolitions, two planes supposedly destroyed three buildings, a mistake very likely connected to Flight 77, the official story of which is another particularly poor fit with the evidence. Yes, Johns Hopkins math existed back then as well. Although the third collapse was shown on TV on the day itself, it was not repeated, in stark contrast to WTC 1 & 2, which were shown repeatedly in the days and weeks following. Around 2006 video of the collapse of WTC7 resurfaced and was widely circulated on the internet, deepening a skepticism about the US government's official narrative. All of which was amplified soon after when a BBC report emerged, which reported that WTC7 had collapsed about 20 minutes before it actually did, foreknowledge which still lacks a proper explanation.

Related premature deaths: Almost 3000 people were murdered on 9-11, allowing for the US deep state to hide multiple assassinations. John O' Neill, for example, was an FBI counter-terrorism expert on whose investigation into the attack on the U.S.S. Cole was sabotaged, by the US Ambassador to Yemen, Barbara Bodine. Bodine was a secretary for Henry Kissinger it should be noted. O' Neill was given the job as head of security for the World Trade Center on condition that he started work there on the morning of September 11, 2001. Former Marsh & McLennan financial trader, Richard Andrew Grove, was fired in 2001 after questioning his boss about anomalous financial transactions. He was urged to present his evidence to a meeting on the morning of September 11, 2001 which his boss would attend by video chat. Late for the meeting due to traffic, Grove watched in horror as black smoke poured out of the hole in the side of WTC1, exactly where his meeting was scheduled. Dozens of subsequent assassinations have been carried out to try to hide the truth about the events of September 11th, 2001. Targets have included conspirators, people with particular inside knowledge, chance witnesses, reporters and others who doubted the official story. The photographers and witnesses on the ground that day, that has been played back many times, were all paid CIA agents, including the photographer from Canada.

Political exploitation: The US government, with the follow up Anthrax event, was sufficiently traumatized to permit an unprecedented expansion of the US police state, in the first instance, by the previously written PATRIOT Act. Similarly, the US deep state launched the invasion of Afghanistan, which dramatically increased the cultivation of opium. The US public has been continually traumatized by acts of terrorism, that is usually linked to FBI informers. Funny how that happens isn't it? Yet they never stop them. Although the US government never directly claimed that Iraq was responsible for 9-11, their ongoing strategy of tension against the US public was sufficient that the majority of the US public were reportedly in favor of the 2003 invasion of Iraq, an attack which resulted in millions of deaths and huge profits for the MICC and big oil. Therein lies the biggest problem, the people believing some animated clown inside of a mind control box. The people under educated to the lowest levels and too lazy to think for themselves, are the very people that come into this category. They are the real drivers of any war or program, it is the classic problem, reaction and solution game again. All the public have to do is believe a fake story, provide the reaction they wanted and off to war we go. Negating the fact of their role in the death and carnage. I am not responsible for war they will cry, yes you are for being ignorant at best and stupid at worst. A one off event and people can get it wrong, but they have been pulling these stunts for decades.

The 2010s: The Pentagon's Operation Gladio/B, has seen a steady rise in the number of attacks in Europe and the US which are blamed on Muslim terrorists. All of which got the public hating on Muslim's, and innocent Muslim people being attacked due to people believing the lies. As the war on terror has continued, erm, it is war on terra not terror, an increasing number of people have grown skeptical about it. Google Trends reports that 2013, in particular, saw a sharp rise in the number of people searching on the term false flag. With the advent of the smartphone, a large proportion of people carrying internet-connected recording devices with them 24/7, presenting new challenges for anyone planning a false flag attack. Another example of the ouroboros programs they are running on us, but also themselves.

Party politics: The deception of shallow party politics has continued in the US, with President Barack Obama, an asset of the US Deep state, yes the head of Langley 3 and the Muslim Brotherhood. He was elected amid a well-scripted and award-winning campaign that pretended to offer hope and change to a deeply disaffected US public. Yes, the great black hope and how it was all going to be different now a black person was in the White House.(M) What an illusion that was, no more of an illusion of having a woman in the White House either. Because who or what is in there is irrelevant until the hidden system that runs it is eliminated. Obama did even less for the black people than all the so called white who went before him. All whilst negating the fact that he was married to a transsexual and was ineligible as a President, because according to the Mocking Bird media he was a terrorist, given he was Muslim. The 2016 Presidential Election saw another pair of old Cabal members face off in fake competition, Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump. After various leaks, especially emails from Hillary Clinton's private email server, Trump won the election, exploiting growing public awareness of the US deep state by talk of draining the swamp. The election of Trump, like the Brexit vote, may be evidence of a growing dissatisfaction with the political status quo and a desire for real change. But there was more to the 2016 election than that. As at 9pm Sunday September 11th Hillary Clinton flatlined permanently, two months before the selection. They carried on with a double for a bit, but the double got cancer and so could not fulfill her duties. The clowns didn't think they could pull off a fake Hillary for 4 years and so the Trump card was issued. Of which he then proceeded to lead the Trustee on a merry dance for the next near 6 years, until even the woman who can't be wrong had to admit, he was not what he said he was.

Fake News: In late 2016, the supranational deep state tried to introduce the phrase Fake News Website into the public discourse, to try to counter the public's consistently decreasing faith in commercially-controlled media. Yes, the clowns introduced fake news, like conspiracy theory and flat earth. The ironic centerpiece of this effort was PropOrNot, an anonymous website which listed 200 purported Fake News Websites. The list was featured by Operation Mockingbird asset, Craig Timberg in the Washington Post. In the face of legal threats by some of the sites named, the Post distanced itself from the article. Moreover, the phrase was quickly replaced by the simpler Fake News, neutralizing the plan to scare people away from websites back to newspapers and TV. The phrase remains widely used, and has prompted a lot of discussion about the veracity of news and the importance of checking sources. It seems to have resulted in a blowback which not only defeated its original purpose, but awoke more people to the fact that TV and newspapers regularly contain disinformation. Various efforts have been made to try to make it illegal to post fake news, many of which have fallen foul of free speech laws, and the impossibility of legally defining truth. In spite of an increase in the number of events of terrorism and massive coverage by corporate media, fear of terrorism which was #2 in 2014, was no longer in the top 20 by 2017. The US adults' greatest fear, 75% either afraid or very afraid was of corrupt government officials. An example also of how the system plays upon our fears, the solution is to have none. That then allows them no leverage over us and their scare tactics dismissed. DIRTY DEEDS

Peter Dale Scott a former diplomat said this in 2015. I join with those who assess the decay of the so-called Pax Americana into ever widening arms build-ups and military violence, in the light of the very similar decay a century ago of the so-called Pax Britannica. We need to rescind policies that are as visibly detrimental to America and the world today as they were to Britain then. The problem is that American institutions are again in the grip of collective mania, as they were in the Palmer raids of 1919 and the McCarthy persecutions of the early 1950s. People outside government must work for a redirection of the U.S.government away from mania and illegality, like the awakening that ends the McCarthy era. But to regain control of politics, Americans must learn to understand and cope with the dark forces of the deep state. America, I try to suggest at the end of The American Deep State, has like Britain, far more to contribute to the world than violent power. That is what the Blueprint is attempting to achieve, all it takes is the public to get behind it, and it is game over for these deep state clowns. Although I do suspect and in some cases know, they no longer wish to play the game anymore.

Drug busts: 2019 saw a disproportionate increase in multi-tonne drug busts, possibly an indication of the increasing exposure of infighting within the deep state. Faction fighting as we call it, which I warned would unfold and increase in our 2015 show on Cosmic Voice.

The 2020s: The US Deep State organized a fairly transparent voting fraud to defeat Donald Trump.

2021 Washington D.C.Riots: All of which was faked and orchestrated by Pelosi and DNC clowns.

Covid-19 and the lockdown of the US: Anthony Fauci 8 April 2020; I feel confident that over a period of time we will get a good vaccine, that we will never have to get back to where we are right now. Anthony Fauci on 16 April 2020 said; No matter what phase you're in, there are certain fundamental things that we've done that are not like it was in September or October 2019, you want to call it the new normal, you can call it whatever you want. The new normal? we never defined too well the original normal, did we? Normal is a control system of other people imposing their choices upon us and denying us our own free will. The back drop to this event was, March 21st 2020 and the arrival of the Day of Svarog, the time of the light. The deep state clowns ordered global martial law that day, that was counteracted. But just two weeks later, yes two weeks, the clowns asked for lockdowns and the people locked down themselves. In what must go down as, the most stupid event in history. Millions of people locking themselves away based on fake fears that again emanated out of the mind control box. If people still believe that the people are not at fault in all of this, the lockdown ruined that notion out of the stratosphere. Mass stupidity on a mass scale, out went the jobs, homes, businesses and lifestyle, all due to listening and believing a box. Ponder on that in overview, rank lunacy.

ID2020: Bill Gates 24 March 2020 said; We don't want to have a lot of recovered people, to be clear, we're trying through the shut-down in the United States to not get to one percent of the population infected. A person who was not medically trained speaking in authority on viruses, yet his own computer company couldn't stop viruses affecting their systems, yet the people listened to him. We're well below that today, but with exponentiation, you could get past that three million people or approximately one percent of the U.S. population being infected with Covid-19 and the vast majority recovering. Interesting looking back on that now, was his reference to one percent telling? Eventually what we'll have to have is, certificates of who's a recovered person, who's a vaccinated person. Because you don't want people moving around the world, where you'll have some countries that won't have it under control, sadly. Under who or what control you have to ask? You don't want to completely block off the ability for people to go there and come back and move around. So eventually there will be this digital immunity proof that will help facilitate the global reopening up. Yet clowns like him and his ilk went freely around the world attending conferences and piss taking photo ops without masks, social distancing or any other protective measures. And still the people enforced their own prison bars and throat chakra blocking masks. The public granted them immunity to do so (pardon the pun), because they are the people inside the magic box that mesmerizes them into retardation.

The Exposure: Deep states everywhere are increasingly exposed, and the US Deep state is no exception. The phrase deep state, after being almost never used by commercially-controlled media was popularized in February 2017. Together with the boomeranging of the fake news website campaign, this seems to have contributed to an awareness of the shallowness of US party politics.

Ending The Deep State: In an unfinished section of his essay on the Deep state, Gorton refers to the rise of the internet and the liberation of the truth, opining that the truth will out, and old methods of censorship are doomed to fail since information is so easily communicable using modern technology. He concludes his essay on The Political Dominance of The Cabal by suggesting a truth commission as one way to break the cycle of criminal and corrupting behaviour: I call for a Truth Commission to publicly and openly uncover the horrible secrets buried away behind walls of government secrecy. A Truth Commission would provide an opportunity for all people to come forward and confess crimes related to the Cabal. A Truth Commission could be a very effective way to purge the evil of the Cabal from our system. As hard as it may be to believe, things are so bad in the United States, we need a Truth Commission. This is what we endeavor to achieve with the Blueprint also, with full disclaimer for full disclosure.

The US/Chamber of Commerce: An unlikely sounding group to include deep state clowns, but this is how they hide in plain sight as it were. The chamber of commerce is really one of the most powerful lobbies in this country. It's so powerful you almost never read about it. It's one of those deep presences that rarely rise to the level of being written about in history.

Statecraft: The financial frauds conducted by The Enterprise were designed to implicate, enrich and entrap a huge swath of the political class in DC. Fraudulent securities or oil and gas deals were offered to friends to enrich them and enemies to entrap them. In some cases, enemies were suckered in with easy profits on small investments, only to be bankrupted when larger fraudulent investments imploded. By the time that the Iran Contra scandal made the headlines, such a large number of congressmen and DC insiders were implicated, that any attempt to expose the scale of the scandal would have resulted in a near wholesale implication of the political class. In many ways, this endemic corruption is what makes political reform in Washington so difficult, the level of corruption is so pervasive that, the political class has no choice but to cover for each other's crimes or risk mutually assured destruction. Since Dale entered politics, he has chiefly had men's views confided to him privately. Some of the biggest men in the United States, in the field of commerce and manufacture, are afraid of somebody, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they had better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it. Though the deep state is sometimes discussed as a shadowy conspiracy, it helps to think of it instead as a political conflict between a nation's leader and its governing institutions. Again the full disclaimer for full disclosure ends that skullduggery, many of them want out from the leverage, but they need a safe platform with which to do so. Bush wielded this heightened power on behalf of the military industrial complex that President Eisenhower had so famously warned against. Politicizing the process of intelligence analysis, he imposed a systematic bias that took a new, harder line towards the communist bloc. This was a direct reversal of the Nixon-Kissinger policy of detente. Under the guidance of Rumsfeld, Cheney, a young Paul Wolfowitz, Richard Perle and others who had ascended in the Halloween massacre, Poppy began finding ways to get around the analysts who did not sufficiently hype the Soviet threat. There was no Soviet threat, it is another fear and money laundering program for and on behalf of the deep state. To that end, he created a second analytical team which produced alarming estimates of Soviet military capabilities. The concept was known as Team A and Team B, more duality games again. In this way, Poppy was the father of the analytical gamesmanship his son would use to justify war with Iraq nearly three decades later, under the guidance of the same Rumsfeld, Cheney and Wolfowitz.

The Savings and loan fraud: Involved a covert removal of hundreds of billions of dollars of assets from US savings institutions. It was carried out by the US deep state from the late 1980s to the early 1990s. It was presented by most of the commercially-controlled media as an unfortunate accident. The beneficiaries were senior US establishment figures, some of whom were involved in legal changes which made it possible. The largest theft in the history of the world, carried out in broad daylight, with legislative assistance. So many US politicians were directly or indirectly involved, that it was never properly exposed and efforts are ongoing to try to hide the fact that it was no mere accident. That is where the leverage program kicks in, and when all else fails in comes the get out jail free card with the National Security Act. In the early 1980s, under Ronald Reagan, Vice President George H.W. Bush managed regulatory changes that took place and that gave the Savings and Loan industry new powers. For the first time in history measures were taken to increase the profitability of Savings and Loans at the expense of promoting home ownership. George Bush Sr., Junior and Neil Bush who was reprimanded by federal regulators for the multiple conflicts of interest, plus Jeb Bush were implicated in the Savings & Loan fraud.

The October surprise: A secret deal which offered the Iranians weapons in return for their preventing the release of the US embassy hostages before the 1980 US presidential election. The October surprise is also wheeled out by the CIA agents into the Alt Media every year to signal mass arrests, NESARA, GESARA, RV's and other fake clown oriented dangling carrot games. Yet every year a whole swathe of so called awake people fall for it. October surprise my ass, turn it in.

The assassinations: US President John F. Kennedy was the seminal deep political event of modern times, perhaps even more than 9-11, both were done by the same group. Subsequently the group assassinated RFK, MLK and many others to try to contain the truth.

The Omaha, Nebraska, Boys Town: A US/Deep state backed child prostitution ring centered around Larry King that was partially exposed.

Place of interest: Menwith Hill is the world's largest monitoring communications station and is situated just outside Harrogate, North Yorkshire, on the edge of the Yorkshire Dales. Officially called RAF Menwith Hill, but actually run by the US National Security Agency (NSA), it is part of the signals intelligence collection and analysis network ECHELON. It is operated on behalf of the five signatory states to the UK-USA Security Agreement (Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, and the United States, known as AUSCANZUKUS). Or better known to us as, The Five Eyes group. Selected information is exchanged with the British listening post at the Government Communications Headquarters (GCHQ) and a number of GCHQ staff work at the station. The NSA is the sister group of GCHQ, so not a surprise they work together there. Why there? Because there is an off world base underneath Menwith Hill is why. LOW LIFE IN HIGH PLACES

One of the biggest aspects of this cabal and it's tirade of warfare, whether psychological, poisoning or direct war, has been the role of the US Military. Eighty odds countries have been attacked under the banner of peace keeping (M) yeah right, utter delusion thinking that. Like the V's, the US Military comes of peace, or the real term piece, a piece of this and a piece of that. Never have they come in peace, 80 odd countries will all tell you that. Back in 2013 in my early days of being a radio show host, I mentioned the 4 M's as being the main problems, like the modern day 4 horsemen of the apocalypse. Media, Masons, Military and Marduk, are the 4 horsemen of death in apocalyptic style. Apocalypse actually means to reveal, and reveal them we will with this piece. I have often focused on the sheer cost of the Military, none of which makes any sense, which means it is a program. And the US military and their festering entourage vacuums up American people's funds and lives, like there is no tomorrow. Worshipped on these lands, yet where is the evidence that warrants it? The US Military has killed more people than Hitler or Pol Pot ever did, and for that we have to worship them? Turn it in, they are a killing and harvesting machine of epic proportions, and yet the public by and large think they are good for the country, where is the evidence of such claims? But, America hasn't been attacked and so the Military have protected us, people will say. America hasn't been attacked because the clowns designated it that way, zero to do with being protected. You don't believe me? Go and read the Military documents where it states; they are not allowed to fight on our own soil. Which means if we ever did get attacked, the US Military would not defend the people. Many Americans will not believe that statement just made, think I am just talking shit, but go and check it yourselves, because it is true. So, you are sending your children to fight wars for the system, not Americans, in a giant sacrifice to the gods game again, and you support that? But I am a patriot and it is the right thing to do, you do realize that patriotism is fascism, is Zionism. Still want to be a patriot? Don't believe patriotism is not fascism? Patriot 1590s, compatriot from French patriote (15c.) and directly from Late Latin patriota fellow-countryman 6c., from Greek patriotes fellow countryman, which came from patrios of one's fathers. Notice it said fellow countryman? That means to support the people, not the country. But here is the key clue, patris meaning fatherland, from pater meaning father. Which country was called the Fatherland? Germany, where it is said Fascism came from. Remember the German people were duped into loving their country with great passion, yet didn't notice their fellow countrymen was being sacrificed for the country. America and Americans have copied the same model, whether you like that fact or not. For patriotic read idiotic, patriotism is the love of the country over the love of the people. Why would protecting the name and honor of the country, come before the people? But it is our duty they will cry, duty is a tax remember, and they have taxed us into oblivion to fund their duties, not ours. You wish to know where your duty went? Duty in terms of taxes? This next piece will shock you in great depth, it is lengthy, a tad tedious going through all the names, but this is an impact piece and a wake-up call as well. For years now I have mentioned all the foreign bases held under the banner of the US Military. 8-900 foreign bases I said, which again is barely believable, but finally I acquired the full list. A List of All the U.S.Foreign Military Bases. Presented at: USA's Military Empire: A Visual Database, showing All 900 U.S.Foreign Military Bases. Yes, 900 worldwide bases, all of which we are paying for. For further reference go to; worldbeyondwar.org/no-bases/ The United States of America, unlike any other nation, maintains a massive network of exactly 900 foreign military installations around the world. How was this created and how is it continued? Some of these physical installations are on land occupied as spoils of war. Most are maintained through collaborations with governments, many of them brutal and oppressive governments benefiting from the bases' presence. In many cases, human beings were displaced to make room for these military installations, often depriving people of farmland, adding huge amounts of pollution to local water systems and the air, and existing as an unwelcome presence. Many of those were staged coups, performed by the CIA and other clown-based agencies.

An utterly staggering list and should strike every American with horror and abject revulsion, but will it is the great question? WAR PIGS

Are you still proud to be an American? But let's just not pick on Americans though, as every country where this filth operates, is blighted as well. A staggering list of crimes, corruption, fraud, death and pure evil, that thankfully now is being ever more exposed, that will lead to not just it's full demise, but their ability to manipulate the public globally. Clowns like rats go underground when exposed and we will have to be ever vigilant of them returning. The irony of all of this that has been done to the American public is, we have paid for it all. Paid for these psychopaths to ruin our lives, for those that live through it, remember there was many lives who didn't make it through it. Their power reigns is losing ground fast now and most of us will see an end to these groups and their evil and devious ways. All it takes is a line of communication, a will to fix the problem and the desire for us all to learn to work together in harmony. It is not fucking rocket science is it? The old ways and world no longer works anymore, it ain't going to either. That world and time is going or gone, depending upon your own perspective or viewing process. We at THI have highlighted all the problems the same as everyone else, but we at THI have done two things very differently to all that has gone before. 1.We have blamed ourselves for our roles in the madness and 2.Came together as a collective with common sense-based solutions not just for us, but for the all providing they do the right thing and work at not fixing it, but building anew. We are calling on the deep states to step down before it really gets ugly for you all, you all know it is coming. In a few weeks we will launch the full version of our Blueprint, after that we are asking for conferences and private meetings to engage you all and kick start an actual future. Currently most on this planet have none. Together we can prevail, divided like now, you won't. We the people are divided, your factions are divided and only the shekel makers are winning currently, but rest assured their demise is imminent as well. We at THI see and envision the future, we are asking you to step forward, speak with us and share in our vision of the future. INSIDE US ALL
